Dearest Colleagues,

As we head into the final weekend of the term 'break', I wanted to touch base and wish you well. The news is bleak but now is a great time to hug our (immediate!) families, and ensure that the growth mindsets that we educate our children about are reflected in our actions. I have been so inspired by the 'can do', humour and positivity of colleagues both over the last term and over the last 48 hours. Thank you – never underestimate the impact of a small word or act of kindness, and I am grateful to all.

Digital Bialik, on-campus learning, early childhood – all of these have their opportunities and challenges over the next few weeks and we will be here for each other and support each other, and live the Bialik motto of Stepping Forth With Courage.

I look forward to connecting with everyone at the 8.20am briefing on Monday, and again in more depth at the Principal's Briefing at 4pm on Tuesday, all on MS Teams.

In the meantime, and most importantly, have a look at these two clips – both from different continents, but both timely and <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=dvwH8QijQJY>

Thank you for all that you do – and when you do it, hum one of the tunes from these clips! We'll get through this. Together.

Shabbat Shalom,
Jeremy
