2. New Shire Secretary being appointed.

3. History of Mooroolbark and Wonga Park being considered. Old Photographs, facts and figures can be forwarded to Public Requests Officer at Lillydale Council.

4. Car park being considered to be behind Community Cottage,

5. Mr. R. Yorke complained that the house next door to him is still not finished though it is occupied by the owners.

General Business:

Mr C, Lloyd moved that the Council be requested to clear a track in Hartley Road between Jumping Creek Road and Launderers Ave., for the use of pedestrians and horse riders. Seconded by V LeFranke, .. carried. At the present time users of this road are entering private property. It was felt it would be an asset to open this track for general use and would not involve a great expense as it is only a small area that is blocked at the present time.
