

75 YEARS A CITY

Pictured at Caulfield's 75th celebrations are Senator Margaret Reynolds and the Mayor of Caulfield, Councillor Emil Braun.

Caulfield celebrated its 75 years as a city with a cocktail party in the Arts Complex Auditorium on Friday, March 31.

More than 600 invited guests mingled with dignitaries including the Honorable Margaret Reynolds, Minister for Local Government, the Honorable Andrew McCutcheon M.L.A., Attorney General, Victoria's newly appointed Minister for Local Government, Maureen Lyster, Mr Ted Tanner, M.L.A., and the Mayors of St Kilda, Malvern, Prahran and Brighton.

Speaking to his guests, the Mayor of Caulfield, Councillor Emil Braun said the story of the past 75 years for Caulfield could be summarised in one word "progress".

He said, "Parks and gardens have been established, streets and footpaths have been laid, baby health centres have been built and hostel and recreation facilities have been developed".

Cr Braun paid tribute to past mayors, councillors, council staff and citizens saying they had earned the praise of us all.

He went on to describe Caulfield as a suburb of Melbourne which was "second to none".

Senator Margaret Reynolds spoke saying that the Prime Minister, Bob Hawke, sent his congratulations and best wishes to the citizens of Caulfield.

Senator Reynolds said the Australian community underestimated the role local government played in the community and that it in fact played a very important role.

She said Caulfield was recognised as a very innovative local council and congratulated it on its recent Federal grant of $25,000 to further promote women in management in local government.

Andrew McCutcheon, Attorney General then spoke of what Caulfield meant to him.

He said he was most impressed with the way the City was run, especially mentioning its aged services and the fact that it was one of the first local councils to embrace the corporate management concept.

He said, "The Caulfield community cares about Caulfield and the Caulfield Council is capable of translating that care into positive action".

SCHOOL CELEBRATES

The Glenhuntly Primary School's 75th Anniversary celebrations were officially opened by the Mayor of Caulfield Councillor Emil Braun on Saturday, March 18.

On behalf of the organisers he extended a warm welcome to all of those in attendance, in particular those returning after many years absence.

Seventy-five years ago the Glenhuntly Primary School was established and opened its doors to 248 children.

Since that time both the school and Caulfield - the city it stands in have coped with rapid progress and huge population increases.

At one time during the 1920's the enrolment figure at this school reached 930 and average attendances were 840 with 90 children per classroom.

William Jenkin, the highly respected Head Teacher, often referred to as the 'school father' who took over the school in 1917 steered it through all the years of over-crowding and growth until 1934.

William Jenkin placed the school on a firm foundation and from his time to the present day the school has not only provided a first class primary education for its pupils but has allowed them to develop in a very happy environment - an environment which enabled each child to develop his or her own particular talents.

This environment would, no doubt, have contributed to the success of past pupils such as Allen Brown, later Sir Allen Brown, the Australian Ambassador to Japan: Marie Bremner, an early pupil, who became the lead singer in the light operas of Gilbert and Sullivan, and Victorian Football League players, Neil Brompton, Graham Wilkinson, Ray Nilson and Barry Byers.

A factor which has contributed to the success of the school has been the dedication of the school committee in its campaigns to gain benefits for the pupils. With the willing support of the local community and the Caulfield Council the committee successfully campaigned, in the early years, for greater accommodation and needed facilities and, in the latter years, for crash barriers followed by school crossings to protect the children.

The school is still in need of community assistance as its resources do not extend to providing for extras such as ceiling fans.

News from Council

HOUSING STRATEGY SEMINARS

Caulfield's recently released Draft Housing Strategy and Draft Multiple Residential Development Policy have attracted widespread interest since their release for public comment.

These documents represent Council's suggestions for the future direction of residential development in Caulfield for the long term benefit of the whole municipality.

The Council is very keen to hear from residents and other interested persons concerning this important initiative.

They will therefore be hosting two public seminars in April to discuss the Draft Strategy and Policy.

The seminars will be held in Council's Theatre on the following days:

Saturday, April 22 from 2pm to 5pm and Wednesday, April 26 from 7.30pm to 10.30pm.

At each seminar representatives from the Ministry for Planning and Environment, the Housing Industry Association, the Real Estate Institute of Victoria, a housing developer, Councillors and Council staff will speak on a range of topics including:

- * housing choice
- * housing affordability
- * improving the residential environment
- * State Government housing and urban development policies
- * housing in Caulfield
- * market demand for housing

It is proposed that there will be a general discussion about the Strategy and Policy.

Participants will be encouraged to give their comments on the documents.

Anyone wishing to attend either of these seminars can reserve their place by contacting Ms Sherry Hopkins of Council's Planning Department on:

524 3337.

COUNCIL OPPOSED TO FAST TRAIN THROUGH CAULFIELD

After considering details of the proposed Very Fast Train Concept report for a new high speed rail system between Sydney, Canberra and Melbourne, Caulfield Council has advised that they would be opposed to any proposal which utilised any land within the Outer Circle linear park.

This would be the case if Option One which proposes the use of the "Outer Circle Railway" reserve from Hughesdale Station to east Malvern Railway Station, was adopted.

The report has been provided for consideration by both Government and the public and is the first investigative step in a long process.

Later studies and reports should provide greater certainty as to the likely route of the VFT and how this may affect Caulfield.

Council Applies for Funding for Meals on Wheels Kitchen

The City of Caulfield's Meals on Wheels Kitchen has reached maximum capacity as far as storage and chilling are concerned and there is congestion in the collection area.

As Meals on Wheels is a Home and Community Care service, Council is eligible to apply for capital funding towards major works. Therefore Council is expressing its interest to Community Services Victoria in applying for funding for a subsidy of $80,000 to renovate the kitchen. If this is successful Council will contribute $40,000 to the project.

CAULFIELD'S SISTER CITY.

Earlier this month, the Mayor of Caulfield, Cr Emil Braun, was presented with greetings from the Mayor of Ogaki, Japan, Mitsuru Ogura.

The greeting followed a trip by 21 students in the International Studies program at Chisholm Institute of Technology to leading banks, companies, and groups in Hong Kong, Japan and Indonesia.

Students represented the City of Caulfield at Ogaki (Caulfield's sister city) in Japan and were received by Ogaki's Major at the Ogaki Women's Junior College.

LOCAL AREA TRAFFIC

In March 1985 Caulfield Council adopted a strategy for Local Area Traffic Management. Council subsequently undertook Local Area Traffic Management schemes in Local Area No 43 (bound by Corrigil, Murrumbena, North and Koornang Roads) and Local Area No 42 (bound by Lyons St, Koornang, North and Grange Rds).

After further study it is considered that these schemes have resulted in a significant reduction in traffic volumes in the busier streets and marked reductions in traffic speeds to relatively safe levels on streets in both these areas.

YEARLY FESTIVAL

A three day Caulfield Festival will be held this year replacing the biennial nine day one of past years.

Most municipalities run annual weekend festivals on the same weekend each year so that residents come to regard it as a regular part of their community life. It is hoped this will be the case in Caulfield and an evaluation will be undertaken after this year's Festival to determine the composition and structure of future Caulfield Festivals.

Madam,

It has given me great pleasure to serve as Chairman of the City of Caulfield, Salvation Army Red Shield Appeal.

Having performed this function for the last ten years, the time has come to take some long service leave and to pass over the job to someone with new ideas. Jack Campbell has agreed to take on the challenge.

Without the enthusiasm, support and generosity of the people of Caulfield, my task would not have been so rewarding. Many people have annually trudged in the rain, hail or sunshine to knock on the doors of the Caul-field households. Often door knockers told me of interesting encounters with residents which made their morning of collection even more worth while.

As I retire from this role, I want to thank the Caulfield people who have worked with me for so many years. In particular, the District

Chairmen, Jack Campbell, Ted Tanner and Noel Jarrett have been tireless in their efforts.

Groups who have been in their support include: Caulfield Central Sub Branch of the RSL, City of Caulfield Lions Club, Melbourne Hosts Lions Club, Caulfield Rotary Club, Caulfield/Rosstown Rotary Club, Caulfield Young Liberals, GRE Insurance Limited, National Mutual T & G, 5th Caulfield Scouts.

15th Brighton Scouts, Carnegie Girl Guides, Red Cross, Caulfield Citizens, Caulfield Batten Twirlers, Caulfield Youth Council,

7th Day Adventist Church, Caulfield

Grammar School, Shelford Girls Anglican School, Cato College, Murrumbena High School, Star of the Sea Secondary School, Caulfield North Central School, Caulfield Secondary College, Chisholm Institute of Technology.

Each year there have been a number of Caulfield residents who have individually volunteered to assist with the door knock - thank you!!

To help with this year's appeal, Sunday May 25, 1989, please contact Mayor Des Veale on 819 4311.

Once again - thanks to all of you who have helped over the years.

Gratefully

Chisholm Creates Open Space and Parking Facilities

Chisholm is to make the area around its Caulfield Campus more pleasant by the construction of an open space for students with an auditorium and barbeque facilities.

The area is the grounds of the property at 10 Princes Avenue, formerly owned by long-time Caulfield resident and successful local fishmonger, Jack Lauritz and his family who lived in the area for 50 years, operating the fish shop in Derby Road. The project is being jointly funded by the Chisholm Institute of Technology Student Union Inc. and the Institute itself.

All care is being taken to maintain the flora of the grounds, including all the substantial trees, in the landscaping. The space will be open to Princes and Queens Avenues.

The space will also be available for public use.

Bookings should be made through the Student Union on 573 2003. An amenities block, with a small serving area, will be built, along with a small stage, eight gas-fired barbeques and six bench tables.

The house on the property now contains Chisholm's Premises Branch and the Equal Opportunity Office.

An adjoining building, 2 Queens Avenue, has been demolished along with three buildings on Railway Avenue, to create parking facilities for tenants of the "Technology Tower", the building which Chisholm owns opposite the Caulfield Railway Station.

This will make over 100 parking places available for Institute use next to the Caulfield Plaza Shopping Centre, where the tenants now park, lessening the pressure on parking availability in the area.

The Institute is presently pursuing discussions with the appropriate authorities in an effort to arrange more student carparking around the campus, especially after hours to serve the Institute's several thousand part-time evening students.

WINSOME SPEAKS TO JEWISH WOMEN

The Right Honorable. The Lord Mayor of Melbourne, Councillor Winsome McCaughey spoke on the subject of "Becoming and being a woman Lord Mayor" to more than 240 guests at the annual luncheon of the National Council of Jewish Women (Victorian Section) held recently.

Cr McCaughey began by referring to her rural background saying that its strength was in teaching her the importance of community, a reverence for land and the importance of environment and a reverence for spiritual values "across the board".

She then spoke of her involvement in the women's movement of the early 70's in particular the work she did with the Women's Electoral Lobby especially in the area of child care.

After this came philanthropic work and then her seven years as a Melbourne City Councillor before her term as Lord Mayor.

Cr McCaughey said

she had "had to learn to walk a very delicate tightrope in her role, to 'come around sideways and use the old honey trick'".

She said she felt women were particularly well suited to a role in the local government area through their insights and experiences in everyday life.

However she said the workload involved in serving as a capital city councillor was immense and brought into question the issue of what it is to be a volunteer.

"To be a councillor in a capital city and not be paid is nonsense, it virtually excludes most women trying to maintain a job", she said.

CONCERT IN PARK ATTRACTS THOUSANDS

Around 12,000 people enjoyed a day of music, dance and fun at the second annual 'Concert in the Park' held on March 19th. From 12.30 when the first trio of traditional Eastern European musicians started playing, till the audience-participation dancing stopped at nightfall, Caulfield Park was packed with a delighted crowd.

The concert was organised by Jewish group SKIF, and by the Jewish National Library and Cultural Centre 'Kadimah' as a celebration of the depth and breadth of Jewish culture and life in Australia. There was modern Israeli pop music, and traditional Hebrew folk songs. There were bands that gave a new twist to old Yiddish favourites, and choirs which sang contemporary songs in novel and entertaining ways. There were dramatised melodies by schools, and existing dance numbers to watch. To conclude the concert, the entire audience was invited to get up and join in the dancing.

Senator Joan Child opened the concert as a bunch of helium balloons carrying the concert motto - 'In one Voice' - were released.

Though the weather left something to be desired, the crowd only grew so that for most of the concert it was 'wall to wall' people. The number of people who stayed despite the brief showers is a testament to the quality of the performers who entertained.

The success of the concert again this year ensures that future similar events will be organised by SKIF.

Music, food, fresh air and the atmosphere which a large crowd provides - what more is needed to celebrate life?

CARING FOR CAULFIELD'S YOUTH

A FIRST FOR ST STEPHEN'S

The Rev. Barbara Higgins (pictured above) is the new minister at St. Stephen's Uniting Church, Caulfield. She is the first woman minister in this parish or in its previous denominations in Caulfield in more than 80 years.

She is glad to be the minister of a congregation whose members have been actively involved in the local community over a long period of time.

One of her early memories is of travelling up Balaclava Road on a tram past St. Stephen's, before her feet reached the floor of the tram.

Barbara was previously a deaconess with the Presbyterian Church. When her children were in secondary school - her daughter was at Cato in Elsternwick and her son at Haileybury in Brighton - she enrolled at Melbourne University as a mature age student, and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree.

This was followed by a supplementary course at the Theological Hall before ordination in 1985.

Her husband is also a Uniting Church minister. He is one of the chaplains at Wesley College.

Barbara sees the Church offering a unique opportunity for people to belong to a multi-generational community, espousing values relevant to a wide diversity of people. She is concerned with the presentation of the Christian faith in ways that blend both the traditional and the innovative.

ROTARY SCHOLARSHIP

The Rotary Club of Caulfield-Rosstown is inviting applications for the Rotary Foundation Scholarships.

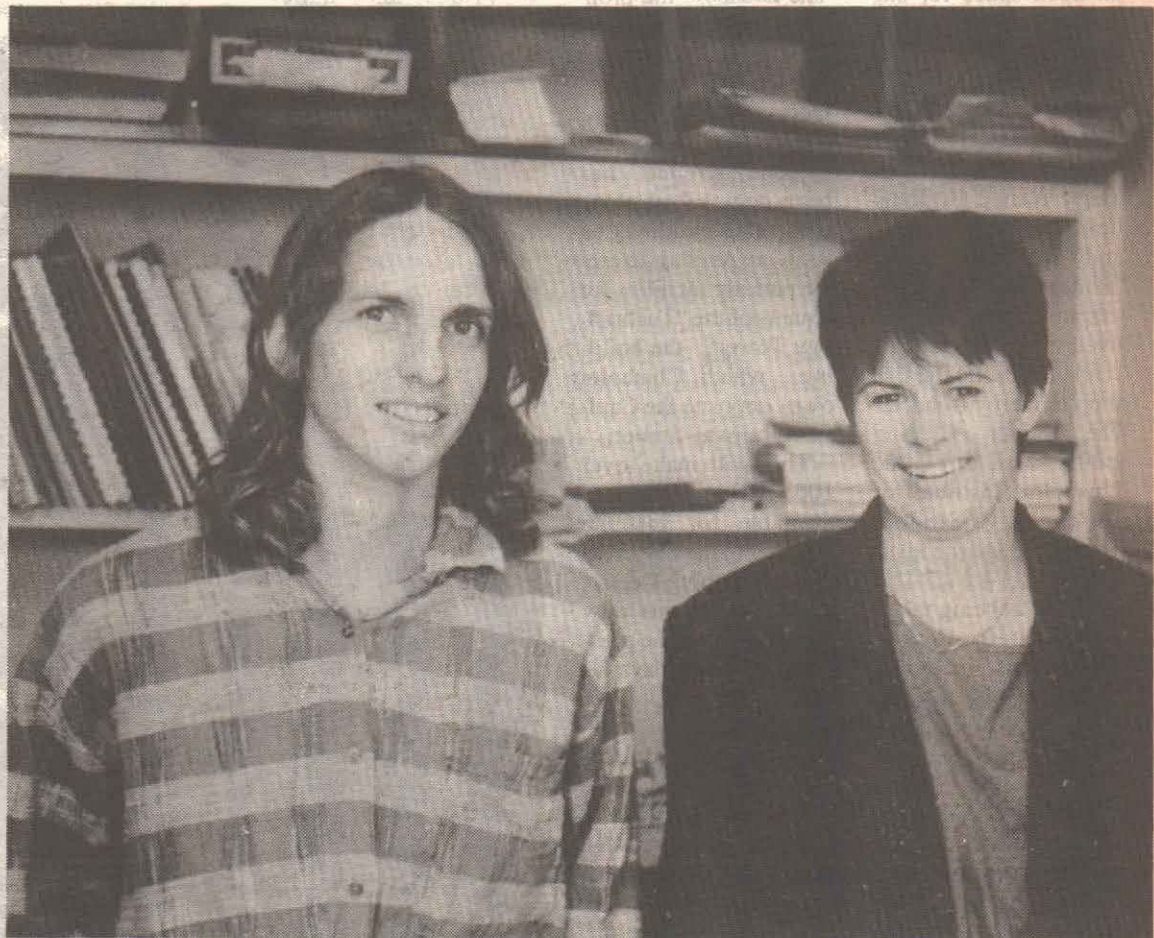

The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International is one of the largest privately funded charitable and educational foundations in the world.

Its aim is to further understanding and friendly relationships amongst the world's people by funding educational and charitable programs.

The Scholarship enables the winner to study overseas for one year at an institution in a field which they believe would enhance goodwill between the peoples of the countries concerned.

Suitable candidates would be mature age people perhaps with a degree, teachers of the handicapped, journalists or teachers of vocational subjects.

There is only one such scholarship available for this Rotary District and those interested should contact Jeremy Graham (578 1940 H) or Andre Hassing (578 5274 H) for further information and application documents.

Lyn Nye and Richard Cooke (pictured above) are two people who represent a big plus for the youth of Caulfield.

They are the staff of the Youth Services section of the Caulfield City Council and as such have the special needs of this area of our community at heart.

Lyn is the Youth Development Officer and her role requires her to spend most of her time in research and developmental tasks.

The main aim of her position is to develop and implement a comprehensive range of activities and services in response to the special needs of young people of Caulfield in consultation with youth groups and the Caulfield Youth Council.

Richard's role as Youth Project Officer is more of a "hands on" task.

He acts in a liaison capacity between the Council and the youth of Caulfield and co-ordinates special projects involving the young.

He has played a key role in the successful development of many of these such as a coffee shop and drop-in centre above the recreation centre in Maple St called the Maple Tower Coffee Lounge and a popular camping program which recently saw 15 youngsters spend four days with Richard and other staff at Wilson's Promontory.

Richard and Lyn get in contact with many young people through groups such as the Southern Region Youth Action Council which is based at the Caulfield Youth Resource Centre in Maple St. This group provides counselling, information and legal advice and general advocacy.

Another group is the Youth Accommodation Workers Network which provides supported accommodation for homeless young people aged 15 to 25 in the southern region.

Options - the Malvern/Caulfield Skilshare Project is another group which Lyn and Richard work closely with.

Options enables the long-term unemployed to obtain and retain employment or to get education and training through skills training, employment related assistance and enterprise activities by groups in the community with demonstrated capacity to deliver such services.

One of the most successful projects of the Youth Services section is the formation of the Caulfield Youth Council Incorporated. This is first fully autonomous youth council in Victoria and advises the City Council on matters relevant to the young people of Caulfield.

Young people who would like to become more involved in the youth affairs of the Caulfield community can contact Richard or Lyn on 524 3321 during business hours or Richard after hours on 578 2095.

NEW HOME FOR CARERS SUPPORT GROUP.

After 3 successful years at meeting at 4 Freeman Street, South Caulfield, the Caulfield Carers' Support Group have recently moved to Murrumbeena House, Murrumbeena Road.

The move to Murrumbeena House was prompted by the much needed increased usage of 4 Freeman Street as an Adult Day Care Centre.

The Caulfield Carers' Support Group provides support and information to those people in the community caring for a confused relative or friend.

The group maintains a link with ADARDS (Alzheimer's Disease and Related Disorders Society of Victoria), the Statewide organisation that advocates and supports the development of services for carers and those suffering with Alzheimer's Disease and related disorders.

Should you require further information for yourself or about the group, please contact either Claire Trevor or Lorraine Le Clerk on 524 3333.

WHOOPS!

It was reported in last months Caulfield Contact that "Heathlands", one of Caulfield Council's hostels had recently presented Councillor Geoff Patience with a cheque for $500 to furnish one of the rooms in the Spurway Nursing Home.

The amount raised by the residents was in fact the grand sum of $5,000 NOT $500.

Somewhere along the line a nought dropped off the end of the figure!

Sincere apologies to "Heathlands" residents for this and once again congratulations to all of those who worked so hard to raise $5,000 (got it right this time) for Spurway.

COMMITTEE DONATES TO NURSING HOME

Last year the City of Caulfield Baby Health Centres Ladies Committee, of which the Mayoress Mrs Judy Braun is the President, held a Chicken and Champagne Luncheon and a Mannequin Parade.

This was well attended by more than 200 ladies who enjoyed themselves immensely. The profits from the day totalled almost $1,800.

At the 69th Annual Meeting of the Committee, the Mayoress presented the Mayor with a cheque for $1,750 as a contribution towards the soon to be completed Spurway Nursing Home. This amount, which will buy a fully equipped hospital bed, was gratefully accepted.

MARGO HELPS OUT

In her role as Development Child Care Worker with the Caulfield City Council Margo Anderson (pictured above) wears many hats but her main one is that of a person vitally concerned with the integration of special-needs children into the everyday life of the community.

She firmly believes that every child, regardless of their needs, should have equal opportunity and equal right of access to what the community has to offer.

Margo, who has spent

20 years working in the area of children's needs, said one of the great difficulties of having a special needs child was the strain placed on the family into which it was born.

She said, "The best way for the community to help these families is by accepting these children as whole people not just focusing on their disabilities".

"It's vital that these children are seen as OK and that they have a place in our society", she said.

One of Margo's main tasks in her role is the integration of special needs children into pre-school services.

Outside specialists give advice and guidance in setting up programs within these settings in conjunction with the families of the children and integration aides work alongside each child.

Special needs children are placed in each of the Council's four children's centres and into the family day care program.

Margo believes that Caulfield Council has led the way for local government in the area of integrating children with special needs into council programs.

While not disputing that these little ones have a need for specialist programs and centres Margo believes that a multi-disciplinary approach works best.

She said, "These children go through enormous changes that I believe are a direct result of them taking a full part in their local community".

Margo said she was always interested in hearing from parents whose children have special needs "whatever they may be".

She said, "We are here for a simple chat, for information, a referral or just a voice on the end of the phone when things get tough".

Margo Anderson not only believes that special needs children have a place in society, she believes they have a special place.

She said, "We gain from appreciation of their qualities such as tolerance, their stoic determination and their wonderful sense of humour".

LOCAL GOVERNMENT HAS NEW MINISTER

Mrs Maureen Lyster is Victoria's new Minister for Local Government.

Mrs Lyster, who also has responsibility for care for the aged had been parliamentary secretary to the Cabinet since the state election last year.

A former teacher and teacher's union official Mrs Lyster has been an MLC for Chelsea since 1985.

The Premier, Mr Cain, said caucus had appointed Mrs Lyster unanimously. "She brings to that portfolio a wealth of understanding about the problems that confront local government", he said.

"WEARY" DUNLOP TO SPEAK

Caulfield Library Service has organised a series of free talks focusing on aspects and experiences of World War 2.

Sir Edward Dunlop, Helena Ladanyi and Marjorie Tipping have all lived through these years and have important if some times chilling things to tell us.

"Weary" Dunlop will concentrate on his best selling diaries when he appears on Thursday, 20th April at the Maple Street Library at 7.30 pm.

On Thursday 27th April at 7.30 pm author Helena Ladanyi will tell us of her arrest by the gestapo, her six years in a concentration camp and her life up until her arrival in Australia.

The following Thursday renowned historian Marjorie Tipping will entertain and inform us with an account of her life on the home front. At one stage Marjorie was in charge of about 600 people.

It is hoped that the free series will attract considerable interest and will add to the discussion about the important experiences of World War 2.

Everyone is encouraged to attend enquiries should be addressed to Barry Scott, Community Services Librarian on 524 3357.

Japanese Mandolin Orchestra to Play at Arts Complex

On Monday 1st of May at 6.00 pm the Mayor and Councillors of Caulfield will welcome members of the Japanese Mie Mandolino mandolin orchestra at a reception in the Caulfield Arts Complex Gallery.

The only Melbourne concert by the musicians will be given in the Arts Complex Auditorium at 7.30 pm, immediately after the reception.

The Mie Sankoyoku Society has about 800 members and is composed of players and fans of the traditional Japanese instruments, the Koto, Shamisen and the Shakuhachi and of course, the Mandolin. Members of the society perform in recitals in Japan and overseas in China, the US and France.

The Japanese Instruments, Koto and Shamisen are plucked. The Shakuhachi is best known as being the instrument of the Ronin, the wandering Samurai, and Melbourneans would have heard it in the scores for the TV Samurai series and Kurosawa's wonderful films which began with the 'Seven Samurai'. It is an endblown bamboo flute which produces very subtle and varied sounds.

The mandolin needs no introduction, except to say it became popular in Japan at the end of the nineteenth century.

Japanese youth who attended universities in Europe perhaps attracted by the similarity of the sound to the traditional eastern instruments joined the student ensembles consisting of mandolins and guitars (Estudiantinas) and brought the instruments, repertoire and the European tradition of mandolin ensembles being attached to Universities, back to Japan.

As well as playing concerts, the group wishes to meet musicians and lovers of Japanese music and see something of Australia on the way.

The players coming to Melbourne comprise two groups.

The larger is an ensemble of fifty instrumentalists who specialise in traditional Japanese music, is the Miekin Sankyoku Kyokai. This ensemble plays Koto, Shakuhachi and Shamisen.

The other group is in the style of the traditional European mandolin ensemble, comprising mandolins, mandolas, guitars and bass and plays a repertoire of Italian and German classics for mandolin ensemble as well as modern Japanese works.

The tour has taken some very efficient organisation.

In Melbourne, Mr Herman Mangold, then President of the Melbourne Mandolin Orchestra brought the idea to the Melbourne Mandolin Orchestra. The Melbourne Mandolin Orchestra decided that it would assist this concert tour as it had assisted the Keio University Mandolin Ensemble (1975) and the Deuches Zupforchester (1977).

Alan Moor, Arts Administrator with Caulfield Council also contributed greatly to the organisation of tour. He was keen to bring the group to Caulfield as that municipality contains Melbourne's largest Japanese community.

The musicians will play their traditional instruments and the favourites from Italy, Germany and Australia. Tickets at $10 and $7 concession, are available from The Caulfield Arts Complex, telephone 524 3287 or at the door.

For further information, contact Alan Moor on 524 3277.

CHISHOLM OFFERS LIBRARY AIDES COURSE.

People with some training have the edge when applying for jobs. For those looking for work in libraries, Chisholm Institute of Technology has devised a course for the inexperienced to improve their job chances.

Chisholm's Division of Continuing Education is running a Library Aides Course for a third time, after two previous successful courses. The course is to be run at two locations: Frankston, on Monday nights commencing 3 April, and Oakleigh, on Tuesday nights commencing 4 April.

The course committee is made up of librarians from school, public, special and college libraries, and is headed by Chisholm librarian, Neville Houghton. They worked out an especially practical program which is a fair introduction to the workings of libraries. Students will be given hands-on experience with library equipment, and will be trained to become self-reliant and useful library assistants.

For further details, write to or call the Division of Continuing Education, PO Box 197 Caulfield East 3145, telephone (03) 784 4240. The course fee is $230 each.

FRIENDS CALL FOR MEMBERS

Friends of Ripponlea, an auxiliary which raises funds for restoration projects for this Victorian mansion left to the National Trust after her death in 1972 by its last owner, Mrs Louisa Jones was formed soon after it was opened to the public in 1974.

This most successful voluntary group still retains many of its original members but welcomes new members (and members of the Trust) who would enjoy sharing with them their activities of staffing a Gift shop daily, running its Fourth Thursday Lunches in the ballroom, (a basket lunch and always an interesting speaker) and providing a Hostess Service in the House.

Bookings for this years lunches are heavy but information about vacancies may be obtained from the Hon. Ticket Secretary, Mrs Joan Hare, Monday to Friday 9-10 am - 523 8839 or Miss Dorothy Parker 11-12 noon - 584 3920.

Focus on the Arts

EXHIBITIONS

The Caulfield Arts Complex Gallery is showing the work of Hungarian born and trained artist Laszlo Hegedus until 1st of May, 1989.

Born in Budapest in 1920, Hegedus studied art at Vaba Novak's Studio, working under Novak and the distinguished Hungarian master J Vaszarg.

He subsequently entered The Royal Hungarian Fine Art Academy in Budapest as Student Extraordinaire for four years.

In 1941 Hegedus was nominated as a member of the Association of Fire Arts in Hungary.

He commenced teaching, print making, graphic art and watercolour in 1943. From 1945 until 1948 he directed the Focus and Muvesz Galleries in Budapest.

He left Hungary in 1948 and arrived in Australia in 1949. His first one man exhibition was held in the Macquarie Gallery in Sydney in 1951.

Since then, he has held 35 one man exhibitions in Sydney, Melbourne, Adelaide, Brisbane, London and Hungary.

Hegedus has more than 2000 works in public collections in Europe and Australia.

The artists expressistic paintings depict with great beauty, landscapes of vibrant atmosphere, bisected and underscored here and there by the solid masses of buildings, rocks and trees. The etchings display great freedom and inventiveness, capturing with empathy the characters of the models within the limits imposed by copperplate engraving.

MONTEFIORE BENEFITS FROM TELETHON

Montefiore Homes 1989 Appeal called upon the community to 'stretch a little'.

This was so that contributions related realistically to the cost of running '500 Homes for 500 People'.

The community responded from the heart and ensured that their 1989 Appeal was the success it deserved to be.

The community has reason to feel proud of its collective fundraising effort for the frail aged.

It will enable Montefiore Homes to provide the highest level of professional care, coupled with love and understanding.

The 1989 Appeal also offered a unique opportunity to donors ... a commemorative Chai Board, sponsored by the Smorgan Family with a donation of $180,000.

This once only work of art which takes its name from the Hebrew meaning 'life', will be sculptured in wood and placed on display in our Smorgan Family Wing foyer.

The Chai Board is designed to recognise the generosity of 18 benefactors who have each contributed $18,000 to the Appeal.

Twelve names have already been allocated and the final six inscriptions are expected to be finalised prior to the dedication of the Chai Board in June 1989.

Its completion will represent a collective fund-raising effort in excess of $500,000.

The success of the 1989 Appeal effort was largely due to a tremendous team effort in several key areas.

The telethon campaign created a new record result with direct contact being established with 5,000 families.

This mammoth task was handled by a dedicated group of 'Friends of Montefiore' which included a contingent of some 20 students (and past students) from Mount Scopus Memorial College.

They raised more than $100,000 - an exceptional effort and an inspiration to all involved in this year's campaign.

The Montefiore Ladies Auxiliary and Ladies Division of the 1989 Appeal again achieved an excellent result.

They were warmly commended for their role which involved personal contact across a wide cross section of the community.

Overall their target to reach 7,000 families during a 3-week appeal cycle was achieved with deeply gratifying reactions and results.

Chairman of this year's appeal, Roy Tashi and Deputy Chairman David Southwick extended their gratitude and personal thanks to all members of the 1989 Appeal Committee and their supporters for their total commitment to such a vital project.

Caulfield Park

Men's President Night saw President Kurt Hartfield welcome a crowd to a glorious summer evening. Add a delicious supper and you have a unanimous vote of an outstandingly enjoyable evening.

Caulfield Park's turn to play host to City of St. Kilda in this year's annual tussle, utilising greens of both clubs. Overall winner was C. of St. K who gets to hold the plaque for another year. It was a day of fun, humour and as friendly as keen rivalry can allow.

Ladies Invitation Fours Day was an especially gratifying one with visitors hailing from near and far and all went smoothly and well. Hearty congratulations to Sonia Goldberg, our new lady Club Champion who won well from runner-up Palma Stephens.

Ladies President & Guest Day was held on March 16th where President Anne took great pleasure in welcoming members and guests.

Saturday 8th April, 1.30 p.m. Ladies Appreciation Day, not to be missed, a very special

Elsternwick

President Vern Barker invited 9 men's teams from surrounding Clubs to play against 9 Elsternwick men's teams. After a welcome drink and roast lunch play commenced. Unfortunately, one visiting team had to withdraw on the day and President Vern asked 4 of the working ladies to fill in. The team from Brighton won with 13 shots up, but an extra trophy had to be found for the ladies team (Lorna Martin, skip; Elsie Page 3rd; Marlis Eastop 2nd; Frieda Payne lead), who won with 17 shots up. ## Caulfield South

A Tournament sponsored by the National Mutual Trustees Limited was a successful day for Caulfield South Club. The greens were running to perfection and the catering was excellent. The winners were J. Eddy's team for Lilydale and the runners-up were T. Greens team from City of St. Kilda. Our new Lady Champion for 1989 was decided on March 9 when Ailsa Kleeman defeated Margaret Ellis-mith in a closely contested game. Students from Caulfield High School spent several afternoons trying their hand at the game of bowls on our greens. They were quite enthusiastic about the game and we hope to see more of them in the future. New members are welcome. For information phone John Franklin - 527 5538 or the Club - 528 4620.

Glenhuntly

The Ladies' Singles Championship resulted in a win for Norma Hawkins (this making her third championship), when she defeated Valda Lechte (who is playing only her fifth season of bowls) 225-22 in a well contested high standard match.

The annual Swann mixed pairs was won by Percy Dance and Norma Hawkins who defeated

John Harris and Nancye Fleer in the final. John and Nancye were compensated by winning the annual C and M Goodwin 3 bowl mixed pairs. This event was enhanced this year by the trophy of donors, Cyril and Margaret Goodwin from Tiverton, Devon, UK.

Club members and residents interested in indoor bowls, whist and solo are reminded that these activities will again be conducted in the Clubhouse throughout the winter months commencing May. Indoor bowls on Wednesdays and Saturdays and cards on Thursdays.

The Annual meeting of the club will be held in the Clubhouse on Sunday, May 28 and with both teams winning promotion to Divisions 4 and 9 respectively next season it is hoped for an enthusiastic attendance at the meeting.

Carnegie Ladies

The Club held a very rewarding day on Wednesday February 22nd, 1989. As it was listed as our annual guest day we decided to combine it to a charity day for the Spurway Nursing Home under construction in Murrumbeena Road, Murrumbeena for the Caulfield Council.

Our stalls looked lovely, cakes, handicrafts, books etc. and at the end of a busy day we had taken $750.00 for the home. Later, on receiving the cheque from Lady President Raie Houston, Councillor G Patience told us about the home (the first of its kind) and warmly thanked all the ladies for their great generosity. A lovely day all round.

Murrumbeena

For the first time in the history of the club, a husband and wife won the respective club championships in the same year. Barry Field defeated Jack Nicholas, this being Barry's first win as Club Champion, and his wife, Jean, was successful in winning the ladies' Championship, the runner-up being Venora Fidler.

Over the past few weeks, the members visited Karingal Bowls Club to play for the annual shield, but lost on this occasion, both clubs having won the shield three times. Chadstone visited Murrumbeena and proved too strong, thus winning the shield which is played for bi-annually.

The Armstrong Fours event, sponsored by Armstrong & Sons, Motor Body Repairers, which has taken place annually for the past 14 years, is always held on the Saturday following the last pennant matches, with 32 teams taking part.

Coming events include BBQ's and Tournaments.

Clubs Please Note:

Chadstone Community Health Centre is looking for Volunteers to assist in the running of a number of its programmes. In particular we are seeking people able to spare a few hours a week driving clients to various activities at the Centre, either in their own cars or the Centre's minibus (no special licence required).

Other volunteer work is available for people interested in assisting in the running of our groups for the elderly, or helping some of our isolated clients with their shopping or perhaps friendly visiting.

People with or without such experience who are interested in becoming involved in the work of the Centre's Auxiliary are also particularly welcome.

Contact Bob Klepner at the Chadstone Community Health Centre on 568 2599 to obtain further details about these satisfying and really worthwhile activities.

The Caulfield Adult Literacy Group will conduct a volunteer tutor training programme at the Elsternwick Library commencing on Wednesday 12th April.

The six weeks of two-hour sessions starts at 7.30 pm and is free training for all future volunteers to teach adults to read and write.

The group will then match each volunteer with an adult who has literacy problems. The pair will meet at a place and time convenient for both of them.

The group aims to help people who, having English as their first language, are not able to read or write.

The group co-ordinator, Mrs Julie Wurf, said many people in the community had not learnt reading and writing skills at a basic level.

She said these people are faced problems every day such as being unable to read labels on products in the supermarket, instructions on medicine containers or unable to fill out bank withdrawal forms.

She said their problems were a result of 'missing out' when they were younger and the group aimed to help them with everyday reading and writing.

For more information about becoming a volunteer literacy tutor, or learning to read and write, ring Julie Wurf on 211 1426 or John Sloss on 25 4534.
