

Ballarat.
August 17th 1894.

To the Mayor of the City of Ballarat.

It gives me much pleasure to give to you, as representing the citizens of Ballarat, the wrought iron gates at present erected opposite the refreshment pavilion at the Botanical Gardens, free of cost.

In doing so, I desire to acknowledge, with thanks, the skill shown by the Architect, Mr. J. C. Smith, of the firm of Mollay and Smith A. R. V. J. A. Lydiard St. Ballarat, in designing the gates, and also, the care taken in constructing them according to design by Mr. C. Cairns of Peel St. Ballarat.

As the donor, I feel proud that these gentlemen, natives of our city, have produced such a work of art.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Yours obediently.

E. Morey
