

THE STATUARY PAVILION

- Unveiled August 1888 by Duncan Gillies, Premier of Victoria. (Friend of Thomson)
- Built to house statues willed by Thomson .
- Flight from Pompeii. Commenced by Benzoni, finished by Summers. (original Designed by Benzoni only 4'6" held in Summers studio in Rome)
Cost 1500 pounds. (Acquired whilst Sydney Art Gallery haggled with Vendor re. price.)
Panels. – Roman Sentinel, Blind Girl, a Priest trying to escape with treasure and slaves and general confusion.
- Susannah at the bath, Reliefs – innocence and accusers.
- Ruth Reliefs - return to Naomi's country and gleaning in field of Boaz.
- Rebekah - shading her eyes to see Joseph in the distance , her future home.
- Modesty – note veil.