DEED OF GIFT

The following is the Deed of Gift from the QUEENSCLIFFE CRUISING YACHT CLUB to the ROYAL BRIGHTON YACHT CLUB for a perpetual trophy to be awarded annually to the CRUISING YACHTSMAN OF THE YEAR.

The trophy is donated by Commodore John R. and Mrs. Anna ROBINSON of Queenscliffe Cruising Yacht Club and will not encumber the Queenscliffe Cruising Yacht Club in any financial obligation whatsoever.

Administration of safe keeping, awaiting engraving and all other financial obligations shall be under the responsibility of the Royal Brighton Yacht Club Cruising Division Sub-Committee or its official successors.

AIM

The aim of this award is to encourage and recognise achievement in Cruising Yachting for Royal Brighton Yacht Club and all facets pertaining thereto.

NOMINATIONS

Nominations for the award shall be encouragement from the members of the Royal Brighton Yacht Club Cruising Division, final recipient to be decided by the Sub-Committee of that Division. Selection of that Committee is final. Contributions to cruising yachting by the recipient over a number of years may be taken into consideration by the Committee.

This award should be presented annually, but may not be so if an appropriate nominee is not available.

PRESENTATION

The trophy should be presented by the current Queenscliffe Cruising Yacht Club Commodore at the Royal Brighton Yacht Club Presentation Night, list of nominees to be announced first.

The trophy is perpetual and should not leave Royal Brighton Yacht Club premises but may be used by the current recipient in the Dining Room.

TROPHY

The trophy is an Edwardian-style EPNS wine bottle cradle with woven cane covered handle. Two EPNS side escutcheon attached by screws.
