It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. NOTICE.

It having come to my knowledge that certain unprincipled vendors of sewing machines have frequently substituted in place of the

GENUINE "WERTHEIM"
Machines on a similar principle, but of a far inferior make, I beg to

INFORM THE PUBLIC
That EVERY
GENUINE WERTHEIM SEWING
MACHINE BEARS THE TRADE MARK
Of the

Wertheim Sewing Machine Manufacturing Company, a GNOME,
Representing the Dwarf of German Fabrics, in a sitting posture, with a mallet resting on his shoulder, and long flowing beard reaching to his feet.

Besides this Trade Mark the NAME "WERTHEIM" is PAINTED IN GOLD ON THE PLATE of each Machine.

THE GREATEST "SEWING MACHINE."

TRIUMPH OF THE AGE

We respectfully ask the public not to be misled by the puff of our "Rival of former years."

The number of Sewing Machines imported (like other goods) is no criterion of the number sold; the evidence of which lies in the fact that Melbourne is over-stocked with the importations of 1874.

Reasons why the
"WHEELER AND WILSON"
Sewing Machine

is far superior to the "Singer."
The W. and W. will do more work, and do it better.
The W. and W. is much more durable. It will last a lifetime, and run for years without repair.
The W. and W. is easier to work than the Singer.
The W. and W. is not so liable to get out of order.

The W. and W. has no cog wheels to wear away and break as the Singer.
The W. and W. has no heavy machinery to tire and weary the feet, as the Singer.
The W. and W. is more simple in action.
The W. and W. has less wear and tear.
The W. and W. is better finished.
The W. and W. has been awarded more prizes.

If any further proof is required of the superiority of the Wheeler and Wilson, it is found in the fact that Singer's agent has never accepted our challenge to have the machines publicly tested.

We warrant every genuine W. and W. machine to give entire satisfaction.

SANDER AND SONS'
EUCALYPTI EXTRACT.

Under the distinguished patronage of His Majesty the King of Italy, at Rome.

Dr. Cruikshank, Health Officer for the City of Sandhurst, certifies to the extract being the most reliable remedy for external inflammation, bronchitis, diphtheria, affections of the lungs, chest, all swellings, bruises, sprains, wounds, disorders of the bowels, rheumatism, &c.

PROFESSOR DR. MOSLER, at the University of Greifswald, Germany, reports as follows: "I have cured of Diphtheria, Lung and Throat Diseases by inhaling the vapors of SANDER and Sons' EUCALYPTI EXTRACT."

Epitome of declaration made before Mr. Cohen, Esq., J.P., at Sandhurst, October, 1877.—The son of Mr. Raabe was hurt with an axe on the knee. After nine weeks' medical treatment it was declared necessary by Dr. Macgillivray to amputate the injured limb. At that juncture the extract was applied, and the wound speedily cured without amputation.

The daughter of Mr. Jungheun, suffering from disease of the bone, as pronounced by Drs. Atkinson and Boyd, was cured just as speedily. Cures of whooping cough, very severe colds, croup, bronchitis, diphtheria, earache, pains in the head (neuritis), inflammation of the eyes, and that of a severely injured foot; others of bad legs, wound on the arm with enormous swelling, of severe bruises and a sprained ankle, (H. Brown), in which case eight months' medical advice was of no avail, are reported by the "Donald Times," "Newcastle Morning Herald," "Cooktown Courier," "York's Peninsula Advertiser," & others.

The extract regulates the action of the kidneys, cures dysentery and diarrhoea, and is the surest curative agent and preventative of contagion in scarlet, typhoid, and intermittent fever. For particulars see testimonials accompanying each bottle.

Sold at 1s. 6d. and 2s. 6d. per vial.

CAUTION.
Do not confound SANDER and Sons' EUCALYPTI EXTRACT with the common Eucalypti Oil, a resinous fluid equal to turpentine, which when the healing vapors of our Extract, and positively injurious in most cases for which our preparation is highly recommended; therefore ask for SANDER and Sons' EUCALYPTI EXTRACT and see that you get it. The genuine article is made up in vials bearing our trade mark and signature, and for greater safety each vial is secured by an outside green band with our signature and address—

GREAT SUCCESS

OF THE
WHOLESALE
FAMILY CASH TRADE,
As adopted by
A. CRAWFORD,
MITCHELL'S BUILDINGS, STURT
STREET, BALLARAT.

The immense increase of business since the adoption of the wholesale family cash trade is so palpable that the public recognize the benefit and advantages of a large establishment conducted on purely cash principles at wholesale prices. That the increase has been gained by genuine merit there can be no question of doubt. It has been again and again hundreds of times freely acknowledged by even those who were inclined to think, and who openly expressed their opinion, that it was but a trade ruse. The system is, however, genuine, and is now firmly established. Direct shipments of goods are being sent forward from Great Britain regularly by sailing and steam ships. The following is a list of vessels arrived, or on the way out, containing large shipments of new goods, purchased direct from the home manufacturers:—Loch Tarrant, Orient, Lusitania, Copacabi, Clifton, Loch Lomond, Ravenscroft, Lady Cairns, Carthage, Sorrento, Rohilla, Amalfi, etc., etc. Regular supplies of all kinds of goods are arranged for, to come by the various lines of steamships and fast sailing vessels. The public will thus see that every effort is made to secure the very best possible value, besides to have always on hand the newest and most fashionable goods of the season regularly and constantly.

The new goods are unexceptionally good value even at wholesale prices. Amongst the goods just to hand there are some splendid lines in tweeds and ulsters, which are without doubt the best and largest selection ever exhibited in this district. The prices range from the very lowest ever shown in Ballarat, to the best manufactured. The tweeds and ulsters are suitable for boys, youths, and gentlemen's wear; also for maids' and ladies' ulsters, etc., etc.

THE TAILORING DEPARTMENT
Is thus of very marked importance, and deserves to be patronized very largely, the cutter in charge being a first-class practical workman, who gives universal satisfaction, a good fit, combined with stylish appearance, first-class workmanship, and artistic finish being a characteristic of the work. The tweeds, coatings, vestings, ulsters, etc., etc., being all imported direct from the very best manufacturers in the trade, and purchased for cash on the best terms obtainable, ensures the best class of goods and the newest patterns. Gentlemen and ladies are invited to call and inspect the stock. Patterns sent by post to any part of Victoria, with directions for self-measurement. The low railway rates for parcels enables customers living within easy distance of a railway station to have goods conveyed very cheaply to their destination.

A Magnificent Assortment of New Brussels and Tapestry Carpets, Linoleums, Floor Cloths, Window Curtains, etc., etc. The newest and the best patterns in the trade, at wholesale prices. Customers must bear in mind that by purchasing at this establishment they save the retail profit; hence on furnishing orders very large savings can be effected in replenishing houses or furnishing new ones.

The Largest Stock of Mattings in the colony at the lowest prices ever known, even in the wholesale trade.

To Families and Household.—The Stock of Flannels, Blankets, Sheetings, Calicoes, Shirtings, Table-Linens, Costumes, Towellings, Linens, etc., etc., is the largest and best-selected in the colony, purchased direct from the home manufacturers, and are being sold in retail quantities at wholesale prices for cash. Blankets, in single pairs at bale prices. Flannels, calicoes, and sheetings, etc., etc., cut to any length they are required, at the net wholesale prices in bulk quantities, thus giving the public a Clear Advantage, or chance of Saving from 20 to 30 per cent.

By a few of the late steamships a splendid lot of new winter dress goods has arrived consisting of Winseys, Costumes, Tweeds, Costume Cloths, Cashmeres, Costume Poplins, Serges, Silks, (black and colored), new Satins, (trilled blacks), Moire Satins (all shades for trimmings). A very superior stock of black Goods, the best value ever shown in the colony, even by the largest wholesale houses. The above goods are all marked at wholesale prices for cash only, but are cut in any lengths to suit requirements of customers.

The largest stock of Millinery, Flowers, Plumes, Feathers, Millinery ornaments, etc., etc., in Ballarat, at Wholesale Prices for cash only. The retail profit on the above goods being about 50 per cent., customers will effect a very great saving by making their purchases at this establishment, as the usual retail profit is entirely saved.

The stock of ladies', maids', and children's outer and jackets is, without exception, the best ever shown in any retail house in Victoria, and unsurpassed by the largest wholesale warehouse in Melbourne. These goods are all manufactured on the premises, from tweeds and ulsters imported direct from the British manufacturers. They are, therefore, unequalled for value, being considerably lower than even ordinary wholesale rates, as all middlemen's profits are dispensed with. Shawls, petticoats, children's overalls, ladies' costumes, etc., etc., in all sizes and materials, constantly on hand, in the latest styles, trimmed and finished, equal to the best goods made to order.

GENTLEMEN'S READY-MADE DEPARTMENT.
The goods in this department are all made on the premises, from tweeds, coatings, ulsters, diagonals, and broadcloths, etc., etc., imported direct from the manufacturers, they are in every respect equal to the best bespoke goods, and are superior in cut, style, and finish to any Melbourne shop made goods. They are all marked at the net wholesale prices for cash only. A magnificent stock of men's and boy's ulsters, fashionably made from good material, and can be recommended for sound workmanship, durability, warmth, and cheapness. Being all made on the premises, the workmanship can be guaranteed, as every article is examined prior to being sent into the department. A full supply of gentlemen's shirts, ties, hosiery, hats, caps, etc., etc., at wholesale prices.

Boots and Shoes of all descriptions at wholesale prices, for cash only, special arrangements having been made with several of the largest manufacturers for regular supplies of the best makes of goods.

By the mail steamers special lines of Fancy Goods come to hand monthly, thus ensuring all the latest novelties with the greatest promptitude.

Each department is under an experienced head, who superintends all the various items pertaining to his or her department, thus giving the public an assurance that all wants will be carefully attended to, and the best value given to the public. It is only through special knowledge that this can be accomplished, therefore every department is under the charge of a competent head, having the necessary special knowledge required.

The Dressmaking Rooms have been very greatly enlarged, at a very great outlay, to meet the growing demands of the public. It is under the care and management of a thoroughly competent and experienced superintendant. Ladies can depend upon having their dresses fitted and made up in the highest style of a in the latest fashion, with the utmost promptitude. A perfect fit is at all times guaranteed, besides the most perfect workmanship.

Orders sent by post for goods exported at once, if accompanied with post office order or cash remittance. Patterns sent upon application. Ladies living in the country desirous of having their dresses made up, will be directed as to self-measurement upon application.

COMMERCIAL.

BALLARAT WHOLESALE PRODUCE MARKET.

There was a fair market on Thursday. We quote as follows:—Barley—English, 5s 3d; Cape barley, 4s 4d; wheat, 5s 7d; oats, 3s 10d to 4s; sheaves, 1s 10s to 1s 5s; manger hay, 1s 5s to 1s 10s; potatoes, 1s 10s; straw, 5s 10s to 5s; peas, 4s to 4s 6d; bran, 1s 6d; pollard, 1s 8d; bonedust, 1s 10s; flour, 1s 4 10s.

ARARAT PRODUCE MARKET.

There is little of interest to report in connection with the markets this week, business having been unusually dull. There have been no sales of importance in breadstuffs. A few small transactions have been reported in wheat at 6s 4d to 6s 6d, bags in, and we have heard of a couple of parcels changing hands at Marooana at 6s 3d bags returned—a price fully up to our quotation. A little business has been done at Horstman in wheat at 6s 4d, with nothing offering. The market at St. Arnaud is firm at 6s 4d, but there is not much offering. Wheat is worth 6s 6d to 7s; at Avoca, flour selling at 1s 4 5s, and at Landsborough wheat is quoted at 6s 1d, and flour at 1s 4 5s per ton. In this district flour has had little attention. It has, however, firmed during the week and the current price now is 1s 4 5s to 1s 4 10s. Potatoes also show improvement. At the beginning of the week a good many loads came in, but these experienced a weak enquiry and in most cases carters went up-country. At the end of the week buyers were more anxious and 1s 5 per ton was given for those forward. At Warramboul potatoes have declined to 1s 2 5s. Oats are a trifle stronger and some sales have been made at from 3s 6d to 3s 8d. Hay and straw are beginning to come in a little more plentifully now that ploughing and sowing are well advanced, and farmers are obtaining a little time to cart. The quantity of anything is not affected the price, which is anything is firmer. Straw indeed has sold at 30s for wheat, up to 40s for oats. Onions are becoming scarce and are worth 6s to 8s for prime. Dairy produce is still very scarce, and fresh butter is in strong demand at 1s 9d to 1s 10d, potted meeting business at 1s 6d. Cheese has advanced to 10d, which figure even fails to draw an adequate supply, and eggs have advanced to 1s 8d. We quote as follows:—Wheat, 6s 4d to 6s 6d per bushel; oats, 3s to 3s 5d; seed, 3s 9d to 4s; pollard, 1s 8d; bran, 1s 6d; Cape barley, 4s; flour, 1s 4 10s; Warramboul potatoes, 1s 1s 6d to 1s 10s; Ballarat, 1s 10s; fresh butter, 1s 10d; potted butter, 1s 10d; hams, 11d; bacon, 8d; cheese, 9d to 10d; eggs, 1s 8d; hay, sheaves, 5s to 10s; hulled, 5s 6d; 10s; straw, 5s; chaff, 5s 6d; onions, 6s; carrots, 4s 6d; peas, 4s; English barley, 4s 6d; rye, 5s 6d.—“Advertiser.”

GEELONG WOOL AND STATION PRODUCE REPORT.

Tuesday. MESSRS. GEORGE HAGG and Co. report:—Wool.—We offered a small catalogue today, principally greasy, and sold as follows:—Greasy fleeces, 6 1/2 to 9 1/2; and greasy lambs, 5d to 7 1/2; greasy pieces, 3 1/2 to 5 1/2. Steepskins.—We had a very large supply to-day. Biddings throughout the sale were lively, and we succeeded in effecting a good clearance. Hides.—Biddings throughout were languid, and sales hard to effect. Tallow.—We have still a brisk enquiry for all descriptions, and have readily cleared out our supplies at top quotations.

MESSRS. GEORGE SYNNOT and Co. report:—Wool.—As the sales progress in London, a slightly better feeling is manifested, and secured wools are in better request. Other sorts are quoted about equal to the best prices of those of the last series. Steepskins.—We made an entire clearance at firm rates, and quote:—Medium crossbreds, from 30d to 44d extra good, from 46d to 54d; merino skins, from 31d to 51d; and prime tops, to 56d. Station parcels sold well, and for crossbreds, from 2 1/2 to 4 1/2 per pound; and merinos, from 3d to 6d. Hides.—Although our supply was exceedingly large, and a full attendance of the trade, prices were exceedingly low. Tallow.—This market still continues very animated, and the supply is by no means equal to the demand at present existing. Local enquiry continues to improve, and prices are firm at our last quotations, with a slight hardening tendency.

A fellow prisoner of Lefroy, who was confined with him in Lewis Gaol, when he was under committal, says:—“We were up to all sorts of tricks in gaol. You would never think that one of us was a man who stood in peril of his life with a horrible case of murder hanging over his head. You see this tall bat of mine with the bulges in it? We used to make this bat the wicket, get Morris's bolster for a bat, and Lefroy, taking off his stockings, we used to roll them into a ball, and have rare fun. All this when under committal for one of the most horrible crimes of modern days? A curious part of the thing was that, although Lefroy never had a long-hole for escape, he made so confident of being acquitted that he told his sister to have a cab waiting for him outside the gaol at the conclusion of the trial. If the jury had not found him guilty (an exchange supposes) he would have returned to Australia and died a religious paper.

It is estimated that there are 10,000,000 men under arms in Europe at the present time, and that the annual cost, direct or indirect, of these enormous forces is not less than 2,840,000,000 dollars.

Holloway's Pills.—The sudden changes, frequent fogs, and prevailing dampness, sorely impede the vital functions and conduce to ill health. The remedy for these disorders lies in some purifying medicine, like these Pills, which is competent to grapple with the mischief, at its source, and stamp it out without fretting the nerves or weakening the system. Holloway's Pills extract from the blood all noxious matters, regulate the actions of every disordered organ, stimulate the liver and kidneys, and relax the bowels. In curing chest complaints, these Pills are remarkably effective, especially when aided by friction of the Ointment on its walls. The double treatment will ensure a certain, steady and beneficent progress, and sound health will soon be re-established.

THE Riponshire Advocate. Published every Saturday Morning. SATURDAY, JUNE 3, 1882.

AN almost irresistible but perfectly natural train of thought is opened up when the glowing accounts of the success of the lectures of Mr. Archibald Forbes, the illustrious war correspondent, come under notice. It is said that “Peace has triumphed as well as War,” but we doubt very much if the glorious victories of peace, even if told by the most brilliant of raconteurs, would create that suspense of silence, and that stirring mood of admiration which Mr. Forbes commands while summing up the terrible spoils and cost of grim-visaged war. It is not difficult to understand, though it might be hard to define, in what the spell consists with which this eminent man binds his listeners with links of steel. It is because, we think, his narrations have an irresistible fascination for the majority of men, and that what he tells them is told with terrible earnestness which at once conveys an idea of unassailable truth, undaunted courage, and in his profession unexampled activity. Never was there a knight of olden and delivered his spurs on the field of chivalry more than this cool and determined correspondent who, sans peur et sans reproche, is a very Bayard amongst his journalistic compeers. And it is not alone to men that this absorbing interest extends, the “Argus” says “the softer sex go again and again, and treat Mr. Forbes to rare displays of toilette.” The narration of the horrors of war by this do not appear to have any terror for the fair, though they are painted with such minute fidelity, and told with such graphic force. It is because perhaps that the ladies like Mr. Forbes, for the same reason that Desdemona loved Othello, for “the dangers he had passed.” Be that as it may it is possible that Mr. Forbes' motto is “Vive la guerre,” since there is no doubt he is making a good harvest out of his hard earned experience, and though carping critics might object he has an undoubted right to use his splendid and peculiar talents to his own advantage and benefit. We said, in opening up this subject, that an irresistible but perfectly natural train of thought was suggested and it was simply as to when the time should come, or would it come at all when the Utopian idea of a brotherhood of nations should fructify, and it might be said that men were right in crying “peace,” because there was peace. Look at the situation at the present moment in Europe, and in spite of Congresses, International Exhibitions and the presence of other elements that were supposed to influence the nations to calmer counsels and aid in preserving the balance of power and the promotion of peace, we know that the peaceful crust is of the flimsiest description, and that below there is a conglomeration of conflicting interests and combustible matter that may at any moment explode, let slip the dogs of war, and lead to one of those convulsions that morally, if not figuratively, shake the world. Mr. Archibald Forbes says that Europe must be contemplated as “a huge standing camp of armed men.” “There are,” he said in his lecture (the “Armies of Europe”), “five great military powers, and when he had marshalled all the men under arms, or in reserves, he had for France, Germany, Austria, Russia, and Italy a total fighting force of 14,000,000, maintained at an expense of £78,000,000 per annum, or 21 per cent of the total resources of the five nationalities.” Fourteen million men at a moment's notice to do what is but a very few degrees removed from murder. England, according to Mr. Forbes, stands only in a third or fourth rate position with regard to her army, but she has what is the mainspring of the world, monetary power. But this has not to do particularly when with the motif of this article, which was to prove that the day appears to be far distant, and of existence altogether problematical, peace shall really dawn upon this troubled world, when Utopian dream shall become reality, “the sword be beaten into a ploughshare,” and “there be no more war.” Mr. Forbes, with that grim humor which relieves the tragic portion of his lectures, does not think that “good time is coming” yet, because he concluded the lecture before indicated by predicting that, notwithstanding the opinion, “to preserve peace be prepared for war,” the occupation of a War Correspondent is not gone. He appears to think that this will not come to pass until the world becomes governed by the principle, “Let the men who make the quarrel be the only men to fight.”

The Riponshire Council are pushing on the work of tree-planting in the township, and tenders are invited by that body for the supply of 100 tree-guards.

A gentleman of our acquaintance gave us a call last evening. He had a grievance, which, on explanation turned out to be that on venturing into the public streets yesterday he was hailed with the query, “What about the bricks?” Being a good-natured fellow he can stand a joke, but it occurred to him that perhaps the query referred to a most indispensable article of wearing apparel. Hence his anxiety.

Extensive improvements are about to be made at the Beaufort railway station. The present booking-office is to be added on to the stationmaster's private quarters, and a new and more commodious office built on the western end of the station, while wooden barriers will be erected the whole length of the platform. It is also intended to lay down another line of rails between No. 2 line and the goods-sheds, which will be finished in time for the grain season.

When our reporter called yesterday afternoon the men boring on the New Discovery Extended Company's lease had bottomed No. 2 bore at 86 feet, and were a few inches in the wash. This bore is about 40 feet to the west of No. 1 bore, which had to be abandoned at 40 feet owing to the drift. The discovery of a wash in this lease is an important one, and should make the shavers valiant.

We have received the current number of the “Australian Journal,” and we have also to acknowledge the receipt of the “Temperance News” for the month.

It having been proved that the “dip-chicks” on the old reservoir destroy large numbers of fish, the Riponshire Council, at its meeting on Thursday, resolved to offer a reward of 1s. per head for these destructive little birds.

The concert held at Waterloo on Monday evening last in aid of the church funds was well attended, considering the bad state of the weather. The singers one and all are deserving of the highest praise for the manner in which they carried out the programme. Mr. M'Duff presided at the organ in his usual efficient manner. Mrs. William Harris is also deserving of thanks for providing the refreshments for the singers. The meeting was brought to a close by a vote of thanks, to the singers followed by the National Anthem. The proceeds will amount to about £9.

The English mails will be despatched from Melbourne on Tuesday next, 6th June. The mails will close at the Beaufort Post Office on Monday, 5th inst., for ordinary letters and newspapers, at 5 p.m., and this day, at 3 p.m., for money orders and registered letters. Attention is drawn to the regulations that letters and newspapers for transmission via Brindisi must be so endorsed, and must bear the full rates of postage, viz.: letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, will be charged 6d.; every additional half an ounce or portion thereof, 6d.; newspapers, 1d. each; packets not exceeding an ounce, 1d.; two ounces, 2d.; four ounces or portion thereof, 4d.

The following gentlemen have been appointed electoral registrars under the Legislative Council Act 1881:—Nelson Province:—Ripon.—Registrar, C. W. Minobin, Beaufort; Deputies.—H. Wagh, Skipton; E. Johnson, Strathairn; C. Rankin, Waterloo; D. Jones, Carngaham; James Butt, Mount Cole State School.

The fortnightly number of the “Sketcher,” just published, is a capital paper, and contains a good collection of engravings besides a complete budget of current news. The following are the subjects of the illustrations:—Singing the Post Laureate's patriotic hymn at the Exhibition building; the fire brigades' demonstration; sketches at the horse yards, Kirk's Bazaar; the Salvation Army services in Graham's sketches in the Golden Gully mine, Sandhurst; the Australian cricketers on their way home, sports on board ship; Kalla's entertainment, St. George's Hall; the dynamite explosion at Prahlan; and a portrait of the late Mr. Robert Ramsay, M.L.A. Copies may be obtained from Mr. Henningsen, the local agent.

The hon. treasurer of the Beaufort Relief Fund desires us to acknowledge, with thanks, the receipt of the following annual subscriptions:—Trustees of the late Alex. Russell, £12; W. Lewis, £6; Alex. Wilson, £5; Mrs. McIntyre, £1. In the Assembly on Thursday Mr. Patterson gave notice of his intention to submit a motion on Tuesday disapproving of the conduct of the five members in signing a document “wherein the Imperial Government is referred to as a foreign despotism, and that the lawlessness and outrages of the last two years are referred to with pride, as a manifestation of self-reliance, indomitable courage, and perseverance.” He will also invite the House to “disavow any sympathy with the doctrines and language contained in that document, and to avow its unswerving loyalty and fidelity to the Queen, whose lawful authority is therein asserted.”

A man named Neal M'Phee, a ganger on the railway at Bangor, was charged at the Police Court on Saturday morning with two serious offences—attempts to commit a criminal assault upon a child four years of age, the daughter of Mr. James Gorrie, of that place, and afterwards making an attempt upon his own life by cutting his throat. A remand was granted in the case for seven days, at the request of the police, in order that the man's wound might receive attention. The only evidence taken was that of Dr. Smeal, who deposed that he could find no bruises on the child, nor evidence of an assault having been committed; the man's wound being an ugly gash in the throat, severing the windpipe. It is stated that M'Phee was left in charge of Mr. Gorrie's house on the anniversary of the Queen's birthday during his absence at a ball at Bangor and the following day the little girl complained of the man's conduct, and Mr. Gorrie (the police being temporarily absent) reported the circumstance to the railway officials. About half-past six o'clock on Saturday morning Constable M'Hugh went to M'Phee's house and discovered that the man had cut his throat by means of a razor, and he at once brought him to the Ararat Police Court. It is not probable that his state will permit of his examination in court for some little time, in which event a further remand will of course be applied for.—“Advertiser.”

The “Warramboul Standard” is informed that several companies with whom the Warramboul Woollen Mill was insured, at the time of its destruction by fire, have definitely refused to pay up. The refusal is based, we believe, on the point of misdescription of premises. Under these circumstances, Mr. Hood, the owner of the premises in question, will proceed against each of the companies included in the risk. The Derwent and Tamar Company will not be included in the actions, as it lately forwarded a cheque for its liability, amounting to £1500.

A curious case, says a New Zealand paper, was heard at Oamaru recently. A farmer named Edward Blend Atkinson was charged with cruelty to 20 sheep, by neglecting to supply them with sufficient food. As a matter of fact he was charged with overstocking his land. Sergeant-Major Thompson deposed that defendant was a farmer, with a farm of 536 acres of which 235 were under crop; and 301 in pasture. A portion of this latter was bad land, and supplied no grass. On this land defendant had some 1500 or 1500 sheep, 12 cows, and 15 horses. He (Mr. Thompson) was instructed that one acre of land would feed four sheep in an ordinary season. This was not even an ordinary good season, and the defendant had, therefore, been summoned to answer the present charge. The bench fined the defendant £5. Mr. O'Meara asked their worship to make it £5 1s. in order to enable him to give notice of appeal. This was agreed to by the bench, and notice of appeal given.

Mr. Alfred May, the printer of the “Argus,” died at Melbourne on Sunday afternoon last, aged forty-nine years. The deceased gentleman had been connected with that paper over twenty years, and was highly esteemed.

The “Evening Mail” has been informed, on the best authority, that two of the members of Parliament, whose signatures are attached to the address to the Irish people, signed the document without reading it. They were assured that it was drawn up in accordance with instructions given by the executive committee of the Grattan Centenary Celebration, and it is alleged that the writer of the address far exceeded his instructions and the intentions of the committee.

COURSING.

The Beaufort and Waterloo Coursing Club held a meeting on the Irwalla estate on Monday last. Hares were scarce, and very wild; hence a poor day's sport was the result. Mr. McKenzie, the manager of the estate, was present during the afternoon, and did all in his power to find some hares. At the conclusion of the day's sport three hearty cheers were given for Mr. McKenzie. Mr. H. Dabson gave every satisfaction as judge, and Mr. R. Humphreys was equally successful as slipper. The following are the results of the coursing:—

Mr. W. Loft's blk and w Ladybird beat Mr. J. Cowan's f Young Doughty. Mr. C. Loft's w and bdl b Lady Helen beat Mr. F. Welsh's f Count. Messrs. J. W. and J. A. Harris's bdl b Alice beat Mr. J. Martin's f Veno. Mr. J. Frusher's b and w Go-as-you-please beat Mr. J. Cowan's blk d Zulu. Mr. J. Frusher's w and blk b Lady Beaufort beat Mr. H. Anderson's blk b Lucy. Mr. H. P. Henningsen's blk d Prince ran a bye.

First Test. Lady Helen beat Ladybird. Alice beat Go-as-you-please. The stakes was divided between the four dogs left in.

THE SEDITIOUS ADDRESS.

An address has been sent to the Lord Mayor of Dublin as an expression of sympathy on the part of “The Irish people in Victoria” with the people of Ireland, in their efforts to obtain home rule. The address is offensive, not to say diabolical in its assertions. It represents the Irish people as suffering “under the hoof of a foreign despotism,” and compares the position of the nation to that of the lamelites in their degrading servitude to the Egyptians. In another passage the address commends the Irish people for their determination to obtain for their country “complete freedom from foreign rule.” The address bears nine signatures, five of which are those of members of the Legislative Assembly, viz.: Mr. John Gavan Duffy, Mr. Francis Longmore, Mr. Daniel Brophy, Mr. W. O'Callaghan, and Mr. James Toohy.

An animated debate arose in the Assembly on Thursday with reference to the Grattan address signed by five members of Parliament. The Speaker had omitted from the question of which Mr. Patterson had given notice the words, “treasonable” and “seditious,” but the member for Castlemeane made a point of this by reading printed passages from the document itself. After fighting his way through a little storm of interruptions, Mr. Patterson put his question, namely whether the Premier proposed to take any action with regard to the document. The answer was conveyed in eight words—“I do not propose to take any action.” Mr. Longmore, one of the signatories, at once moved the adjournment of the House, and his remarks soon had the House in an uproar. Mr. G. Duffy avowed himself a Home Ruler. He desires the same legislative independence for Ireland that is possessed by Victoria. The address, he says, should be read in the next issue. It refers to the undoubted wrongs of Ireland in the past, but it in no way affects the loyalty of those who approve of it. “If I have been guilty of treason or sedition,” said the hon. member, “I ought to be sent before a jury of my countrymen, and I am ready to go there.” Messrs O'Callaghan, Brophy, and Toohy, the other signatories, were heard in turn. They took the same position as Mr. Duffy, avowing their loyalty to the Queen, but protesting their right to declare in favor of home rule in Ireland. The feeling of the House was evidently adverse to the implicated members, and there were continual manifestations of disapprobation during the course of their remarks. Sir John O'Shanassy, on the other hand, was loudly cheered when he stated that he had urged the Grattan committee to confine themselves to a demonstration of respect to such an illustrious deed, and when he added that his advice to his fellow-Irishmen was to do their duty as colonists and to stand aloof from exciting scenes in which they can exert no appreciable influence.—“Argus.”

RIPONSHIRE COUNCIL.

THURSDAY, JUNE 1st, 1882.

Present: Crs. Wotherspoon (president, in the chair), M'Kenzie, Oddie, Murray, Smith, Cushing, and Thomas. The minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed.

From Henry Lewis, stating that he has thrown up the land lately occupied by him in the parish of Mortschup.—Received. From H. P. Henningsen, claiming £1 compensation from the Council owing to one of his employees having removed a quantity of bricks stored by him at the rear of the Beaufort Hotel. The President stated that he had instructed the engineer to have the bricks spoken of removed, as they were on the footpath. It was necessary to make application to the council to be allowed to leave any building material or other obstruction on the public footpaths or streets. No application had been made in this case. Cr. Oddie said that the place where the bricks spoken of were removed from had been pointed out to him, and he did not consider that they were at all in the way. He introduced Mr. Henningsen to the Council, who stated that during his absence from home a few weeks since the Council's surveyor had removed a quantity of bricks and brickbats from the rear of the Beaufort Hotel, where he had stored them. He intended to use them for building purposes, and owing to them having been removed he had purchased 300 new bricks. The bricks were piled up adjoining his property, and he had received no notice from the Council that they should be removed, or that the Council were about to remove them. Cr. Oddie moved, and Cr. Smith seconded—that the material removed be either returned or paid for. The President then stated that if that motion was carried he would immediately resign, as he considered it was tantamount to censuring him for doing what he considered to be his duty. The motion was then withdrawn, and the matter allowed to drop.

William Lewis, stating that urgent business prevents him from attending to-day's meeting of the Council.—Received. From C. Ryan, dog inspector in the East Riding, complaining of the small remuneration paid to dog inspectors in the shire.—Cr. M'Kenzie moved, and Cr. Thomas seconded—that the remuneration be 2s. per dog. Cr. Oddie moved, as an amendment—that the remuneration be fixed at 50 per cent. The amendment not being seconded the motion was carried. Cr. Oddie then moved—that Mr. Christie's services as dog inspector at Carngaham be dispensed with, and Mr. Ryan be appointed in his stead. Cr. Cushing seconded, and it was carried.

From William Gould, Eurambee, asking the Council to erect two culverts opposite his premises, which have been destroyed by heavy traffic.—Referred to the North Riding members. From J. W. Ingram, asking the Council to fill up the drain opposite his premises in Neil's street, Beaufort.—Referred to the North Riding members. From W. Rodders, Carngaham; Margaret M'Ra, Preston Hill; Francis Stokes, Carngaham; Janet Anderson, Skipton.

REPORTS.

GENERAL BUSINESS.

On the motion of Cr. Thomas seconded by Cr. Smith, it was resolved—that the carrying out of two contracts on the Raglan to Chuto road, let to J. F. Watkin, be held over for a time. The President informed the Council that a proclamation had been issued by direction of this Council prohibiting the cutting of timber in the ranges around Beaufort. It had since been found that the said proclamation had interfered with the mining interest, and the Council had asked the Department to send up an officer to report on the matter. A telegram had also been sent to the Department asking that the timber be reduced to twelve inches in the State forest, and eight inches outside of the forest.

A number of amendments were ordered to be made in the rate-book. Cr. Oddie moved—that tenders be called for a new or second-hand weighing-machine, capable of weighing 5 tons, for Carngaham. Cr. M'Kenzie seconded, and it was carried. On the motion of the President, the Secretary was requested to obtain a supply of English perch from Ballarat for the Beaufort reservoir. On the motion of Cr. Thomas it was resolved—that a bar piece of road, opposite the Salt Lake, on the main Streamham road, be referred to the West Riding members.

On the motion of Cr. Murray, it was resolved—that the Shire of Grenville be asked to make the continuation of the road from Snake Valley to Smythesdale. It was resolved, on the motion of Cr. Thomas—that a reward of 1s. be offered for the destruction of dipchicks in the old Beaufort reservoir. The Council then adjourned.

CORRESPONDENCE.

[We do not identify ourselves with the opinions expressed by our correspondents.]

To the Editor of the Riponshire Advocate.

Sir,—I wish to express my regret that my application yesterday to the Riponshire Council for compensation for bricks removed by their employees should have caused so great a discord in that body as for the President to threaten to resign a position which he so well occupies, and I am fully aware, to his own sacrifice, but only at the solicitation of a great number of ratepayers. However, it would not have happened if the President or Mr. Bson, who the President stated, complained about the nuisance, had told me of it, as I would then have removed the bricks. Both gentlemen I generally meet twice a day. As regards the engineer's statement that they were not bricks, but rubbish, I beg to state that I was offered, by a Shirley resident, more for them than the amount asked for from the Council. But, for the purpose I wanted them, viz., building in a boiler, they were of more value to me than new bricks, as I am informed by competent judges (workmen in the trade) that old bricks will stand fire considerably better than new. By inserting these few lines as an explanation you will oblige Yours, etc., H. P. HENNINGSEN. Beaufort, June 2nd, 1882.

A telegram from Adelaide says that it is reported that owing to the deficiency of the harvest there is not enough wheat to keep the Port mills employed till the end of the year, and that an old established Port firm has given notice of probable suspension of grinding two months hence.

GREEN BANK ALKALI CO.'S PATENT POWDERED DOUBLE REFINED CAUSTIC SODA

Makes the Finest Hard Soap absolutely without Boiling!

No special apparatus required. By simply mixing with tallow grease, or any quantity of soap can be made at a time, from ten pounds in a few minutes to ten tons in a few hours. Quality superior, and costs much less than any local soap; when refined grease or oil can be obtained the best hard soap can be made, costing only a half-penny a pound!

This article is the most highly concentrated alkali obtainable. For all washing, scouring, and cleaning purposes each pound of our patent Double Refined Caustic Soda Powder is equal to ten pounds of ordinary soda crystals, thus effecting a great saving of freight and carriage to distant countries. Nothing better for cleaning or removing old paint.

The following very simple plan for producing the best hard Soap will always succeed if exactly followed.—Take exactly TEN pounds of GREEN-BANK PATENT DOUBLE REFINED CAUSTIC SODA POWDER, put in any can or jar with FORTY-FIVE pounds (4 gallons) of WATER; stir it once or twice with a stirrer; it will dissolve immediately and the liquid will stand until the lye thus made is cold. Weigh out and place in any convenient vessel for mixing exactly three inches of the lye slowly into the liquid grease or oil in a small stream continuously, at the same time stirring with a flat wooden stirrer about three inches broad; continue gently stirring, without stopping, until the lye and grease are thoroughly combined, and the mixture drops from the stirrer like honey. If the tallow or grease is not clean, or contains any salt, it must be "underlaid" previous to use; dry salt present spoils the whole operation entirely, but discolored or rancid grease or tallow is just as good for this purpose.

The Soap made in this way is an absolutely pure unadulterated soap, far superior in quality to any boiled soap, and much cheaper. It contains all glycerine originally contained in the grease used, a valuable ingredient all lost when the soap is made by the old-fashioned boiled process. This soap being pure and unadulterated, it will not injure or destroy the most delicate fabrics or articles; though for washing or scouring woollen articles we always recommend a pure potash soap made in the same way with our Pure Caustic Potash.

SCOURERS is directed to the Company's PURE CAUSTIC POTASH DIRECTIONS.

By simply mixing this pure caustic of potash, dissolved in water, with melted tallow, the most perfect wool scouring soap can be produced, at far less than the cost of soda ash, or soda crystals, which never should be used, as they destroy the colour, and injure the brilliancy of the wool!

NOTICE.

It having come to my knowledge that certain unprincipled vendors of sewing machines have frequently substituted in place of the

GENUINE "WERTHEIM"

INFORM THE PUBLIC

That EVERY

Of the

Wertheim Sewing Machine Manufacturing Company, a GNOME,

Representing the Dwart of German Fable, in a sitting posture, with a mallet resting on his shoulder, and long flowing beard reaching to his feet.

Besides this Trade Mark the NAME "WERTHEIM" is PAINTED in gold on the PLATE of each Machine.

I hereby inform Vendors of Sewing Machines in Victoria and the other Australian colonies that the WERTHEIM "GNOME" TRADE MARK, as well as the name "WERTHEIM," have been properly REGISTERED in Australia, and that any infringement upon the said registration will be at once proceeded against according to law.

THE GREATEST "SEWING MACHINE."

TRIUMPH OF THE AGE

We respectfully ask the public not to be misled by the puff of our "Rival of former years."

The number of Sewing Machines imported (like other goods) is no criterion of the number sold, the evidence of which lies in the fact that Melbourne is or was rocked with the importations of 1874.

Reasons why the

"WHEELER AND WILSON"

Sewing Machine

Is far superior to the "Singer."

The W. and W. will do more work, and do it better.

The W. and W. is much more durable. It will last a lifetime, and run for years without repair.

The W. and W. is easier to work than the Singer.

The W. and W. is not so liable to get out of order.

The W. and W. has no cog wheels to wear away and break, as a Singer.

The W. and W. has no noisy machinery to tire and weary the feet, as the Singer.

The W. and W. is less simple in action.

The W. and W. has less wear and tear.

The W. and W. is better finished.

The W. and W. has been awarded more prizes.

If any further proof is required of the superiority of the Wheeler and Wilson, it is found in the fact that Singer's agent has never accepted our challenge to have the machines publicly tested.

We warrant every genuine W. and W. machine to give entire satisfaction.

BALLARAT WHOLESALE PRODUCE MARKET.

There was a fair market on Thursday. We quote as follows:—Barley—English, 5s 3d; Cape barley, 4s 4d; wheat, 6s 7d; oats, 3s 10d to 4s; sheaves, L5 10s to L5 15s; mangel hay, L6 5s to L6 10s; potatoes, L3 10s; straw, 50s to 55s; peas, 4s to 4s 6d; bran, 1s 6d; pollard, 1s 8d; bonedust, L6 10s; flour, L14 15s.

ARARAT PRODUCE MARKET.

We have this week to record a weaker tone in the wheat market, consequent upon which prices have declined at least one penny per bushel. Many growers still hold out for 6s 4d per bushel, bags returned, to 6s 6d, bags in, but millers do not feel inclined to advance above 6s 3d, bags returned. The easier feeling apparent has to a great extent restricted business, but no small lot was disposed of to-day at our figure, and at the end of last week two small loads were quoted at the same price. Flour remains as last quoted but the price exhibits little business. Speculation is not attempted and buyers are content to supply immediate wants. At Horsham the market remains unchanged at 6s 4d per bushel, at which figure the little forward is taken up. The ruling at St. Arnaud is also 6s 4d; Donald, 6s 7d. A decline is also observable at Avoca of nearly 6d per bushel, the present quotation being 6s 5d to 6s 6d for wheat, and L14 2s 6d to L14 5s for flour; this latter being also a reduction on last week's rates. At Landsborough the prices are unchanged, flour, L14 5s per ton, wheat, 6s 8d per bushel. In this district oats show no alteration in value and a fair supply continues to come forward at 4s 6d to 5s 8d per bushel. There is still an enquiry for good seed oats, and a small quantity has changed hands at 4s to 4s 3d for really prime samples. A few peas are also still being brought for seed, and the price is advancing, and 4s to 4s 6d can now be obtained. Warramboul potatoes have been scarce at L5 per ton, but a good supply is coming in from Ballarat at L4 15s. Hay has been brought in fairly up to requirements at L5 for sheaves and L5 10s for trussel. Straw is readily sold at our prices. All kinds of dairy produce is scarce and there is a good enquiry for fresh and potted butter, cheese, and eggs at our figures. We quote:—Wheat, 6s 3d, bags returned; oats, 3s to 3s 8d; pollard, 1s 8d; bran, L14 10s; Cape barley, 4s; flour, L14 5s to L14 10s; Ballarat, L4 15s; fresh butter, 1s 8d; potted butter, 1s 8d; lams, 11d; bacon, 8d; cheese, 9d to 10d; eggs, 1s 6d; hay, sheaves, 9s to 10s; hay trussel, L5 10s; straw, 50s; chaff, 5s 6d; onions, 8s; carrots, 4s; peas, 4s 6d; English barley, 4s 3d; rye, 5s 6d.—Advertiser.

GEELONG WOOL AND STATION PRODUCE REPORT.

Tuesday. Messrs. GEORGE HAGUE and Co. report:—Sheepskins.—There was a full attendance of local and other buyers at our sale to-day, and spirited competition for every lot. We had a large supply, and made a satisfactory clearance. Hides.—An easier feeling pervaded the market again to-day, and with the exception of a few prime leathers, we found it difficult to effect sales at late quotations. Tallow.—We have had a good enquiry, both for shipment and local consumption, but the supply coming forward at present is not at all equal to the demand.

Messrs. GEORGE SYMOND and Co. report:—Sheepskins.—We had a very good supply of skins at the auctions to-day. Prices were good, and very high figures were obtained. The growth on skins, considering the dry season, is remarkably good, and prices obtained considerably higher than those obtained this time last season. Hides.—The market was well supplied, but on late rates are maintained with difficulty, prices gradually receding. There is a moderate demand for superior lots, and in these classes the fall is not so noticeable. Tallow.—There is a brisk demand throughout, and all parcels coming forward are readily disposed of. In the absence of sales of any importance, we quote about last week's prices as a ruling quotation.

Mr. James Tyson, the squatter, is worth £3,500,000, is a bachelor, never smoked a pipe of tobacco or drank a glass of liquor in his life, and has not "one redeeming vice." He is 69 years old, and has just made up his mind that if he can find a suitable English girl he will marry.

In Auckland recently the Aurora Australia was so brilliant that the fire brigade was rung out to extinguish the conflagration.

Holloway's Pills.—The sudden changes, frequent fogs, and prevailing dampness, sorely impede the vital functions and conduce to ill-health. The remedy for these distressing ills is some purifying medicine, like these Pills, which is competent to grapple with the mischief, at its source, and stamp it out without fretting the nerves or weakening the system. Holloway's Pills extract from the blood all noxious matters, regulate the actions of every disordered organ, stimulate the liver and kidneys, and relax the bowels. In curing chest complaints, these Pills are remarkably effective, especially when aided by friction of the Ointment on its walls. The double treatment will ensure a certain, steady and beneficial progress, and sound health will soon be reestablished.

Caution.—In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—in wind, and sunshine often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colic, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of BOSCHER'S GERMAN SYRUP kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Coughs, Croup, or any disease of Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. GERMAN SYRUP is now sold in every town and village on this continent. Sample bottles, for trial, 9d.; regular size, 4s. Wholesale Agents: ROCKE, TOMPSITT, and Co., Melbourne.

THE Riponshire Advocate.

Published every Saturday Morning. SATURDAY, JUNE 10, 1882.

It would be only reasonable now to indulge in a hope that public business should be proceeded with by our Legislature. Parliament has been two months in session, and the assets at present may be set down as next to nil. It is true that one large liability, the wish to attack, upset, and oust the Government has been cleared off in the disposal of Mr. Berry's want of confidence motion, and if the three weeks' waste of time did no other service, it has certainly tended to consolidate the position of the Ministry, and to show that the country's representatives have rightly gauged the country's wants—progress in peaceful legislation, the introduction of new measures that are urgently required, and the amendment of those already in force that are capable of improvement. We take it to be a healthy sign that the Legislative Assembly, by its vote on Mr. Berry's resolution, discarded the principle of the introduction of an element into the Government of the country that would probably have led to a renewal of that agitation which the people had quite enough of for a period of four or five months some two years back. At the present time Mr. Berry appears inclined to woo moderation as mildly as any dove wove its mate, but there is really no knowing what he might be if he got on the warpath again with an array of voting machines at his beck and call. And this is apparently the feeling of the majority of members in the House too, they do not see their way clear to take Mr. Berry on trial, but would rather that things remained as they are at present, so that when they have to face their constituents again ere long, they should have something better to put before them than an endless flow of "yabber," a proceeding that some few of them appear to think is the whole duty of the Parliamentary man. This week the debate on the Budget has been initiated, and as there are some friendly suggestions thrown out as to modifications in Sir Bryan O'Loughlin's proposals, it may be worth while to consider them. There can be no doubt but that, as Treasurer, his lot has fallen in extremely pleasant places, since, instead of having to set a deficit before the House, he had the pleasure of announcing a surplus, and also to refer to the evidence of an increasing prosperity in the finances and business of the country. Sir Bryan O'Loughlin said that he expected to begin the financial year, which commences on the first proximo, with a surplus of £73,777, after paying off all past liabilities (save £28,000 worth of bonds which holders do not feel inclined to part with), and also sweeping out of existence the deficit of £311,000 with which Mr. Berry closed the year 1880-81. Again, he had the pleasure of proving that his estimates of the revenue likely to accrue during the financial year just expiring were under the mark, though at the time they were announced they were regarded as a long way over the mark, and as not likely to be realised. The estimated revenue was £5,437,000, the actual receipts will most likely reach £5,734,000 which with the saving of expenditure included, points to a gain of £330,000. This is eminently satisfactory as showing the elasticity of the country, and its power of taking a bound from the slough of retrogression into the highway of progress. Very naturally a Treasurer, situated as Sir Bryan O'Loughlin is, with an embarrassment of riches in the State coffers, should seek to relieve the people of some of those burdens which were put on to "raise the wind" when the times were bad. For this end two great commodities of human consumption have been fixed upon, and a reduction in the inland postage of letters. We do not suppose that there would be any cavil at the doing away with the impost of 3d per lb on tea. Tea is a beverage so universally used in this country that to render it as free and as reasonable as possible is a boon that will, without doubt, be appreciated by all classes, and certainly by those who "earn their bread with the sweat of their brow." The reduction of the duty on beer by 2d per gallon may, we think, be regarded with less favour, because we do not see exactly where the benefit to the consumer is to come in. We do not think that, in the majority of cases, the price of beer per glass will be reduced, so that the relinquishment of the duty in question would only benefit the few, not the many. Sir Bryan says he looks upon beer as a necessity, and on tobacco as a luxury, but as far as the working classes are concerned we should, from our observation, say that to them tobacco is as great a necessity as beer, if not greater. The removal of the duty on tobacco would have benefitted a greater number than the removal of the duty on beer, since we believe that many would sooner go without the latter than the former, so that this particular point in the proposed reductions is worthy of reconsideration and amendment. The reduction in the inland postage from 2d to 1d is an experiment, but we rather question whether, in the comparatively limited population of the colony, it will be found to increase the number of letters sent to that appreciable extent to make up the difference in the revenue. We are inclined to think that a reduction in the price of telegraphing would have answered the purposes of the revenue better by the increase in the number of messages sent, and also as in the light of a boon to the people, who, we believe, do not grudge the present postal rate. These are suggestions thrown out in several quarters, not for the purpose of embarrassing the Government in any way, but as an indication of the feeling that its proposals could be modified with advantage. The people, no doubt, look to reap some advantages from an overflowing Treasury, as they have to be pinched when the coffers are empty, but the benefits it is sought to convey require the nicest and most careful consideration to make them benefit indeed.

TELEGRAMS FROM EUROPE tell of the death of General Giuseppe Garibaldi, who died at Caprera on the 5th inst. from bronchitis. "His death," it is stated, "has caused a profound sensation throughout Italy, and the nation is in mourning." And no wonder, since the independence of Italy is in a great measure attributable to the soldier hero and the simple minded patriot who has discharged the last great debt. Garibaldi was born in 1807, and was consequently 75 years old at the time of his death. Dulver tells us that "The pen is mightier than the sword," and perhaps in the long run it has the pull, but in looking back at those stirring events which happened from twenty to thirty years since, which culminated in the freedom of Italy, and its independent and local habitation and name among the nations, it would be only just to say that the extraordinary and brilliant deeds of the soldier and patriot, Garibaldi, had as much to do with that end as the diplomacy and far-reaching sight of Count Cavour. Our space does not allow, as we might wish, to give a resume of that brilliant course and unexampled disinterestedness which lifts the departed General out of the pale of ordinary men, and distinguishes him as a man in whom the amor patrie burnt so brightly that ennoblement, place, and power were not even secondary considerations, but matters that never troubled him at all. As the close of those splendid achievements which placed Victor Emmanuel on the throne of Italy, Garibaldi was offered a dukedom, a princely estate, and a large gift of money, but there was enough of reward for him in the conscientiousness that he had fought, bled, and suffered for his country, and not in vain. Such a character as this is entirely sui generis, and as such must enjoy the love and admiration of his countrymen, and live in the page of his history as an example of courage, patriotism, and self-denial very rarely to be met with. At one period of his eventful existence the deceased General went to New York, where he experienced an enthusiastic reception. One who met him there writes:—"As compared with the majority of the Italians, we remarked in this man's bearing and aspect a great simplicity and directness. He avowed confidence instantly. No one with an insight of character as revealed by physiognomy could fail to see in him the presence of one of nature's noblemen. That his habits were thoroughly manly, his convictions individual and tenacious, his tone of feeling elevated, his spirit indomitable, his heart earnest, his purpose strong, and his nature disinterested, were impressions that gained upon the observer as a kind of magnetic influence."

We are glad to learn that a company has been formed to develop the reef known as Emanuel's Reef, from which such rich specimens were obtained some months since, the rights and interests of the prospecting claim and claims adjoining, giving a length of 300 feet on the line of reef, having been secured. The shares are rapidly being disposed of, and our local men should avail themselves of the opportunity thus afforded them of securing the few remaining shares that, at the time of our going to press, remain to be disposed of. We are further informed that the party prospecting south of the proposed company's lease have discovered, at the depth of 70 feet, a reef set on feet thick, and are getting stone out for the purpose of crushing. From the prospects obtained they anticipate a favorable result, which would largely increase the value of the company's property. A sale of Crown lands in fee simple will be held at the Beaufort court-house on Friday, 23rd inst. Particulars of the lots to be submitted will be found in another column. Great havoc has been done among the canaries in Beaufort during the past week or two by a small slate-colored bird, which has been going round killing every canary within its reach. On Monday last this canary-destroyer visited Lot's Railway Hotel, and killed two very valuable birds. His modus operandi is to fly on to the cage containing his intended victim, and then as the lightest bird flutters about on the cage he deliberately strikes it a blow in the head with his beak, in some cases completely shattering the head, and causing instantaneous death. About a dozen canaries have fallen victims to this feathered murderer. Several persons have followed him with shotguns, but up to the present he has eluded capture.

The railway arrangements for the conveyance of passengers to the newly-erected platform at the plumpion of the Ballarat Coursing Club on the occasion of the Derby and Oaks meeting on Thursday last were in a very muddled state, the various officers on the line not having received proper instructions from head quarters. An order was issued from the General Traffic Manager's office to the effect that passengers could be booked at first-class Friday excursion fares from Beaufort to Burreumbet and return, on the day mentioned, the ordinary trains stopping at the plumpion platform to take up and set down passengers. This order did not arrive at the local station till midnight on Wednesday, and consequently there were only five persons from Beaufort and one from Ararat that availed themselves of the concession to visit the coursing ground. The train which leaves Beaufort at 3.5 a.m. stopped at the platform to put down the passengers, and it was expected that the evening train from Ballarat to Beaufort would stop to take drivers up. However, no order was given the driver or guard to stop, and the consequence was the train did not stop, much to the inconvenience and disgust of the intending passengers. Luckily, however, Mr. O'Malley, the district traffic manager, happened to be at the platform, and on matters being explained to him, the Beaufort contingent were taken on to Ballarat by the special train provided for the coursing men from Ballarat, and were allowed to travel free of charge from Ballarat to Burreumbet by the 10.35 p.m. train. The parties were put to some unnecessary expense and a deal of inconvenience by the bungle, although they are grateful to Mr. O'Malley for assisting them to get out of a rather unenviable position.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. E. Cavanaugh, who has for some time past been acting as manager of the Beaufort branch of the Bank of Victoria, has been permanently appointed to the position of manager. Mr. Cavanaugh has made a large number of friends during the time he has been amongst us, who will no doubt share our pleasure in his promotion. The plumpion coursing in connection with the Derby and Oaks meeting of the Ballarat Coursing Club, commenced on Thursday, was not a success, owing, probably to the hurried manner in which the plumpion has been erected. There was supposed to be a large stock of hares within the enclosure, but sixteen courses were all that could be run out of it. The club deserve praise for their enterprise, and should be heartily supported by all lovers of sport. Old "sports" term coursing in the plumpion nothing short of murder, as the escapes are not numerous enough. Next year, and probably during the latter part of this season, numbers of defects now apparent will be remedied, and provision made to enjoy a comfortable day's sport without the old style of walking all day, and then frequently with but poor success as far as hares are concerned. The men employed boring on the New Discovery Extended Company's lease abandoned No. 3. bore at 80 feet. No. 4. was down 69 feet last evening. Yesterday's "Ararat Advertiser" says:—"A well deserved promotion has been made at the local railway station. News was received yesterday that Mr. Butler, who lives at the gatehouse at the Botanical Gardens, and who for years past has been engaged as a ganger on the line had been appointed an inspector of permanent way. We believe the appointment is in respect of the construction of the new lines which are being carried out. Mr. Butler has been connected with the Railway Department, for many years and possesses much practical experience, having been employed on similar works both in England and India. He was, indeed, employed on the first railway constructed in India, leaving that country at the time of the outbreak of the mutiny in 1856. Mr. Butler received the hearty congratulations of the officers and staff of the station on his promotion." The "Times" is telling the young aristocracy of England that in the interior of the Australian continent a man came out as much earth as he likes for 5s or 10s a square mile. A hundred Catholics of Wellington spent Good Friday in setting the Catholic cemetery in order. A monument to John Batman was unveiled on Saturday in Melbourne. It is on Batman's grave. How to ferret out the perpetrator of a trick in substituting any other Schnapps for DOLPHO WOLFE'S SCHLEMMER AROMATIC SCHNAPPS, will require very little intuition. Just let one try the genuine invigorant; and familiar with its taste, they will soon discover the difference. It is impossible to give to the common gun that delicate smell, that fragrant touch, that aromatic, soft, and velvety taste, that constitute the chief elements of this great tonic-cordial. According to the best authorities, Port Phillip Bay is silting up faster than it can be dredged by the present appliances of the Trust. It is said that Prince Leopold was made a colonel in the British army in order that he might be married in a becoming uniform. A man named G. A. Clark has been killed in London by eating orange pills. The receipts on the Victorian railways for the week ending 25th May, were £29,995 2s 2d. The amount received in the corresponding period of last year was £24,594 1s 10d. When a Chinese bank fails all the officers have their heads cut off and hung into a corner with the assets, and it is 900 years since there was a bank failure in that country. Says the "Evening Mail," "Whilst Sir Charles Gavan Duffy is angling for a baronetcy at one end of the world his son is encouraging sedition at the other." Jimmy, the Kanaka, who was found guilty of the murder of Jeremiah Worth at Bundaberg, was executed at Brisbane on Monday. He resisted violently, and laid down on the scaffold. His death did not take place until nearly two minutes after the drop. Three men, working in a mine at Murrumburrah, N.S.W., broke through into old ground on Monday night, and were drowned by the rush of water. Newly 7,000 parents in South Australia have declared in favor of Bible reading in state schools.

NATIONAL PREJUDICES.

To the Editor of the Riponshire Advocate. Sir.—I again feel constrained to raise my voice against the representations, vilifications, and despicably treacherous utterances contained in the last issue of the "Advocate,"—a Melbourne Roman Catholic organ—levelled against Englishmen, who not only are represented to be "fiendish, hateful, and diabolically cruel," but—"wholesale exterminators of the Irish race." Now, Sir, let me say that an organ which opens its columns to such traitorous slanders is totally unfit for perusal by all constitutionally law-abiding subjects, of whatever nationality. I, as an Englishman, may well feel proud that the treacherous venom which permeates the above shall never be permitted to make a lodgement in the breast of an Englishman, nor a true Irishman, a Scotchman, or a Welshman. What a dreadful thing it is to hear some people in our midst crying out, "Don't give credit to the lying English papers, for if you want to get at the truth, read the 'Advocate.'" And I grieve to have to state that those credulous people are thoroughly conscientious in being thus gulled. Yes, this "Advocate" is ever stirring up strife, anger, and prejudice amongst us, who, if left alone, would soon stamp it out of existence. Sir, I can assure your readers that in having to call it a priestly organ is wrong from me through having read stronger language used by one in holy orders. Let us hear what Father Rooney, of California, says to the Irish:—"Irish Catholics,—Trust your priests, as you ever have as a nation; and when the propitious moment comes to settle the accounts with brutal old England, the murderer of your priests and forefathers, the murderer despoiler of your sanctuaries, the pillager of your possessions, and the starver of your people, those priests will bless the sword that you use, that it may cut more keenly; the bullet, that it may perforate more deeply; and your hands, that they may wield the weapon the more powerfully; and your nerves, that you may the more steadily avenge your injured mother of your noble ancestors. Never trust an enemy that has deceived us so often as England, and violated every treaty made with us. You may expect nothing from her except through the cannon's roar, the whizzing bullets, and the flashing scimitar. But let us be sure that we are ready and well prepared for the fray." Sir, it is of easy discernment from the extract just given that by the tone and style of the above organ it is well up in the holy addresses of the Fathers—Father Rooney to wit—and has its course properly stayed and grooved by priestly example. If ever a people were to be pitied it is the lower section of the Irish, for were they left to the impulse of their own hearts, free of the prejudices which are continuously being drilled into them, they would be I sincerely believe, as warm-hearted, genial, and as law-abiding as any people in the world. I am, dear Sir, Respectfully yours, LATITUDINARIAN. Beaufort, 7th June, 1882.

A DENIAL.

To the Editor of the Riponshire Advocate. Sir.—Having seen my name mentioned in Mr. Hemmingsen's letter in your last issue as being the party who complained about the alleged nuisance opposite my premises, I hereby wish to emphatically deny that I ever complained, or had cause to complain, of any nuisance. Yours, etc., GEORGE ISON. Beaufort, 9th June, 1882.

BOARD OF ADVICE.

A special meeting of the school board of advice for the North Riding of the Shire of Ripon was held at Sir Harry's Beaufort Hotel on Monday, 5th June, at which there were present—Messrs. McDonald (chairman), Thomas, Barnes, Cumming, and Humphreys (correspondent). The minutes of the previous ordinary meeting were read and confirmed. The grant list for the quarter ending 31st March was submitted by the Tenant Officer, together with his report thereon, and the Board directed that legal proceedings should be taken in all cases where there was no valid or reasonable excuse offered. The following list of questions were received from the Secretary of the Central Board of Victoria, Melbourne. The questions, and answers given by the Board, were as follows:— 1. Q.—What is the extent of your School district? Its length and breadth? A.—Length, 14 miles; Breadth, 14 miles. 2. Q.—How many State schools are established in your district? and what was the average attendance and the number on the roll during the month of February last? Distinguishing between buildings the property of the Education Department and private buildings leased by the Department. A.—Eleven schools. Did not care to trouble teachers as to the information. Had not the information at hand. All Government buildings. 3. Q.—Is more school accommodation required? and, if so, for how many children? A.—No. 4. Q.—Are there any two schools within two miles of each other having a combined attendance of less than 500 children? If so, give particulars. A.—No. 5. Q.—Are the school buildings in good repair; and are the schools properly supplied with furniture and gymnastic appliances? A.—With one exception. No gymnastic appliances furnished to any school in this district. 6. Q.—Are your schools well conducted and are they characterised by a good moral tone. A.—Yes. 7. Q.—Is religious instruction given in any of your school buildings? If so, state particulars. A.—No. 8. Q.—Is your Board in favor of simple Bible reading in the schools, there being a conscience clause to exempt children whose parents or guardians object? If so, whether before, during, or after school hours? A.—No, as we consider it would be unworkable, inasmuch as it would cause discord amongst the children. 9. Q.—If in favor of Bible reading, do you think it should be optional with the Board of Advice for each school district, or should it be a part of the routine work of all schools? A.—See preceding answer. 10. Q.—At what minimum age are children enrolled in the schools of your district? and is any change desirable? A.—Three years.

Yes. Minimum should be not less than five years.

11. Q.—Do you consider 30 days per quarter sufficient for compulsory attendance? If not, what increase do you recommend? A.—No. Should be increased to forty (40) days.

12. Q.—Are you in favor of extending the powers and functions of Boards of Advice? If so how? A.—Yes. 1. Be authorised to expend a sum not exceeding £5 per school in district for repairs. 2. To have a say in appointing qualified Head Teachers and sole control of appointment of qualified junior teachers in order to counteract political influence. 3. In cases of contagious diseases, Boards should have power to close schools. 4. Boards to investigate any charges against teachers in conjunction with school inspectors.

PARLIAMENTARY ITEMS.

(From the "Argus") The signatories to the Grattan address were represented in debate on Tuesday by Mr. J. G. Duffy and Mr. Longmore. Mr. Duffy rose in response to an appeal from Mr. Berry, who complained that the Irish members had not disavowed sympathy with the outrages in Ireland, and had not protested their loyalty. Mr. Duffy declared that on no occasion had he ever failed to stigmatise the Irish outrages as disgraceful, and their perpetrators as the worst enemies of the Irish cause. He also explicitly disavowed any charge of disloyalty. His contention is that Ireland is entitled to an independent Legislature under the Imperial Crown, and in signing the document he meant to do no more than that. Mr. Longmore's address was far more unsatisfactory. He declared that he had not uttered a disloyal word, but he went on instantly to declare that the document complained of did not say one-tenth of what might be said, and to denounce the action of the Imperial Government "in keeping 50,000 soldiers in Ireland to shoot down tenants who cannot pay their rents." It is wrong, no doubt, says Mr. Longmore, for assassins to shoot men from behind hedges, but it is a great deal worse to maintain evil laws that afflict thousands, and he complains that the assassins are denounced but not the laws that make them assassins. Mr. Longmore referred to the speeches in which Mr. Highbottom protested against "foreign rule" in this country, and said that the Grattan address contained no more. Mr. Longmore met with an unflattering reception.

The Assembly was occupied on Tuesday night with a further debate on the Grattan address. Sir Bryan O'Loughlin expressed the willingness of the Government to give precedence to the motion tabled by Mr. Patterson if the House so desired it, and the motion was accordingly called on at an early hour. The member for Castlemaine contended that there was no need to inquire about his motives. It is sufficient that his action has gone straight to the heart of the country. The explanation offered last week made matters, in his opinion, worse than they were before, and the action of the Premier was too faint-hearted for his position. The motion was seconded from the Constitutional corner by Mr. Simon Fraser. Mr. J. G. Francis, before speaking, obtained from the Irish members concerned their assurance that they signed the address in their capacity as private citizens, and not as members of Parliament, the letters "M.P." having been added without their knowledge or consent. The statement made by Mr. J. G. Duffy to this effect was loudly applauded, and seemed to make a favourable impression upon the House. Mr. Francis urged the Assembly, under the circumstances, not to be zealous overmuch, and not to attempt to make martyrs of the individual members. He moved the previous question—so as to set aside Mr. Patterson's motion—with a view of submitting a motion strongly disapproving of the expressions contained in the address, deeply regretting that the document should have been signed by members of the House, but accepting the protests of loyalty, made by the offenders. "That," said Mr. Patterson, "is a shelving motion." "I deny that," retorted Mr. Francis. "It is a honest and I believe a wise motion, and I shall try to pass it." Mr. O'Leary seconded the amendment, and the discussion proceeded at length. Mr. Wilson pointed out that if five members were to be censured, as Mr. Patterson proposed, it must be on the assumption that they had been guilty of wilfully signing a treasonable document, and in that case censure must be logically followed by expulsion. He held that while the address should be disavowed and condemned, it was unnecessary to proceed to such an extremity as to place on the records that the five members were disloyal men. With this view Ministers and the Ministerial members generally concurred, and there seemed at one time a probability that the Opposition would concur also, and that an unanimous vote would be taken. However, the Opposition ultimately objected to the withdrawal of the previous question, and insisted that Mr. Patterson's proposal should be voted upon. The division was—Ayes 27, noes 43, the motion being thus set aside in favour of the Francis proposal by a majority of 16. The announcement of the numbers was received with a loud and continued cheering from both sides.

Another debate in connexion with the Grattan address occupied the time of the Legislative Assembly until a late hour on Thursday. The discussion opened in a spirited manner. Before the dinner hour, indeed, the debate was so warm as to continually call for the interposition of the Speaker, but afterwards it flagged terribly. Mr. Francis submitted the motion of which he had given notice of disapproving of the expressions of the address, regretting that certain members should have signed the document, but accepting their expressions of loyalty, and stating the "unswerving loyalty" of the House to Her Majesty the Queen. In seconding the motion, Mr. Officer said that his only complaint was that it did not contain a reference to the necessity of preserving the integrity of the British Empire. As soon as the question was put from the chair Mr. Berry and Mr. Patterson were both on their legs, and neither would give way to the other. There was much cheering and laughter. The Speaker called upon Mr. Berry, who said that the motion was half-hearted, and that he would propose as an amendment that the address be forwarded to Mr. Gladstone denouncing the Grattan Address as treasonable, and expressing a warm approval of the Irish policy of the British Premier. Mr. Patten- son, who followed, declared his dissent from the proposition to address Mr. Gladstone as unprecedented and uncalled for.

The Melbourne correspondent of the "Ararat Advertiser" writes:—"A strange elopement took place last week. The daughter of a merchant ran away with one of the Sydney stevedores, and the pair are now in the neighboring capital.

The reason why a large number of members declined to follow Mr. Patterson in his proposed censure of the Grattan Address was frankly stated in debate by Sir Charles MacMahon. The member for Castlemaine, said the hon. gentleman, "has announced his intention to raise the orange flag. He has declared that he will foment an anti-Roman Catholic agitation. And the House does not desire to spread sectarian and national strife and to rake up old world questions." Mr. Patterson rose to ask where he had said these things. "In this house," was the reply. "I deny it," said Mr. Patterson. "And I am a living proof that you did," said Mr. O'Callaghan, who suddenly rose and whose rich brogue gave a comic turn to the situation, and convulsed the House with laughter.

A GHOST AMONGST THE RABBIT TRAPS. The Myrnington correspondent of the "Bacchus Marsh Express" writes:—"A strange story comes from Pyke's Creek, from which it would appear that the locality is honored (or otherwise, as the case may be) as the residence of a visitor from the world of spirits. It appears, as the story goes, that some rabbit trappers in pursuing their avocations in that locality had—in the, to them, most unaccountable manner—their traps sprung and carefully laid on one side of the rabbit burrow. This had happened to them repeatedly, until at length, when setting their traps late one night, the spirit or ghost, or what ever else it might be, became so bold—encouraged no doubt, by former success—as to follow the trappers at a respectful distance, and spring a trap after trap. The trappers listening to the "click, click" of their traps, thought it strange, but could not account for the vagaries of their traps until, after listening attentively and gazing eagerly in the darkness, something all at once appeared to their vision resembling a human being dressed in white, minus the head. The young men at once saw through the mystery of the springing of their traps, but did not wait to question his ghostship on the subject, nor did they finish the setting of their traps that night, but made tracks for their home at a pace somewhat quicker than usual, the ghost pursuing until reaching a stream of water—which it is said ghosts cannot cross—where they managed to escape its clutches at the expense of nothing worse than a good ducking to one of themselves. The young men have, I hear, left that locality, and gone trapping elsewhere."

NOTICE.

It having come to my knowledge that certain unprincipled vendors of sewing machines have frequently substituted in place of the GENUINE "WERTHEIM"

Machines on a similar principle, but of a far inferior make, I beg to

INFORM THE PUBLIC
That EVERY
GENUINE WERTHEIM SEWING
MACHINE BEARS THE TRADE MARK

Of the
Wertheim Sewing Machine Manufacturing Company, a GNOME.

Representing the Dwarf of German Fable, in a sitting posture, with a mallet resting on his shoulder, and long flowing beard reaching to his feet.

Besides this Trade Mark the NAME "WERTHEIM" is PAINTED IN GOLD on the PLATE of each Machine.

I hereby inform Vendors of Sewing Machines in Victoria and the other Australian colonies that the WERTHEIM "GNOME" TRADE MARK, as well as the name "WERTHEIM," have been properly registered in Australia; and that any infringement upon the said registration will be at once proceeded against according to law.

THE GREATEST "SEWING MACHINE."
TRIUMPH OF THE AGE

We respectfully ask the public not to be misled by the put of our "Rival of former years."

The number of Sewing Machines imported (like other goods) is no criterion of the number sold, the evidence of which lies in the fact that Melbourne is over-stocked with the importations of 1874.

Reasons why the
"WHEELER AND WILSON"
Sewing Machine

Is far superior to the "Singer."
The W. and W. will do more work, and do it better.
The W. and W. is much more durable. It will last a lifetime, and run for years without repair.
The W. and W. is easier to work than the Singer.
The W. and W. is not so liable to get out of order.

The W. and W. has no cog wheels to wear away and break, as a Singer.
The W. and W. has no heavy machinery to tire and weary the feet, as the Singer.
The W. and W. is more simple in action.
The W. and W. has less wear and tear.
The W. and W. is better finished.
The W. and W. has been awarded more prizes.

If any further proof is required of the superiority of the Wheeler and Wilson, it is found in the fact that Singer's agent has never accepted our challenge to have the machines publicly tested.

We warrant every genuine W. and W. machine to give entire satisfaction.

GREAT SUCCESS

OF THE

WHOLESALE

FAMILY CASH TRADE,

As adopted by

A. CRAWFORD,

MITCHELL'S BUILDINGS, STURT
STREET, BALLARAT.

The immense increase of business since the adoption of the wholesale family cash trade is proof positive that the public recognize the benefit and advantages of a large establishment conducted on purely cash principles at wholesale prices. That the increase has been gained by genuine merit there can be no question of doubt. It has been again and again demonstrated by every one who has been inclined to think, and who openly expressed their opinion, that it was but a trade ruse. The system is, however, genuine, and is now firmly established. Direct shipments of goods are being sent forward from Great Britain regularly by sailing and steam ships. The following is a list of vessels arrived, or on the way out, containing large shipments of new goods, purchased direct from the home manufacturers:—Loch Tarrant, Orion, Lustraria, Cotopaxi, Clifton, Loch Lomond, Ravenscroft, Lady Cairns, Carthage, Sorrento, Rohilla, Amalia, etc., etc. Regular supplies of all kinds of goods are arranged for, to come by the various lines of steamships and fast sailing vessels. The public will thus see that every effort is made to secure the very best possible value, besides to have always on hand the newest and most fashionable goods of the season regularly and constantly.

The new goods are unexceptionally good value even at wholesale prices. Amongst the goods just to hand there are some splendid lines in tweeds and ulsterings, which are without doubt the best and largest selection ever exhibited in this district. The prices range from the very lowest ever shown in Ballarat, to the best manufactured. The tweeds and ulsterings are suitable for boys', youths', and gentlemen's wear; also for maids' and ladies' ulsters, etc., etc.

THE TAILORING DEPARTMENT

Is thus of very marked importance, and deserves to be patronised very largely, the cutter in charge being a first-class practical workman, who gives universal satisfaction, a good fit, combined with stylish appearance, first-class workmanship, and artistic finish being a characteristic of the work. The trends, collars, vestings, ulsterings, etc., etc., being all imported direct from the very best manufacturers in the trade, and purchased for cash on the best terms obtainable, ensures the best class of goods and the newest patterns. Gentlemen and ladies are invited to call and inspect the stock.

Patterns are sent to any part of Victoria, with directions for self-measurement. The low railway rates for parcels enables customers living within easy distance of a railway station to have goods conveyed very cheaply to their destination.

A Magnificent Assortment of New Brussels and Tapestry Carpets, Linoleums, Floor Cloths, Window Curtains, etc., etc. The newest and the best patterns in the trade, at wholesale prices. Customers must bear in mind that by purchasing at this establishment they save the retail profit; hence on furnishing orders very large savings can be effected in replenishing houses or furnishing new ones.

The Largest Stock of Mattings in the colony at the lowest prices ever known, even in the wholesale trade.

To Families and Householders.—The Stock of Flannels, Blankets, Sheetings, Calicoes, Shirtings, Table-Linens, Cretonnes, Towellings, Linens, etc., etc., is the largest and best-selected in the colony, purchased direct from the home manufacturers, and are being sold in retail quantities at wholesale prices for cash. Blankets, and sheetings, etc., etc., cut in whatever length they are required, at the net wholesale prices in bulk quantities, thus giving the public a Clear Advantage, or chance of Saving from 20 to 30 per cent.

By a few of the late steamships a splendid lot of new winter dress goods has arrived consisting of Wineys, Costume Tweeds, Costume Cloths, Cashmeres, Costume Poplins, Serges, Silks, (black and colored), new Satins, (twilled blacks), Moore Satins (all shades for trimmings). A very superior stock of black Goods, the best value ever shown in the colony, even by the largest wholesale houses. The above goods are all marked at wholesale prices for cash only, but are cut in any lengths to suit requirements of customers.

The largest stock of Millinery, Flowers, Plumes, Feathers, Millinery ornaments, etc., etc., in Ballarat, at Wholesale Prices for cash only. The retail profit on the above goods being about 50 per cent., customers will effect a very great saving by making their purchases at this establishment, as the usual retail profit is entirely saved.

The stock of Ladies', maids', and children's ulster and jackets is, without exception, the best ever shown in any retail house in Victoria, and unsurpassed by the largest wholesale warehouse in Melbourne. These goods are all manufactured on the premises, from tweeds and ulsterings imported direct from the British manufacturer. They are, therefore, unequalled for value, being considerably lower than even ordinary wholesale rates, as all middlemen's profits are dispensed with. Shawls, petticoats, children's overalls, ladies' costumes, etc., etc., in all sizes and materials, constantly on hand, in the latest styles, trimmed and finished, equal to the best goods made to order.

The goods in this department are all made on the premises, from tweeds, coatings, ulsterings, diagonals, and bronzed cloths, etc., etc., imported direct from the manufacturers, they are in every respect equal to the best bespoke goods, and are superior in cut, style, and finish to any Melbourne sloop made goods. They are all marked at the net wholesale prices for cash only. A magnificent stock of men's and boys' ulsters, fashionably made from good material, and can be recommended for sound workman-

COMMERCIAL.

BALLARAT WHOLESALE PRODUCE MARKET.

There was a fair market on Thursday. We quote as follows—Barley—English, 5s 3d; Cape barley, 4s 6d; wheat, 6s 7d; oats, 3s 10d to 4s; sheaves, 1s 10s to 1s 15s; mangel hay, 1s 6s to 1s 10s; potatoes, 1s 15s; straw, 50s to 55s; peas, 4s to 4s 6d; bran, 1s 8d; pollard, 1s 8d; bonedust, 1s 10s; flour, 1s 14s to 1s 6d.

ARARAT PRODUCE MARKET.

Business in the produce market has been confined during the week past to a limited number of transactions. Very few lots of wheat have come in and we have only heard of the disposal of one or two small parcels at 6s 2d to 6s 4d per bushel, bags returned. Today no sales have taken place that we are aware of and the quotation must therefore be regarded as a nominal one. The few holders who have wheat on their hands do not push business and there seems very little likelihood of a decline taking place. Flour is only being purchased for the supply of immediate wants and the tone of the market is very steady. At Horsham a decline of a penny has taken place in wheat during the week, 6s 3d being the quotation on Saturday. At Donald the price has receded to 6s 2d per bushel, but at St. Arnaud 6s 4d still obtains. The Avoca price is 6s 4d to 6s 5d for wheat—an easier rate than that prevailing last week—and 1s 14 to 1s 14 3/4 for flour. In this market there is an improvement in oats and feed oats are worth 3s 8d to 3s 9d per bushel, at which figures several parcels have moved off. The inquiry for seed lots has now ceased. Bran and pollard are still in good demand and are firm at late rates, and Cape barley sells freely at 4s per bushel. Since the news commenced to spring up the demand for hay and chaff has fallen off considerably, but values so far remain unaltered. Hay is, however, being more readily carted in now that farmers are finishing the work of seeding. One or two lots of Warrnambool potatoes have come in during the week and realised 1s 5 per ton. Fresh and potted butter are still very scarce and readily fetch the prices quoted, eggs and cheese are in short supply. We quote—Wheat, 6s 4d, bags returned; oats, 3s to 3s 8d; pollard, 1s 7d; bran, 1s 7d; Cape barley, 4s; flour, 1s 14 1/2 to 1s 14 3/4; Ballarat, 1s 10s; fresh butter, 1s 10d; potted butter, 1s 7d; hams, 11d; bacon, 8d; cheese, 9d to 10d; eggs, 1s 6d; hay, sheaves, 50s to 100s; hay, trussed, 1s 10s; straw, 50s; chaff, 5s 6d; onions, 6s; carrots, 4s 6d; peas, 4s 6d; English barley, 4s 6d; rye, 5s 6d.—Advertiser.

GEELONG WOOL AND STATION PRODUCE REPORT.

Tuesday. MESSRS. GEORGE HAGUE AND CO. report.—Wool.—We submitted a fair catalogue today of local and country scoured, and oddments of greasy, and made a fair clearance. Sheepskins.—We cleared out as follows:—Butcher's fresh skins, 38d to 50d each; superior and large and well-grown ditto, to 50d; country and station skins, 24d to 42d, and 2d to 5d per pound; lambskins, 3d to 4d. Hides.—We cannot repeat the slight improvement this week, and see no immediate prospect of a change for the better. Biddings today were extremely languid, and sales very hard to make. Tallow.—We have to report a lively demand at improving prices, superior beef and mutton in shipping order being in special request.

MESSRS. GEORGE SINNOT AND CO. report.

—Wool.—We have placed several parcels of scoured wools in our own market during the week, at satisfactory rates, and quote:—Crossbreds, from 10d to 12 1/2d; merinos 15 1/2d to 16 1/2d; greasy pieces from 4d to 6d. Sheepskins.—A good supply came to hand, and the trade was unusually well represented. Although we made a splendid sale we can scarcely quote prices as high as we had anticipated. Hides.—The demand for good prime parcels still continues brisk, and we experience no difficulty in placing all lots of this description. Other sorts are much neglected, and we find a difficulty in placing them at very low rates. Tallow.—A good enquiry still exists for this article, and the supply is scarcely equal to the demand.

A FORGER AND HIS DUPES.

A queer story was told by a witness in a forgery case at the Central Criminal Court on Thursday morning. A young man named George Clark, who was on his trial, was sworn to have terrorised a girl named Caroline Fuller, in order to make her cash a forged cheque. After he had written out the cheque he, according to her evidence, told her to go and turn it in to account. She refused. He said he would screw her neck. She became frightened, and listened to his proposal. He then directed her to tell some confiding tradesman that the cheque had been given in payment for wages to her husband by Mr. Ford, a timber merchant, whose name appeared on the document. The girl, accompanied by the prisoner went to a draper's shop, outside of which Clark waited for the booty which his dupe was to bring to him. She, however, told the draper frankly that the cheque was a fraud, and asked him to let her escape the prisoner's clutches by going out the back door. Another singular account was given by prisoner's stepmother, a young woman named Elizabeth Russell, who acknowledged that she was commissioned by prisoner to cash another valueless cheque, and that she tried to do so at a draper's and two chemists' shops in Hotham.

If the evidence be true, prisoner in all his frauds used female acquaintances to screen himself, and while his paramour pleaded guilty to uttering the cheques, he seeks to go scot free. The Crown prosecutor stigmatised his conduct as being mean and cowardly.—"Mail."

How to ferret out the perpetration of a tick in substituting any other Schnapps for UDOPILO WOLFE'S SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS, will require very little inhibition. Just let one try the genuine invigorant; and, familiar with its taste, they will soon discover the difference. It is impossible to give to that common gin that delicate smell, that fragrant touch, that aromatic, soft, and velvety taste that constitute the chief elements of this tonic-cordial.

THE Riponshire Advocate. Published every Saturday Morning.

SATURDAY, JUNE 17, 1882.

THERE is a saying that "out of evil cometh good," and its truth has to a large extent been verified by the proceedings that have taken place in the Legislature of the colony, and in some of the principal centres of population, over the miserable and egregious mistake made by five of our members of Parliament in signing an address that, to say the least of it, breathed the spirit of hostility and rebellion to those links which bind the British Empire together. An ingenious but altogether disingenuous defence of the address in question was published in last week's "Advocate," but if words are really to be taken in their general meaning and acceptation, no amount of ingenuity can cloze over a document which was full from one end to the other of statements and suggestions of a treasonable coloring. But out of evil it is said that good comes, and we may very well take the application of the lesson in the present instance, because all that has taken place during the past few days indubitably shows that the majority of the people in the colony are true to the backbone and quick in resenting any impeachment of their loyalty, and prompt to disavow any connection with those who are loyal with their lips, but disloyal with their hearts. Some people appear to think that Parliament did not go far enough with the signatories of the "Grattan Address," but as a matter of fact we think it is as pretty well could go, and we think it would have been altogether a huge mistake to have gone to very severe measures in dealing with the members who signed the document. To have attempted to expel them would have probably led to their being looked upon and extolled as martyrs, and we think that it is altogether a subject for congratulation that extremes have been avoided. As it is now, Parliament has purged itself of the suspicion of holding any sympathy with the matter of the address in question, and has certainly read a sharp lesson to those who were so foolish to sign it. But there is yet another tribunal behind the Throne, and that is the people. By-and-by these offending members will probably be seeking re-election, and their constituents can then estimate whether their stewardship is of that faithful character which would render it desirable that they should assist in legislating for the country. There is another matter in connection with this subject, which, we think, would occur to most thoughtful minds, and that is, the complete and utter failure of supposing that such addresses would help forward the cause which all these professing friends of Ireland say they wish to further. It appears to us now that many things are probable with regard to that country that even a little time back seemed out of the pale of possibility, but we are certain that addresses or speeches breathing the tone of defiance and the wish of dismemberment are not the factors to help those probable things forward; but that such are factors, and lively ones too, in encouraging and promoting that awful state of things which distracts the country now, in which murder stalks red-handed through the land, and the law powerless to stay it. As a meeting of the Grattan Centenary committee held in Melbourne a few evenings since, the following resolution (amongst others) was arrived at, "That this committee, though deeply regretting the commission of outrages in Ireland, was not called upon to express any opinion on the subject, since they were addressing the people of Ireland as a body, who are neither identified with the outrages nor responsible for them." We fancy that this is terribly bad logic. If the people of Ireland are not identified with the terrible things that are going on there, who is? We should imagine that it was possible for the people to purge themselves of the stigma that must inevitably rest upon them while these undetected murders and outrages are being so frequently committed if they only went the right way to work about it, and we are sure that the sooner they do this the sooner will they attain some of those rights and privileges to which they assert a claim.

Numerous complaints have reached us of the scarcity of mining timber in the Beaufort ranges and at Mount Cole, the demand being far ahead of the supply. The men employed in cutting the timber are deterred from cutting down any timber of less diameter than 18in. near the ground in the Mount Cole State Forest, notwithstanding that there is enough and to spare of the size required. If the size was lowered to 12in. near the ground, there would be a good supply obtainable, and there would be less timber wasted.

At a meeting of the committee of St. John's Church, held last evening, it was resolved to hold a farewell tea on the 29th instant, on the occasion of the Rev. C. Harris leaving Beaufort for Smythdale. From Mr. H. P. Henningsen, the local agent, we have received a copy of the first issue of a new paper, published in Melbourne, entitled "The Literary News." The introductory notice states that the object of the paper will be to keep "the reader acquainted with the latest best productions in literature, science, and art." It consists of sixteen pages, is nicely printed, and is altogether a very cheap paper.

We have received the current number of the "Sketcher," which contains a number of interesting engravings. The following are the subjects of the principal sketches:—The wrecks at Timaru, New Zealand; the lifeboat rescuing the crew; the Swiss village fête, Geelong; sketches on the overhead route from Sydney to Melbourne; winter fashions; bicycling tournament at the Exhibition building; unveiling Batman's monument; sketches at the May meeting, Adelaide. Copies may be obtained from Mr. Henningsen, the local agent.

The current number of the "Illustrated Australian News," just issued, is a good number. The frontispiece is occupied by a sketch of the torchlight procession in connection with the fire brigades' demonstration. Sketches in connection with the Batman monument are also given, with portraits of Batman and his grandson. A full page is devoted to some very lifelike and realistic sketches entitled "The selector at home." Sketches of the recent dynamite explosion at South Yarra, wrecks at Timaru, N.Z., and others of a less interesting nature go to make up a "first-class" paper. Mr. Henningsen is the local agent, from whom copies may be obtained.

GENERAL NEWS.

The English mails will be despatched from Melbourne on Tuesday next, 20th June. The mails will close at the Beaufort Post Office on Monday, 19th inst., for ordinary letters and newspapers at 5 p.m., and this day, at 3 p.m., for money orders and registered letters. Attention is drawn to the regulations that letters and newspapers for transmission via Brisbane must be so endorsed, and must bear the full rates of postage, viz.: letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, will be charged 6d.; every additional half an ounce or portion thereof, 6d.; newspapers, 1d. each; packet not exceeding an ounce, 1d.; two ounces, 2d.; four ounces or portion thereof, 4d.

By cablegram once or twice a week intelligence comes to hand of further outrages in Ireland. The last wires state that a shocking outrage has been committed. Three farmers had been fired upon. One was killed, and the other two were shot in the legs, and seriously injured. Also that Mr. Bourke, a large land owner, in Galway, was shot dead whilst out riding, and a dragoon, who was in his company, was also shot and killed. A man named O'Donnell, employed on the railway line a few miles from Armidale, was blown to atoms by an explosion of dynamite. He was trying the material before the fire when the explosion occurred. His mate was blown down a cutting 40ft. deep.

Does anybody know that there is a county in this colony which only contains four inhabitants? We believe that this is one of the facts which is not generally known, and yet it is a fact that has been stated on authority, and is so plain that those who run my head the statement if they happen to get hold of the map in which it appears. The county in question is called Weeah; it adjoins another county to the north, called Milley, which has 167 inhabitants; and is bordered on the east by Kararakook, whose total population amounts to 134, of whom 39 are females. The three counties named appear to be cheerful places. They comprise an area of some 10,000 miles or so, and the total population is 305 persons, of whom 104 are females. They contain a great deal of the mallee country, and we find cheerful entries on the map of "sand hills," "sandy desert with malhe," and "dense scrubs of eucaalyptus dumosa."

The Colonies and India, in recommending the cultivation of the fig in some of our colonial possessions, points out that "Plantations have already been made in certain districts in Australia, but in all parts of that continent there is abundant opportunity for the extensive cultivation of the tree if only for the sake of its beautiful foliage in the treeless wastes in some portions of the interior. Of all the numerous varieties of figs scattered over the tropical and temperate zones, there is none more easily cultivated, none more profitable in appearance, and none more palatable and nutritious, and the enormous demand that exists for them is shown by the fact that the annual imports into Great Britain, chiefly from Southern Europe and the Levant, amount to over a thousand tons, while the United States import half a million dollars' worth yearly. According to the "New York Sun," in Georgia, where the fig bears two crops an ordinary tree six or seven years old, will produce from five to six bushels annually, while twice or thrice that quantity may be expected from large old trees. There are trees in Eastern Florida that may be trusted to yield from twenty to thirty bushels of figs a year. In Alabama it is considered the most prolific of all fruit trees; and from Texas it is reported that the fruit succeeds perfectly all over the state. The tree is more hardy than is generally supposed, and if it will grow so well in tropical countries, and in the west Indies, in Fiji, throughout Australia, and the greater part of New Zealand, in South Africa, in India—in fact almost throughout our colonies and Indian Empire, figs ought to be a staple product. The case with which the fruit is dried and packed is an important point in its favor."

The Railway Department notify that the issue of tickets at Friday excursion fares will be discontinued on and after 1st July. A football match has been arranged between the local club and twenty from the Rising Star Club, Stawell, to take place on Saturday next, 24th instant. The local players are requested to turn up this afternoon for practice. The reward offered by the Shire Council of Ripon for the destruction of "dipsticks" on the Beaufort reserve appears to have had a good effect, as these birds are very scarce now in that locality. Mining matters generally are improving in the Beaufort district. The yield at the New Discovery is expected to reach 100oz. for the week; while good returns are anticipated at the Waterloo and Hobart Pasha. At the New Victoria the full complement of men (sixty) are at work, and very satisfactory progress is being made by the new tribute party.

A fanatical outbreak has occurred at Alexandria, in which the European residents were attacked, and 67 persons were killed. The British Consul was shot at, and severely injured. One of the engineers of H.M.S. Superb, who was walking quietly in the street, was attacked by the mob and killed. The rioting lasted for five hours, the police remaining supine. The bodies of two prematurely born infants were found in a rubbish heap at Sandridge, on Sunday night.

BEAUFORT FIRE BRIGADE.

The quarterly general meeting of the members of the above brigade was held at the brigade room on Monday, 5th instant. Captain Barnes in the chair. The principal business of the meeting was the nomination of officers for the ensuing twelve months, when the following nominations were received:—Captain—R. Barnes and W. G. Stevens. Lieutenant—H. Stuart and E. R. Smith. Hose Officer—E. S. Baker, E. R. Smith, and C. Woods. Apparatus Officer—W. Driver and E. R. Smith. Treasurer—E. Carter, W. G. Stevens, and T. Hosking. Secretary—W. G. Stevens and T. Hosking. Assistant secretary—R. Jackson. Captain Barnes thanked the members of the brigade for the courtesy shown him in Melbourne at the late demonstration, and also expressed satisfaction at the manner they acquitted themselves at the several competitions. A special vote of thanks was accorded Brigadier C. Woods for the able manner in which he ran in the Ladder Race, and it was resolved to acknowledge his performance in a more substantial manner at some future date. Robert Sinclair was elected an active member of the brigade. Messrs. J. Jackson and J. B. Humphreys were appointed auditors. It was resolved to hold a social gathering of the members of the brigade in the Societies' Hall on the second Tuesday in July, and a committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements. The meeting was then brought to a close.

EMANUELS REEF QUARTZ MINING COMPANY.

The first general meeting of shareholders in the above-named company was held on Thursday evening, at the Golden Age Hotel. There was a good attendance of shareholders, and Mr. J. Wortherpoon was voted to the chair. The following gentlemen were appointed a committee of management for the first six months:—Messrs. J. Wortherpoon, J. W. Harris, F. Cavanagh, H. H. Jackson, and D. G. Stewart. Mr. John Humphreys was appointed legal manager. The committee were empowered to make such calls as considered requisite, and it was resolved that a call of £1 per promoter's share be made payable on the 1st July. The committee decided to visit the reefs of the company's lease on the following day, and make all necessary arrangements for commencing work on Monday next. The meeting was then brought to a close by a vote of thanks to the chair.

NATIONAL PREJUDICES.

To the Editor of the Riponshire Advocate. Sir,—I thoroughly agree with the observations of "Leitidarian" published in your issue of the 10th inst. in regard to that organ of treason and sedition, the "Advocate," for I can, of my own knowledge, state that the evil influence of that journal on the minds of a section of our compatriots is most deplorable. This is not surprising so far as regards our immigrant population; but when the native born, who form so large a portion of it, and who have to a great extent escaped the suspicious and self-seeking education of numbers of their parents, have, week after week, their minds poisoned by such teaching, surely it is high time that steps were taken to provide an antidote. All parents not trampled under the hoof of an intolerant sectarian should agree with Mr. Deakin, who, referring to the satisfaction expressed by one of his fellow M.P.'s that he was educating his children as if they were members of another nationality altogether, says—"We do not want them to be taught that Ireland was the only wronged country. As a young Victorian he hoped that if social evils were to be continued it would be away from our own shores, and instead we should be a united nation." There has been far too much giving way to the prejudices of a small but ungrateful section of the community. The exclusion of the teaching of history from the State schools is an instance. It is not desirable that everyone should be enabled to distinguish between the authentic and the fabulous. In conclusion, I must express my disgust that we have the unenviable notoriety of being represented in Parliament by one of the "disreputable five" who, no doubt, is in the service of the "Advocate." At the same time I entertain the hope that we shall not base very much longer.

THE BRICK DISPUTE.

To the Editor of the Riponshire Advocate. Sir,—Having seen a letter in your last issue signed by Mr. G. Ison, in which he emphatically denies over having complained of the alleged nuisance opposite his premises, I can only state, and everyone in the Council chamber at the time must say the same, that the President named Mr. Ison. I am fully convinced that Mr. Ison never did complain, nor do I believe that the President gave the order for the removal of the bricks. If such had been the case I should think he would have also ordered the removal of the butchers' carts which at present block up the verandah at night in Neil street, which, all must admit, is the principal thoroughfare in Beaufort. But not only carts obstruct the footpaths. In one place the footpath is fenced off, and I would ask if it is right to have an open drain, 4 feet wide and 3 feet deep, taking up the footpath in the main street, as is the case at present near Michael's Family Hotel. What is sauce for the goose should be sauce for the gander. Yours etc., H. P. HENNINGSEN. Beaufort, 16th June, 1882.

THE POLITICAL CRISIS.

Victoria has once more entered upon a political crisis. A large amount of speculation was indulged in on Thursday regarding the possible outcome of the issue raised by Mr. Francis in the Legislative Assembly on Wednesday. Ministers sat in Cabinet council for several hours. They also conferred with supporters who waited upon them at the Treasury. The decision arrived at by the Government was to treat the motion as one of want of confidence, and their reasons for doing so were afterwards stated by Sir Bryan O'Loughlin to the Legislative Assembly. In their view the motion must be accepted as hostile, because if carried it would supersede the order of the day for going into Committee of Supply. Two gatherings of the Opposition party took place at the House of Parliament. The mid-day meeting was attended by 92 members. Mr. Berry, in forecasting events, indicated a coalition with the Ministerial Corner as probable, and expressed his readiness to come to fair terms with the party led by Mr. Francis should the carrying of the motion involve the resignation of the Government or an appeal to the country. It was agreed that Mr. Berry alone should act in the name of the Opposition, and amongst the gentlemen who gave in their adhesion to his leadership was Mr. Munro. The second gathering took place shortly before the House met, when members collected as usual in the Opposition room for the purpose of talking over the probable course of the afternoon's events. It was stated that no communications had passed between leading members of the Constitutional party and Mr. Berry or his colleagues. No meeting of the Ministerial Corner was held, but there was a large muster when the House met.

All was excitement in the Assembly on Thursday. It was known that a Cabinet meeting had been held in the morning to consider the motion tabled by Mr. Francis, and also that Mr. Berry had met his supporters in caucus for the same purpose. The rumors in circulation were of the most sensational type, but they rested most of them on very slight foundation. At half past 4 o'clock members trooped into the Chamber in unusual numbers, and Sir Bryan O'Loughlin rose before they could take their seats. The Premier announced that the decision of the Government was to treat the Francis motion as a vote of want of confidence. Indeed, he said Ministers had no option, because, if there had been a friendly intention to the Government, action could have been taken by negotiating the proposed remissions in committee instead of proceeding by direct motion. Sir Bryan O'Loughlin went on to state the offers which he had made to Mr. Francis prior to the table of the amendment, viz., to postpone the reduction of the postal rates for six months and to keep on a duty of 5d. per lb. on tea, as a registration fee. The revenue for June was likely to be £30,000 in excess of the Government estimate. Altogether the surplus at the end of the next financial year would be £112,000 instead of the £93,000 first mentioned. The Premier concluded by stating that as the Assembly might be taken by surprise by the attitude of the Government, he would move the adjournment of the House until Tuesday next. The motion appeared to take hon. members by surprise, and it was put and carried without anyone rising to speak. Mr. Francis was not present in the Chamber.

PARLIAMENTARY ITEMS.

(From the "Argus") The adjournment of the House was moved on Wednesday by Mr. Berry, to bring under notice the opinion given by the Attorney-General that licensees under the Land Act—as distinguished from licensees—are not entitled to the franchise for the reformed Council under the £25 rating-penny clause. Mr. Berry urged that the Government should bring in a bill to amend the Reform Bill in this particular, and he was supported with warmth by a large number of the members about him. Sir Bryan O'Loughlin declined, however, to reopen the reform question. The Reform Act he says was passed by the Berry Government, with its eyes open, as a compromise with the Council, and it is useless for him to ask the Council to disturb the arrangement. The Premier complained with warmth that the "Opposition" was trying to make a point upon him. He believes that it is the intention of the Opposition to denounce him from the platform for refusing the franchise to licensees, whereas, in his opinion, the licensees ought to have votes, but his hands are held by the terms Mr. Berry chose to make with the Upper House. The word "dissolution" was mentioned, and direct Ministerial benches, members on both sides manifesting a readiness for an appeal. A charge of obstruction brought by Sir Bryan O'Loughlin was similarly received. Major Smith, replying to it, taunted the Premier with having practised obstruction himself in 1880, and with "roaring and bellowing from the Corner, so that he could be heard half-way down Bourke-street." Mr. Kerford and Mr. Wrixon were both against Sir Bryan O'Loughlin in his belief that the Council would refuse to admit the licensees, and the member for Portland pointed out that the House has the matter in its own hands, inasmuch as a validating bill in connection with the Reform Act is about to be dealt with, and members can introduce such clauses as they please. This suggestion brought the discussion to a termination. The resumption of the debate on the Budget was awaited with great interest in the Legislative Assembly on Wednesday on account of its becoming known soon after the refreshment hour that Mr. Francis intended to submit a resolution disapproving of the remissions proposed by the Government. This action was decided upon by Mr. Francis after consultation with political friends. There was a moderate attendance of members within the Chamber whilst the tramway question was under consideration, but elsewhere considerable excitement prevailed, and as soon as the time for considering private business had expired, the House became crowded. Mr. Francis' opening remarks were listened to on all sides with deep attention. He brought forward the resolution as an amendment to the motion for going into committee of supply. Its terms were the following:—"In view of the improbability of any considerable surplus being reached, as estimated by the Treasurer, and pending the report of the Royal commission now investigating the working of the tariff, it is, in the opinion of this House, inconvenient and undesirable to make the remissions proposed by the Government." By Opposition members the resolution was joyfully welcomed as a motion of want of confidence. At the outset, Mr. Francis requested the House and the Government to understand that he submitted it in no such spirit. On the contrary, he wished the Government to remain in office, whatever might be the issue of the debate. In England, Ministers were expected to withdraw their Budget proposals, when they were not acceptable to Parliament, without losing their credit in the House or the country.

The reasons advanced by Mr. Francis for requesting the Government to reconsider their Budget scheme were that they had over-estimated the revenue for the coming year, and if they remitted duties prematurely, it was probable that there would be a falling off in the total receipts. In view of the fact that we must shortly place two large loan schemes on the London market, Mr. Francis insisted that the greatest caution was necessary. If the revenue did not come up to the estimates, it would be assumed in London that our resources were falling, and the English public would not wait to enquire whether we had reduced taxation. At the conclusion of Mr. Francis's speech, which occupied nearly an hour and a half in delivery, Sir Brian O'Leighen moved the adjournment of the debate and the motion was at once agreed to.

TWO BOYS BURIED ALIVE.

A very singular and fatal accident occurred about 9 o'clock on Thursday evening at Sandridge. It seems that for the last few days some boys have been in the habit of meeting on the banks of the Sandridge lagoon. Beyond the Graham-street bridge, near the gasworks, on the banks of the lagoon, there is a small sandhill, the top of which is partially covered with grass. Into this hill the boys had burrowed about 6ft., and they were in the habit of meeting there, lighting a fire, and feasting. Last evening four of the boys, named respectively Richard B. M'Conkey, William Murray, Patrick M'Lean, and James Hope, met as usual, and had a fire burning in the burrow. They had been there some little time, when the bank suddenly gave way. About two tons weight of sand fell and buried them. Hope was nearest the entrance and he managed to work his way out, when he instantly gave the alarm. A man named Page, who was returning from his work at the gasworks, hearing the boy's screams, hurried to the spot, and learning what had happened instantly set to work and succeeded in pulling out the boy M'Lean, who, although partially unconscious, revived when exposed to the fresh air. Page continued at work, and in a few minutes dragged out M'Conkey's dead body, which he carried to the residence of the boy's parents, off Dew-street. At that time it was not known that a fourth boy had been left in the sand, and this fact was not ascertained until Senior-constable Bergin went to M'Conkey's house to inquire after him, and ascertain the particulars of the accident. It was then discovered that the boy Murray was missing, and the constable with some other men immediately proceeded to the sandhill and dug out the body. Dr. Smythe was sent for, but his services were of no avail, as both boys were dead. All the boys live in the same locality, and the sudden and awful death which has overtaken M'Conkey, who was 14 years of age, and Murray, 13, has created a great sensation in the neighborhood. An inquest on the bodies will probably be held to-day.—"Argus."

A MARRIAGE IN HIGH LIFE.

A marriage is arranged between the Duke of Westminster, K.G., and the Honorable Katherine Caroline Cavendish, the third daughter of Lord and Lady Chesham. Miss Cavendish is a very pretty and charming young lady, who is just over 24 years of age. The Duke, on the other hand, is over 57 years of age, and is in fact 32 years and two months older than his bride. He has been a widower over 15 months. What makes this marriage more remarkable is that, although there is no blood relationship whatever between the bride and the bridegroom, there is already between them a connection by marriage. Miss Cavendish's eldest brother Captain Cavendish, married the Duke's daughter, Lady Beatrice Grosvenor, upwards of four years ago; and has a son, Charles William Hugh, by her, now three years and a half old. Captain Cavendish, therefore, became the brother-in-law of his father-in-law; his son, Charles William Hugh, will become the nephew of his own grandfather, and any son born of the duke's second marriage will be at once the brother and the nephew of Lady Beatrice Cavendish. The duke will become the uncle of his grandson, and the brother-in-law of his own daughter, and thus in sense he will be his own son.—"European Mail."

The following is the recommendation given lately by a lady to a departing servant:—"The bearer has been in my house a year minus eleven months. During this time she has shown herself diligent—at the house door; frugal—in work; mindful—of herself; prompt—in excuses; friendly—towards man; faithful—to her lovers; and honest—when everything had vanished."

A summons has been issued against a young woman named Morinda Eliver, a trainee, who bribed a youth in the Government printing office to obtain examination papers. The charge is inciting to commit larceny.

Mr. Murray, the geologist, reports that there are two different seams of coal at Cape Patterson which with economy could be profitably worked.

A new comet has been discovered. It may be looked for immediately after sunset in a W.N.W. direction.

Important Discovery.

GREEN BANK ALKALI CO.'S PATENT POWDERED DOUBLE REFINED 98 per cent. CAUSTIC SODA. Makes the Finest Hard Soap absolutely without Boiling!

No special apparatus required. By simply mixing with tallow refuse grease, or oil, any quantity of soap can be made at a time, from ten pounds in a few minutes to ten tons in a few hours. Quality superior, and cost much less than any boiled soap; when refuse grease or oil can be obtained the best hard soap can be made, costing only a half-penny a pound.

This article is the most highly concentrated alkali obtainable. For all washing, scouring, and cleaning purposes each pound of our patent Double Refined Soda Powder is equal to ten pounds of ordinary soda crystals, thus effecting a great saving of freight and carriage to distant countries. Nothing better for cleaning or removing old paint.

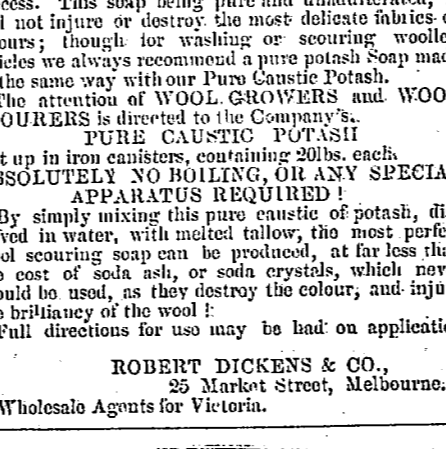

The following very simple directions for producing the best hard Soap will always succeed if exactly followed.—Three parts of the above GREEN BANK PATENT DOUBLE REFINED 98 PER CENT. CAUSTIC SODA POWDER, put in any can or jar with FORTY-FIVE pounds (4½ gallons) of water; stir the mixture until it is quite cold. Weigh out and melt in a boiler the quantity of tallow, grease, or oil (except mineral oil). If grease or tallow is used it is slowly poured into the liquid, and if mineral oil is used it is poured into the liquid in a small stream continuously, at the same time stirring with a flat wooden stirrer about three inches broad; continue gently stirring, without stopping, until the lye and grease are thoroughly combined, and the mixture has become thick and honey. Do not stir too long; or the mixture will separate itself again; the time required varies with the weather and the kind of grease or oil used. Water is added to the mixture until it is quite cold. When the mixture is completed pour off the liquid soap into any old square box for a month, sufficiently large to hold it, previously draining the sides with water so as to prevent the soap from sticking. Wrap it up in blankets or sheep skins; or, better still, put it in a warm place until the next day it is then the box will contain a block of one hundred and thirty pounds of FINE LARD WHITE SOAP, which can afterwards be cut up with a wire. Remember the chief points in the above directions, which must be exactly followed. The lye must be allowed to cool. If melted tallow or grease is used, it must be only just warm to the hand. Lye must be thoroughly stirred into the melted grease or oil; not melted grease into the lye. The exact weights given of Double Refined Powdered Caustic Soda and tallow or oil must be taken. If tallow or grease is not clean, or contains any salt, it must be "rendered" previous to use; any salt present spoils the whole operation entirely, but dissolving a little grease or tallow in just as good for this purpose.

THE COMMON CAUSTIC SODA SOLD IN DRUMS WILL NOT MAKE SOAP AT ALL BY THE ABOVE DIRECTIONS. The Soap made in this way is an absolutely pure unadulterated soap, far superior in quality to any boiled soap, and much cheaper. It contains all the virtues originally contained in the grease used, a valuable ingredient all lost when the soap is made by the old-fashioned boiled process. This soap being pure and unadulterated, it will not injure or destroy the most delicate fabrics or colours; though for washing or scouring woollen articles we always recommend a pure Potash Soap made in the same way with our Pure Caustic Potash.

The attention of WOOL GROWERS and WOOL SCOURERS is directed to the Company's PURE CAUSTIC POTASH put up in iron casks, containing 20 lbs. each. ABSOLUTELY NO HOLLING, OR ANY SPECIAL DIRECTIONS.

By simply mixing this pure caustic of potash, dissolved in water, with melted tallow, the most perfect wool scouring soap can be produced, at far less than the cost of soda being pure and unadulterated, which never should be used, as they destroy the colour, and injure the brilliancy of the wool!

All directions for use may be had on application to ROBERT DICKENS & CO., Wholesale Agents for Victoria.

TRIUMPH OF THE AGE
We respectfully ask the public not to be misled by the puff of our "Rival of former years."

The number of Sewing Machines imported (like other goods) is no criterion of the number sold, the evidence of which lies in the fact that Melbourne is overstocked with the importations of 1874.

Reasons why the
"WHEELER AND WILSON"
Sewing Machine

Is far superior to the "Singer."
The W. and W. will do more work, and do it better.
The W. and W. is much more durable. It will last a lifetime, and run for years without repair.
The W. and W. is easier to work than the Singer.
The W. and W. is not so liable to get out of order.

The W. and W. has no cog wheels to wear away and break, as a Singer.
The W. and W. has no heavy machinery to tire and weary the feet, as the Singer.
The W. and W. is more simple in action.
The W. and W. has less wear and tear.
The W. and W. is better finished.
The W. and W. has been awarded more prizes.

If any further proof is required of the superiority of the Wheeler and Wilson, it is found in the fact that Singer's agent has never accepted our challenge to have the machines publicly tested.

We warrant every genuine W. and W. machine to give entire satisfaction.

Under the distinguished patronage of His Majesty the King of Italy, at Rome.

Dr. Cruikshank, Health Officer for the City of Sandhurst, certifies to the extract being the most honest remedy for external inflammation, bronchitis, diphtheria, affections of the lungs, chest, all pains of rheumatic nature, neuralgia, etc., all swellings, bruises, sprains, wounds, disorders of the bowels, diarrhoea, &c.

PROFESSOR DR. MOSSLER, at the University of Greifswalde, Germany, reports astonishing cures of Diphtheria, Lung and Throat Diseases by inhaling the vapors of SANDER and SON'S EUCALYPTI EXTRACT.

Epitome of declaration made before M. Cohen, Esq., J.P., at Sandhurst, October, 1877.—The son of Mr. Raabe was hurt with an axe on the knee. After nine weeks' medical treatment it was deemed necessary by Dr. Macgillivray to amputate the injured limb. At that juncture the extract was applied, and the wound speedily cured without amputation.

The daughter of Mr. Junghenn, suffering from disease of the bone, as pronounced by Drs. Atkinson and Boyd, was cured just as speedily. Cures of whooping cough, very severe cold, group, bronchitis, diphtheria, catarrh, pains in the head (neuralgia), inflammation of the eyes, and that of a severely injured foot; others of bad swellings of the arm with enormous swelling of severe bruises and a sprained ankle, (H. Brown), in which case eight months' medical advice was of no avail, are reported by the "Donald Times," "Newcastle Morning Herald," "Cooktown Courier," "York's Peninsula Advertiser," and others.

The extract regulates the action of the kidneys, cures dysentery and diarrhoea, and is the surest curative agent and preventative of contagion in scarlet, typhoid, and intermittent fever. For particulars see testimonials accompanying each bottle.

Sold at 1s. 6d. and 2s. 6d. per vial.

CAUTION.
Do not confound SANDER and SON'S EUCALYPTI EXTRACT with the common Eucalypti Oil, a resinous fluid equal to turpentine, without the healing vapors of our Extract, and positively injurious in most cases for which our preparation is highly recommended; therefore ask for SANDER and SON'S EUCALYPTI EXTRACT, and see that you get it. The genuine article is made up in vials bearing our trade mark and signature, and for greater safety each vial is secured by an outside green band, with our signature and address—

GREAT SUCCESS

OF THE

WHOLESALE

FAMILY CASH TRADE,

As adopted by

A. CRAWFORD,

MITCHELL'S BUILDINGS, STURT STREET, BALLARAT.

The immense increase of business since the adoption of the wholesale family cash trade is proof palpable that the public recognise the benefits and advantages of a large establishment conducted on purely cash principles at wholesale prices. That the increase has been gained by genuine merit there can be no question of doubt. It has been again and again hundreds of times over freely acknowledged by even those who were inclined to think, and who eloquently expressed their opinion, that it was but a trade ruse. The system is, however, genuine, and is now firmly established. Direct shipments of goods are being sent forward from Great Britain regularly by sailing and steam ships. The following is a list of vessels arrived, or on the way out, containing large shipments of new goods, purchased direct from the home manufacturers:—Loch Tarrant, Orient, Lusitania, Cotopaxi, Clifton, Loch Lomond, Ravenscroft, Lady Cairns, Carthage, Sorrento, Rohilla, Amalfi, etc., etc. Regular supplies of all kinds of goods are arranged for, to come by the various lines of steamships and fast sailing vessels. The public will thus see that every effort is made to secure the very best possible value, besides to have always on hand the newest and most fashionable goods of the season, regularly and constantly.

The new goods are unexceptionally good value even at wholesale prices. Amongst the goods to be had there are some splendid lines in tweeds and ulsterings, which are without doubt the best and largest selection ever exhibited in this district. The prices range from the very lowest ever shown in Ballarat, to the best manufactured. The tweeds and ulsterings are suitable for boys' youths', and gentlemen's wear; also for maids' and ladies' ulsters, etc., etc.

THE TAILORING DEPARTMENT
Is thus of very marked importance, and deserves to be patronised very largely, the cutter in charge being a first-class practical workman, who gives universal satisfaction, a good fit, combined with stylish appearance, first-class workmanship, and artistic finish being a characteristic of the work. The tweeds, coatings, vestings, ulsterings, etc., etc., being all selected direct from the very best manufacturers in the trade, and purchased for cash on the best terms obtainable, ensures the best class of goods and the newest patterns. Gentlemen and ladies are invited to call and inspect the stock. Patterns sent by post to any part of Victoria, with directions for measurement. The low railway rates for parcels enables customers living within easy distance of a railway station to have goods conveyed very cheaply to their destination.

A Magnificent Assortment of New Brussels and Dupont's Carpets, Linoleums, Floor Cloths, Window Curtains, &c., &c. The newest and the best patterns in the trade, at wholesale prices. Customers must bear in mind that by purchasing at this establishment they save the retail profit; hence on furnishing orders very large savings can be effected in replenishing houses or furnishing new ones.

The Largest Stock of Mattings in the colony at the lowest prices ever known, even in the wholesale trade.

To Families and Householders.—The Stock of Flannels, Blankets, Sheetings, Calicoes, whiting, Table Linens, Cottons, Towelling, Linens, etc., etc., is the largest and best-selected in the colony, purchased direct from the home manufacturers, and are being sold in retail quantities at wholesale prices for cash. Blankets, in single pairs at sale prices. Flannels, calicoes, and sheetings, etc., etc., cut in whatever length they are required, at the net wholesale prices in bulk quantities, thus giving the public a Clear Advantage, or chance of Saving from 20 to 30 per cent.

By a few of the late steamships a splendid lot of new winter dress goods has just arrived, consisting of Vincyos, Costume Tweeds, Costume Cloths, Cashmeres, Costume Poplins, Serges, Silks, (black and colored), new Satins, (twilled blacks), Moire Satins (all shades for trimmings). A very superior stock of black Goods, the best value ever shown in the colony, even by the largest wholesale houses. The above goods are all marked at wholesale prices for cash only, but are cut in any lengths to suit requirements of customers.

The largest stock of Millinery, Flowers, Plumes, Feathers, Millinery Trimmings, etc., etc., in Ballarat, at Wholesale Prices for cash only. The retail profit on the above goods being about 50 per cent., customers will effect a very great saving by making their purchases at this establishment, as the usual retail profit is entirely saved.

The stock of ladies', maids', and children's ulster and jackets is, without exception, the best ever shown in any retail house in Victoria, and unsurpassed by the largest wholesale warehouses in Melbourne. These goods are all manufactured on the premises, from tweeds and ulsterings imported direct from the British manufacturer. They are, therefore, unequalled for value, being considerably lower than even ordinary wholesale rates, as all middlemen's profits are dispensed with. Shawls, pelisses, children's overalls, ladies' costumes, etc., etc., in all sizes and materials, constantly on hand, in the latest styles, trimmed and finished, equal to the best goods made to order.

GENTLEMEN'S READY-MADE DEPARTMENT.
The goods in this department are all made on the premises, from tweeds, coatings, ulsterings, diagonals, and broadcloths, etc., etc., imported direct from the manufacturers, they are in every respect equal to the best bespoke goods, and are superior in cut, style, and finish to any Melbourne shop made goods. They are all marked at the net wholesale price for cash only. A magnificent stock of men's and boys' ulsters, fashionably made from good material, and can be recommended for sound workmanship, durability, warmth, and cheapness. Being all made on the premises, the workmanship can be guaranteed, as every article is examined prior to being sent into the department. A full supply of gentlemen's shirts, ties, hosiery, hats, caps, etc., etc., at wholesale prices.

Boots and Shoes of all descriptions at wholesale prices, for cash only, special arrangements having been made with several of the largest manufacturers for regular supplies of the best makes of goods.

By the mail steamers special lines of Fancy Goods come to hand monthly, thus ensuring all the latest novelties with the greatest promptitude.

Each department is under an experienced head, who superintends all the various items pertaining to his or her department, thus giving the public an assurance that all wants will be carefully attended to, and the best value given to the public. It is only through special knowledge that this can be accomplished, therefore every department is under the charge of a competent head, having the necessary special knowledge required.

COMMERCIAL.

BALLARAT WHOLESALE PRODUCE MARKET.

There was a fair market on Thursday. We quote as follows:—Barley—English, 5s 3d; Cape barley, 4s 6d; wheat, 6s 7d; oats, 3s 10d to 4s; shaves, 1s 10s to 1s 15s; mangle hay, 1s 6s to 1s 10s; potatoes, 1s 1s; straw, 50s to 55s; peas, 4s to 4s 6d; bran, 1s 8d; pollard, 1s 8d; bonedust, 1s 10s; flour, 1s 4s 6d.

ARARAT PRODUCE MARKET.

The produce market has not developed any feature of importance during the week just closed, and there seems no reason to suppose that any striking change is imminent. A few small loads of wheat have come in, but they met an easier feeling, and though at the beginning of the week 6s 3d to 6s 4d per bushel was given, towards the close 6s 1d was the best price. From the fact that for some weeks past only small lots have come in, we are inclined to think that there are no large parcels left in growers' hands, and consequently no great fall in value is probable. The satisfactory news of the harvest prospects in America and the continent, combined with the fact that Californian wheat is being delivered in Sydney will, however, militate against any important rise. The tone of the Melbourne market is weak, and a decline of one penny has taken place in wheat during the past week. Wheat has been stationary in the Hortham market at 6s 3d, the deliveries being unimportant. No change is reported in the Avoca and Landsborough prices, which are at the former 6s 4d to 6s 5d for wheat, and 1s 4d to 1s 4s 6d for flour. At Donald 6s 2d is still the current quotation, 6s 4d being yet given at St. Arnaud. In our own market flour has been quiet, a few unimportant sales at 1s 4d to 1s 4s 6d being the only transactions reported. In oats sales have not been very brisk, 3s 9d being the prevailing figure. Very few Warrnambool potatoes have come in, those forward being readily taken up at last week's rates, 1s 5p per ton. There has, however, been a liberal delivery from Ballarat. The price at Warrnambool is 1s 10s per ton. Hay has been scarce and has strengthened 10s per ton, there being a good enquiry for shaves at 1s 10s and for trussed up to 1s 6p per ton. Dairy produce is still advancing and fresh butter is eagerly taken up at 1s 10d per pound for approved prints; potted has also improved at least a penny per pound, and there is a good demand for prime cheese at 10d. Ve quote:—Wheat, 6s 4d, best returned; oats, 3s 6d; pollard, 1s 8d; bran, 1s 7d; Cape barley, 4s 3d; flour, 1s 4d to 1s 4s 6d; Warrnambool potatoes, 1s 5d; Ballarat, 1s 10s; fresh butter, 1s 10d; potted butter, 1s 7d; hams, 11d; bacon, 5d; cheese, 9d to 10d; eggs, 1s 9d; hay, shaves, 1s 10s; hay trussed, 1s 15s to 1s 16s; straw, 50s; chaff, 5s 6d; onions, 6s; carrots, 4s; peas, 4s 6d; English barley, 4s 6d; rye, 5s 6d.—Advertiser.

THE Riponshire Advocate. Published every Saturday Morning. SATURDAY, JUNE 24, 1882.

GREAT inconvenience is caused to vehicular travellers and the public generally by the railway gates crossing Lawrence and Havlock streets, Beaufort, being closed across the street at an early hour at night. At present travellers at night are kept shouting out to waken the gatekeeper, sometimes for half-an-hour at a time, at the same time pouring down maledictions of a not very polite nature on the unfortunate gatekeeper in particular and the Railway Department in general. If the weather happens to be wet or frosty then the situation is even more harrowing to the best of tempers. It appears to us that all this bother could be remedied very easily, and without the slightest danger. Both gates are on the station side of the semaphores. On the Ballarat side of the station the semaphores is about 300 yards from the gate, while on the Ararat side the semaphores is about 80 yards from the gate, and besides there is electric communication between the stationmaster's office and the top of the bank, half-a-mile away, by means of electric bells. Surely under these circumstances there could be no danger in closing the gates across the rails during the night, to be opened by the gatekeepers when any trains are due. This is done at other railway stations, and why should the system not be adopted here? Besides being of material convenience to the public, it would be infinitely better for the gatekeepers, who, at present, at all times in the night and in all weathers, have to get up and let travellers through the gates. We hope the Railway Department will favorably consider these suggestions, and make the required alteration.

THE English people would appear to be getting tired of the "peace at price" policy. It would at least seem so by the "Argus" special cablegram which appeared in that paper on Saturday last, bearing date of June 15th (evening). The message alluded to stated that a strong feeling of indignation is being aroused in England against the Gladstone Government, owing to the manner in which they have treated the Egyptian difficulty, and it is no wonder that they are so dissatisfied since it has been discovered, after we had an opportunity of alluding to the subject, that at the late fanatical outbreak at Alexandria 250 Europeans were killed instead of between 40 and 50 as at first surmised. And now all the European population, and amongst these there are a great many English people, are leaving Cairo and Alexandria as fast as they can, the shipping available being inadequate to convey away the fugitives. The gravamen of complaint against the Gladstone Government is, no doubt, that they have dilly-dallied with this question until it is too late, when the only likely settlement is the argument of vis a vis. The procrastinating policy of the Imperial Government is the more apparent, as some three months ago Sir Samuel Baker, then whom no better authority could be had on Egyptian affairs, pointed out in letters published in the London "Times" the direction in which things were drifting, where an effete and corrupt ruler, a weak and vacillating ruler, an intriguing and ambitious Minister of War, and a disappointed and fanatical native population were elements that constituted a smouldering fire of anarchy, and revolution that a very little fanning would set into a blaze. The latest news is that the agitation among the native population is extending into the interior of the country, and the consequences may be very disastrous. The War Minister, Arabi Bey, has promised fealty to the Khedive, and to uphold his authority, but his promise may be looked upon as not worth the paper it is written on, if it has been committed to paper at all. Turkey has been called on to restore order, and assert her authority, but dependence on a broken reed might be taken as a sample of the reliance to be placed on that country. England and France placed the Khedive Tewfik Pasha, in authority, and it was their duty and advantage to maintain that authority, an easier task some little time since than it will be found to be now. England particularly had a vital interest in the matter in the preservation of the Suez Canal, and should never have let matters drift into their present position, in which it is felt that there is a possible danger of the canal being destroyed in some fanatical outbreak. Altogether the outlook is ominous, and more so

EXHUMING A CHINAMAN.

The "Pleasant Creek News" gives the following particulars of the exhumation of the remains of Kum Weng at the local cemetery. The Law Department having favourably viewed the application, the exhumation was performed on Monday afternoon under the supervision of Constable Stannage, and as the ceremony has not been before described in many colonial journals, a very brief account may not be out of place. The party who undertook the work had lighted candles and torches at the head of the grave where the remains were disclosed, and also brought with them a quantity of gin and sweet-meats. Having exposed the skeleton, each of the men took a drink of gin, after which one of their number washed his hands in the remainder of the liquor and descended into the grave. He very carefully took from the coffin first the right arm of the skeleton, then the left arm, the trunk, the right leg, and the left leg, leaving the skull until the last. These were then laid out on the surface as they had been in the grave, and a strong decoction of tea made. In this the bones were washed and carefully scraped clean, after which they were laid out and dried, and each of the members named was wrapped up in a separate parcel, new sheeting being provided for the purpose, and labelled so that no mistake could well be made. These parcels were then carefully packed in a box, and over them were scattered a number of Chinese cards, the contents of a bottle of strong scent being sprinkled over the whole.

The Commissioner of Customs has decided to license a bonded store at Ballarat. It will be situated near the Western railway station.

GENERAL NEWS.

Tuesday's "Ararat Advertiser" says:—"It would appear pretty certain that in the event of a general election, the Australian party is fully determined to do its duty to the five signatories to the 'hoop of foreign despotism' address. In the Buangor portion of Mr. Longmore's constituency the feeling is very strong, and a number of that gentleman's whilom supporters are endeavoring to bring forward a candidate who is not a self-acknowledged foreigner. The name of Mr. William Lewis, of Stoneleigh, is spoken of. Mr. Lewis is an old representative of the West Riding of the Shire of Ripon, and a sometime president, and if he is as well-known in other portions of the electorate as in the Riponshire there will be no fear of Mr. Longmore again bringing disgrace upon the Parliament of Victoria."

The name Fenian is derived from "Finian," the Irish word for the federal militia which supported the authority of the head king of Ireland, as distinguished from that of the petty kings of the provinces. A sheep drover named W. McNab was fined recently at the Maitland Police Court the sum of £2; and £4 7s. 6d. costs, for having used the public road so as to endanger life. The offence the drover had been guilty of was when camping for the night with a flock of sheep, to leave the sheep on the roadway, and to barricade them on one side by a brush fence, and on the other by a line of tents and waggons.

Writing under the heading "A Muscular Christian Era," the "Hamilton Spectator" says:—"Flags were seen flying half-mast high at Wagga Wagga after the receipt of the intelligence announcing the death of Hanlan, the champion sculler. It is about 'Lombard street to a China orange,' that no such signs of respect were shown when the deaths of Disraeli, Longfellow, Carlyle, or other intellectual giants were reported; as it is the taste of the age to respect muscles more than brains. This is plainly shown by the expense now being gone to, in order to meet the public requirements, in getting full telegrams respecting the doings of eleven young cricketers. Almost any person you meet can tell you all about Murdoch, Massie, Bonnor, and Co., and compared with the scores, the vastly more important events now occurring in Egypt are ignored. Even affairs in Ireland do not appear to create so much interest as the victories or defeat of the Australian team, and yet the present generation is apt to boast of its intelligence and of the advancement of intellectual education."

The "Warrnambool Standard" has received from Hon. J. G. Francis a cheque for £55, to be distributed amongst the local institutions.

A member of the Kapunda Council obstinately refusing to withdraw offensive language, was fined £10 by his fellow councillors. He threw down a £50-note and requested the change. Would it not have been more generous (the "Evening Mail" suggests) to have sworn up to it.

Statistics disclose the fact that to every ten children born in Wales, less than seven never reach their 20th year. The others are worn out learning to speak Welsh.

Surplus teachers of the Education Department when the Government took office were ninety-two. They have now been reduced to twenty-five.

Some of the Melbourne papers contain an advertisement of the Marquis of Sligo offering for sale his Westport property, situated near Sligo, Ireland.

The match between John Langan, of Wandsworth, and Hargreave Pearce, a New South Wales rover who accompanied Laycock from Sydney, was held on the Thames on Monday, and resulted in a victory for the English cricketer by three lengths.

The Melbourne correspondent of one of our country contemporaries, in referring to the Australian cricketers now in the old country, writes, "the feeling is gaining ground in England that the Australians are only semi-professionals, and that their impression of their personal importance is a little overstrained."

A Fenian armory was discovered at Clerkenwell, London, last week. Enormous quantities of rifles, revolvers, bayonets, and 100,000 rounds of ammunition which had been prepared for conveyance to Ireland were seized.

The proposed rents of runs throughout the colony for the first half of 1882 are published in last Friday's "Government Gazette." Objections are to be heard at the Lands Office, Melbourne, on Monday, 26th inst.

In the Kerang district they have a local industry in the shape of a Rabbit and Game Packing company. The operations are carried on at Lake Boga, woolshed, and the "Times" characterises it as the probable embryo of a large and profitable undertaking.

A reduction of rates in the transmission of telegraph messages to New Zealand is gazetted. Ten words or under (including address and signature), will now be 8s 6d; each additional word, 10d.

During the month of May the arrivals by sea in the colony of Victoria were 4,640; and the departures by the same mode of transit, 4,133.

What is now being imported into South Australia from San Francisco and New Zealand, a potent sign of the very inferior quality of the last harvest.

Holloway's Pills.—The sudden changes, frequent fogs, and prevailing dampness, sorely tempted the vital functions and conduce to ill health. The remedy for these disorders lies in some purifying medicine, like these Pills, which is competent to grapple with the mischief, at its source, and stamp it out without fretting the nerves or weakening the system. Holloway's Pills extract from the blood all noxious matters, regulate the actions of every disordered organ stimulate the liver and kidneys, and relax the bowels. In curing chest complaints, these Pills are remarkably effective, especially when aided by friction of the Ointment on its walls. The double treatment will ensure a certain, steady and beneficent progress, and sound health will soon be reestablished.

The half-yearly meeting of the Juvenile Reformatory was held on Wednesday evening, 21st June. Superintendents Allen and Chambers conducted the business. Twenty-seven members were present, and four new members were nominated. The average attendance is very good, great interest was shown in the election of officers, and a field of usefulness is opening out before us. The following were elected officers for the next six months:—P.C.R., J. Jackson; C.R., T. Wilson; D.R., C. Hosking; Sec., E. Thomas; W.S., J. Nicoll; M.S., T. Kenny; Levite, W. Shuttlewood; Guard, A. Tromp.

At the half-yearly meeting of the Progress (adult) Tent, held the same evening, two full benches were very fully attended, and the accumulated funds were reported by the secretary, to amount to the handsome sum of £375 6s. 6d. The following are the officers duly installed for the coming half-year:—P.C.R., W. Dungey; C.R., Rev. R. Allen; D.R., J. Prentice; Sec., W. Chalmers; W.S., W. R. Nicoll, jun.; M.S., G. Tromp; Levite, J. Murray; Guard, G. Thomas; Treasurer, J. Ingram; Auditors, J. Prentice and W. C. Thomas, jun.

It is about 'Lombard street to a China orange,' that no such signs of respect were shown when the deaths of Disraeli, Longfellow, Carlyle, or other intellectual giants were reported; as it is the taste of the age to respect muscles more than brains. This is plainly shown by the expense now being gone to, in order to meet the public requirements, in getting full telegrams respecting the doings of eleven young cricketers. Almost any person you meet can tell you all about Murdoch, Massie, Bonnor, and Co., and compared with the scores, the vastly more important events now occurring in Egypt are ignored. Even affairs in Ireland do not appear to create so much interest as the victories or defeat of the Australian team, and yet the present generation is apt to boast of its intelligence and of the advancement of intellectual education."

The "Warrnambool Standard" has received from Hon. J. G. Francis a cheque for £55, to be distributed amongst the local institutions.

A member of the Kapunda Council obstinately refusing to withdraw offensive language, was fined £10 by his fellow councillors. He threw down a £50-note and requested the change. Would it not have been more generous (the "Evening Mail" suggests) to have sworn up to it.

The match between John Langan, of Wandsworth, and Hargreave Pearce, a New South Wales rover who accompanied Laycock from Sydney, was held on the Thames on Monday, and resulted in a victory for the English cricketer by three lengths.

The Melbourne correspondent of one of our country contemporaries, in referring to the Australian cricketers now in the old country, writes, "the feeling is gaining ground in England that the Australians are only semi-professionals, and that their impression of their personal importance is a little overstrained."

A Fenian armory was discovered at Clerkenwell, London, last week. Enormous quantities of rifles, revolvers, bayonets, and 100,000 rounds of ammunition which had been prepared for conveyance to Ireland were seized.

The proposed rents of runs throughout the colony for the first half of 1882 are published in last Friday's "Government Gazette." Objections are to be heard at the Lands Office, Melbourne, on Monday, 26th inst.

What is now being imported into South Australia from San Francisco and New Zealand, a potent sign of the very inferior quality of the last harvest.

Holloway's Pills.—The sudden changes, frequent fogs, and prevailing dampness, sorely tempted the vital functions and conduce to ill health. The remedy for these disorders lies in some purifying medicine, like these Pills, which is competent to grapple with the mischief, at its source, and stamp it out without fretting the nerves or weakening the system. Holloway's Pills extract from the blood all noxious matters, regulate the actions of every disordered organ stimulate the liver and kidneys, and relax the bowels. In curing chest complaints, these Pills are remarkably effective, especially when aided by friction of the Ointment on its walls. The double treatment will ensure a certain, steady and beneficent progress, and sound health will soon be reestablished.

The half-yearly meeting of the Juvenile Reformatory was held on Wednesday evening, 21st June. Superintendents Allen and Chambers conducted the business. Twenty-seven members were present, and four new members were nominated. The average attendance is very good, great interest was shown in the election of officers, and a field of usefulness is opening out before us. The following were elected officers for the next six months:—P.C.R., J. Jackson; C.R., T. Wilson; D.R., C. Hosking; Sec., E. Thomas; W.S., J. Nicoll; M.S., T. Kenny; Levite, W. Shuttlewood; Guard, A. Tromp.

At the half-yearly meeting of the Progress (adult) Tent, held the same evening, two full benches were very fully attended, and the accumulated funds were reported by the secretary, to amount to the handsome sum of £375 6s. 6d. The following are the officers duly installed for the coming half-year:—P.C.R., W. Dungey; C.R., Rev. R. Allen; D.R., J. Prentice; Sec., W. Chalmers; W.S., W. R. Nicoll, jun.; M.S., G. Tromp; Levite, J. Murray; Guard, G. Thomas; Treasurer, J. Ingram; Auditors, J. Prentice and W. C. Thomas, jun.

STREET OBSTRUCTIONS.

To the Editor of the Riponshire Advocate. Sir,—Referring to Mr. Henningsen's letter, pointing out that open drains are cut in Neill street, I quite endorse his remarks. The drain in front of Ingram's allotment and adjoining Mischel's Family Hotel is simply a disgrace to the local body having the control or management of the roads, or their engineer. I know of several persons, who, in walking on the footpath between the drain and the fence, have slipped into it, while the school children are hardly ever out of it. It is quite time some little attention was given to this end of the town; but from the reports of Council meetings which I have read, the Council seem to keep aloof from this quarter, and chiefly at the engineer's instigation. Surely this little piece of engineering is not beyond his well-known skill. There is another nice little drain for people to tumble into near Mr. Reid Nicoll's office. Mr. Henningsen's remarks about spring carts under verandahs are also correct, and it is quite time the inspector of nuisances was attending to his duty in getting these obstructions removed. There is also a fence, below Mr. Urwin's, enclosing about 6 feet on the footpath, which could very well be removed. Trusting, Sir, that you will assist with your pen in trying to get the Council or their officers spurred into something like activity.

I remain, yours, etc., PEDESTRIAN.

THE GRATTAN ADDRESS.

To the Editor of the Riponshire Advocate. Sir,—Do the electors of Ripon sympathise with the "five" who signed the now historical Grattan Address, or do they coincide with their Parliamentary representative (the Hon. F. Longmore) in his scoldings and disloyal utterances? If they do not (and I for one do not) why not call a public meeting at Beaufort, the centre of the division, and express their opinions? I am only a poor man, and not gifted with any eloquence, but I have no doubt that if such a meeting were called there would be a good attendance and a most unanimous verdict against the honorable Francis.

Yours, etc., BRITISHER.

A DISCLAIMER.

To the Editor of the Riponshire Advocate. Sir,—Would you oblige by inserting the following in your next issue? There was a report here some time ago that Mr. McLeod's pantry was broken open, and some pork stolen. A later report is that McLeod sold the pork to me, and got drunk with the proceeds. I wish to say that this is an unmitigated lie, to the injury of McLeod and his family. McLeod never sold me anything in his life. He never got drunk in my house. He never will, nor any other man if I can help it.

Yours, etc., MARK BARNES.

LOCAL LANDBOARD.

As Local Land Board's was held at the Court-house, Beaufort, yesterday (Friday), before J. J. Blundell, Esq., Land Officer, when the following applications were dealt with:—

49th SECTION. Elizabeth A. Halpin, Thomas Lacey, and Henry Halpin applied for the same piece of land, 20a, in the parish of Beaufort. Henry Halpin did not appear, but was represented by his brother. After a day's evidence had been taken, the Board decided to recommend that a lease for the land be issued to Thomas J. W. G. Halpin, Beaufort, 20a.—Recommended, subject to reference to Mining Department.

G. A. Willox, Beaufort, 20a.—In the interest of the Mining Department, member of the Ararat Mining Board, objected to a lease being worked. He stated that land in close proximity to that applied for was presently being worked by a quartz-mining company, and it was well known that the land is situated in the same block as the land in question. Mr. J. Humphreys, manager of the Emanuel's Reef G.M.C., also objected, as if the application was entertained it would cut off all access to the company's lease. The Board decided that this application, as well as that of W. E. Willox, Beaufort, 20a., be held over for special report from the Mining Department.

William Isaac, Yallog, 20a.—Refused, as the applicant already holds 200 acres of land. William Howell, Yallog, 20a.—Recommended. Moses Joseph, Yallog South, 20a.—Recommended. James McEwan, Langi Kai Kai, 20a.—Recommended, subject to payment for improvements.

To show cause against forfeiture.—Gerald A. Halpin, Beaufort, 20a.—The title of the applicant appeared to be against forfeiture, and Messrs. E. E. Ball and G. Lacey asked that the lease be forfeited owing to the applicant being away in New South Wales, and not having resided on or near the land during the past two years. The Board decided to postpone the consideration of the matter for four months, during which time further inquiries could be made.

The Minister of Public Works has decided that the substitute for tolls shall be an annual endowment of £40,000 to those shires which have suffered loss by the abolition of that source of revenue.

A writer in the "Sydney Echo" challenges Sir John Robertson to deny the statement published on excellent authority, that Sir Henry Parkes received £2500 from the public purse to defray the expenses of his visit to England.

ARRIVAL OF THE ENGLISH MAIL.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.)

ALBANY, Tuesday. The Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company's Royal Mail steamer Sutlej arrived here at 12 a.m. to-day.

(GENERAL SUMMARY.)

LONDON, May 19.

The assassination of Lord Frederick Cavendish, Chief Secretary for Ireland, and Mr. Burke, the Permanent Under-Secretary, in Phoenix-park, Dublin, on May 6, sent a shock of horror and indignation through the United Kingdom and the civilised world. It is believed that the assassins are emissaries of a Fenian, Ribbon or other secret society, and have nothing to do with the Land League. It is also supposed that Lord Frederick Cavendish, and not Mr. Burke, was the primary object of the murderers, as Mr. Burke might have been assassinated at any time during the last two years, as he always refused a police escort. Lord Frederick Cavendish having been sent to Ireland as the representative of a new policy of conciliation accepted by Mr. Parnell and the Land leaders, it is supposed that the secret society determined to show they would have nothing to do with the conciliation in any shape. The scene in both Houses of Parliament was very impressive. Mr. Gladstone was strongly affected when he paid a warm tribute to the memory of the victims. Both Houses adjourned as a mark of respect. The dastardly crime has caused an intense feeling throughout the country that swift and stern measures must be taken to end the long reign of murderous outrage in Ireland. The press is unanimous, even the Radical organs admitting the impossibility of continuing a policy of conciliation the first fruits of which have been so deplorable. Sir William Harcourt introduced on the 11th inst. a bill for the prevention of crime in Ireland, the two chief features of which are the abolition of trial by jury, at the discretion of the Lord-Lieutenant, and the submission of various offences enumerated in the bill to the summary jurisdiction of two justices of the peace. The tribunal temporarily suspending the jury system consists of three judges, and there is to be no conviction unless they are unanimous. Prisoners may appeal to the Court for Crown cases reserved where a decision of the majority of judges is required to affirm a conviction. The second portion of the bill is aimed chiefly at secret societies. The police are empowered to search day or night for arms or other apparatus of crime in the provisioned districts, and to arrest persons proving about at night and unable to give an account of themselves. The Alien Act will be revised and the police empowered to arrest strangers and remove those thought to be dangerous. Incitement to crime, membership of secret societies, aggravated assaults on the police and process-servers, and intimidation are to be summarily dealt with by magistrates. A consistory of the press is established, and the Lord Lieutenant is empowered to deal especially with unlawful assemblies. The bill gives power to prosecute enquiries and compel witnesses to attend, to appoint additional police in certain districts, and to levy compensation on any district for murders and blackmailing. The Parnellite members and the Parnellite press in Ireland denounce the bill as an odious and tyrannical measure, destroying all hope of a better feeling between England and Ireland. The Parnellites will oppose it in the House of Commons by every means in their power. The Arrears of Rent Bill introduced by the Government on the 15th inst. is little else than a paraphrase of Mr. Redmond's bill on the subject. It adopts all the leading proposals of the Parnellites, and provides that the tenant shall pay rent due for one year. The bill authorises a free gift from the state to the tenant of a sum equal to the arrears of the preceding year, which is to be handed over to the landlord. The bill will apply to tenancies let at annual values of £30 and under. The total sum required is £2,000,000 of which £1,500,000 is forthcoming from the Irish Catholic Fund; the remaining £500,000 is to be taken from the Consolidated Fund. The Land Commission will administer the measure. The police have not yet obtained any clue to the Phoenix-park assassins. Many persons have been arrested on suspicion in various parts of England and Ireland, but all were discharged after examination. All the exports are closed and carefully watched. Detectives are also watching the steamers arriving from America. It is believed that the murderers are still in Ireland, and probably hiding in Dublin. In addition to £10,000 offered for the discovery of the murderers, £500 is promised to anyone giving information of persons harbouring or concealing the assassins. France and England are acting together on the Egyptian question. A squadron under Vice-Admiral Sir F. Beauchamp Seymour, consisting of the Invincible, Bittern, and Falcon, and a French squadron under Vice-Admiral Courat, consisting of Gallioniere, Robin, and Aspie, are now sailing together to Alexandria. The Egyptian Ministers departed Arabi Pasha, and offered submission to the Khedive. The Chamber of Notables has been summoned to Cairo by the Ministry for the purpose of deposing Tewfik Pasha, but they refused to meet unless convened by him. Arabi Pasha sent despatches to the Governors of the provinces calling on the army to serve, but they refused to obey his mandate. France and England have agreed that if necessity arises a land force consisting of Turkish garrisons, under English and French officers, is to be employed to overcome the resistance of Arabi Pasha.

How to ferret out the perpetration of a trick in substituting any other Schnapps for UDOLPHO WOLFE'S SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS, will require very little intuition. Just let one try the genuine invigorant; and, familiar with its taste, they will soon discover the difference. It is impossible to give to that common gin that delicate smell; that fragrant touch, that aromatic, soft, and velvety taste that constitute the chief elements of this tonic-cordial.

A RING THEATRE DECEPTION.

The Vienna correspondent of the "Daily News" gives the following account of a singular deception in connection with the fatal fire at the Ring Theatre:—"One of the victims of the Ring Theatre fire was a young man named Joseph Gerler, who was forty years old, and a Jew. He was a dealer in seces, but his business was known to be a poor one, and last autumn it was with terrible forbodings that he saw the winter come, when besides clothing and feeding his four little children, he must also provide them with a warm room. On the ninth of December, the day after the burning of the Ring Theatre, this poor man's wife ran about the narrow street where they lived, as though distracted, crying that her husband had not returned home the night before, that he had had a gallery ticket given to him on the previous day, and that he must have been burned to death. The woman's despair was so great, her misery so obvious, that it excited the pity of the committee for relief of the victims, and she was well provided for. She was to receive a yearly income of 300 florins for herself and for each of her four children 6,000 florins were deposited, the interest of which was to be spent upon their education. The other day, however, the police of Vienna received an anonymous letter stating that Joseph Gerler was living comfortably in a small Hungarian village, where from time to time letters from his family reached him. Betty Gerler was immediately arrested. She confessed that she knew of the deceit, that in their terrible despair, with hunger and cold starting them in the face, they had planned the affair on that terrible night of the fire, which destroyed the happiness of so many families, and which was to have been a godsend to them. The four children are being taken care of by the magistrates of Vienna. A telegram has ordered Gerler to be immediately arrested."

A STORY OF THE SEA.

I remember a story I have heard of a collision one December in the English Channel. A stately ship bound for Australia with passengers, a young captain with his wife and first-born on board. A French vessel, through stupidity and negligence, runs broadside into the British ship. The waters pour in through the cruel gash. To cut all the boats clear, to have the passengers called, these were the first orders; and then all that seaman craft and pluck and energy could effect was done to save the ship, and it was saved. But while the captain worked thus, what of his loved ones below? At the first alarm, with a woman's instinct, without thought or reason the lady seized her child and rushed towards the upper deck. To be with her husband was her natural desire. And he—must not his thoughts have flown to her? Will Carleton writes—"In danger, mind you, a woman behind you can turn your blood into fire." All very well when deeds of daring do are concerned—when it is a mere question of fighting for one's mate, but when the lives of others are in question, on the poop of a sinking ship to give orders coolly and calmly, and snatch the wreck from the jaws of the cruel ocean, with the knowledge that wife and

Makes the Finest Hard Soap absolutely without Boiling!!

No special apparatus required. By simply mixing with talow refuse grease or oil, any quantity of soap can be made at a time, from ten pounds in a few minutes to ten tons in a few hours. Quality superior, at least match that any boiled soap; when refuse grease or oil can be obtained the best hard soap can be made, costing only a half-penny a pound!!

This article is the most highly concentrated alkali obtainable. For all washing, scouring, and cleaning purposes each pound of our patent Double Refined Caustic Soda Powder is equal to ten pounds of ordinary caustic crystals, thus effecting a great saving of freight and cartage to distant countries. Nothing better for cleaning or removing old-paint.

The following very simple directions for producing the best hard Soap will always succeed if exactly followed:—Take exactly TEN pounds of GREENBANK PATENT POWDERED DOUBLE REFINED 98 PER CENT. CAUSTIC SODA POWDER, put it in any quantity of WATER; stir it once or twice with a stirrer; it will dissolve immediately and become quite hot; let it stand until the lye has become cold. Weigh out in place in any convenient vessel for mixing exactly SEVENTY-FIVE pounds of Clean Grease, tallow, or oil (except mineral oil). If grease or tallow is used melt it slowly over the fire until it is liquid, and feels only just warm to the hand. If oil is used no heating is required. Now pour the lye slowly into the liquid grease or oil, stirring constantly with the stirrer. At the same time stirring with a flat wooden stirrer, without stopping, until the lye and grease are thoroughly mixed, and the mixture drops from the stirrer like honey. Do not stir too long, or the mixture will separate itself again; the time required varies with the nature and the quantity of grease or oil used, from fifteen to twenty minutes will be enough. When the mixing is completed pour off the liquid soap into any old square box for a month, sufficiently large to hold the soap, and allow it to stand with water so as to prevent the soap from sticking. Wrap it up in blankets or sheep skins or, better still, put it in a warm place until the soap is thoroughly dried. It will then be a block of ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY POUNDS OF FINE HARD WHITE SOAP, which can afterwards be cut up with a wire. Remember the chief points in the above directions, which must be exactly followed. The lye must be allowed to cool. If melted tallow or grease is used, it must be only just into the melted grease or oil; not melted grease into the lye. The exact weights given of Double Refined Powdered Caustic Soda and tallow or oil must be taken. If the tallow or grease is not clean, or contains any dirt, it must be "rendered" previous to use; any dirt present spoils the whole operation entirely, but discolored or rancid grease or tallow is just as good for this purpose.

THE COMMON CAUSTIC SODA SOLD IN DRUMS WILL NOT MAKE SOAP AT ALL BY THE ABOVE DIRECTIONS.

The Soap made in this way is an absolutely pure unadulterated soap, far superior in quality to any boiled soap, and much cheaper. It contains all glycerine originally contained in the grease used, and is therefore perfectly soft and pliable, and a valuable ingredient in all soap. This soap being pure and unadulterated, it will not injure or destroy the most delicate fabrics, or clothes; though for washing or scouring woollen articles we always recommend a pure potash soap made in the same way with our Pure Caustic Potash.

The trade of WOOD, GRAYNES and WOOL SCOURERS is directed to the Company's PURE CAUSTIC POTASH.

ABSOLUTELY NO BOILING, OR ANY SPECIAL APPARATUS REQUIRED!

By simply mixing this pure caustic of potash, dissolved in the grease used, the most perfect wool scouring soap can be produced, at far less than the cost of soda ash, or soda crystals, which never should be used, as they destroy the colour, and injure the brilliancy of the wool.

DELIGHTS OF TRAM TRAVELLING.

Sixty-eight thousand six hundred and seventy fares were collected on the tram on Queen's Birthday, and when I mention that these fares are paid on the pay-as-you-please system, Melbourne citizens may figure to themselves what a good thing the tramcars are. The inducements held out to travellers have, however, much to do with our great success. In the first place, you pay for a five mile ride. Strict attention is paid to your waiting on the 6d; but respecting the seat you are left to fight it out with the smallest and sickliest man you can pick out. Having obtained your seat after a fight of twenty or thirty rounds, you sit; and then last 11lb of a lady, drenching wet, enters the car, and after hissing a feeble apology sits on your lap. This reminds you at once of the Deluge, and you begin to thirst for the conductor's blood and hot brandy and water. You don't get either. You sit still and wonder if trams are run to benefit the general public, or simply to cause fun for a few hard worked and badly-paid officials. When you are done wondering, the fat wet girl gets up, and a ponderous-looking navy treads on your toes with hob nailed boots, and cheerfully remarks, "What a 'appy time we're 'avin'." Such is holiday life upon the tramcars. People of Melbourne! go ye and do likewise. The problem of six into two is well worth solving.—From "Sydney Squibs" in the "Weekly."

GARDENING FOR JUNE.

KITCHEN GARDEN.—Get heavy work in the most forward state possible. This is the best month for planting all descriptions of fruit trees; trenching and deep draining are essential to their well-doing; if soil is poor and manure be needed, use bone-dust in preference to guano. Commence putting fruit trees, beginning with those which have lost their foliage. Sow, to a limited extent, cabbages, cauliflower, brocoli, early carrots, lettuce, and radishes. Make good sowings of broad beans, peas, and leeks. Finish planting garlic, shallots, horse-radish, rhubarb, sea-kale, and asparagus. FLOWER GARDEN.—If possible, finish planting all kinds of trees; choose calm dull weather for the purpose of transplanting, and take care that the roots are mutilated as little as possible. This is a good time for sowing grass seeds for lawns and borders. Dig neatly your flower beds, adding, if necessary, a little well rotted manure. Finish pruning roses, flowering shrubs, etc. Old rose stools, that have been standing for years, should be taken up and replaced with young vigorous plants. FARM.—Sow barley and oats largely, either for hay or seed. Continue sowing beans and peas. Prepare land for mangolds, carrots, potatoes, maize, soughum, chichory, tobacco, etc. The deeper the ground is worked the better will be the crop. On many days numerous jobs indoors may be done, such as mending and making pig troughs, hurdles, gates, etc.

The following story is told of a distinguished Edinburgh professor.—Desiring to go to church on wet Sunday, he hired a cab. On reaching the church door he tendered a shilling—the legal fair—for the cabby, and was somewhat surprised to hear the cabman say—"Ewa 'shillin' now, sir." The professor, fixing his eye upon the extortioner, demanded why he charged two shillings, upon which the cabman drily answered—"We wish to discourage travelling on the sawbath as much as possible, sir."

What a happy state of affairs the Tasmanian Government may congratulate itself upon, with only one Opposition member in the House, and eight "doubtfuls." Scarcity of Money.—There is no doubt notwithstanding the partial survival of confidence the condition of all kinds of business and industry is much depressed, and it behoves every family to look carefully to their expenses. Winter is coming on, when children are liable to Croup, Whooping Cough, etc., Coughs and Colds will prevail everywhere, and Consumption, with other throat and lung diseases, will carry off many. These diseases should not be neglected. Doctors' bills are expensive, and we would advise our people to use BOSCHER'S GERMAN SYRUP. It never has failed. One bottle will keep your whole family well during the winter. Two doses will relieve any case. Sold in all towns on the Australian colonies, and by your druggist. Samples to try, 9d. Wholesale Agents: ROCKE, TOMPSITT, and Co., Melbourne. Caution.—In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain, wind, and sunshine often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of BOSCHER'S GERMAN SYRUP kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Coughs, Croup, or any disease of Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as every druggist will tell you. GERMAN SYRUP is now sold in every town and village on this continent. Sample bottles, for trial, 9d.; regular size, 4s. Wholesale Agents: ROCKE, TOMPSITT, and Co., Melbourne.

FLORINIA.—FOR THE TEETH AND BREATH.—A few drops of the liquid "Florinia" applied on a wet tooth-brush produces a pleasant lather, which thoroughly cleanses the teeth from all parasites or impurities, hardens the gums, prevents tartar, stops decay, gives to the teeth a peculiar pearly whiteness, and a delightful fragrance to the breath. It removes all unpleasant odour arising from decayed teeth or tobacco smoke. "The Fragrant Florinia," being composed in part of honey and sweet herbs, is delicious to the taste, and the greatest toilet discovery of the age. Price 2s. 6d., of all Chemists and Perfumers. Wholesale depot removed to 33, Farringdon Road, London. ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you broken in your rest by a sick child suffering with the pain of cutting teeth? Go at once to a chemist and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. It will relieve the poor sufferer immediately. It is perfectly harmless and pleasant to taste, it produces natural, quiet sleep, by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes "as bright as a button." It soothes the child, it softens the gums, always all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for dysentery and diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup is sold by medicine dealers everywhere at 1s. 1d. per bottle.

OXFORD LIFE.—Dr. Bright's Phosphodyne—Multitudes of people are hopelessly suffering from Debility, Nervous and Liver Complaints, Depression of Spirits, Hypochondria, Timidity, Indigestion, Failure of Hearing, Sight, and Memory, Lassitude, Want of Power, &c., whose cases admit of a permanent cure by the new remedy Phosphodyne (Ozonic Oxygen), which at once allays all irritation and excitement, imparts new energy and life to the enfeebled constitution, and rapidly cures every stage of these hitherto incurable distressing maladies. Sold by all chemists and druggists throughout the globe. CAUTION.—Phosphodyne is sometimes sold in the form of Pills and Lozenges; it should be generally known that every form of these solid particles of Phosphodyne are in combination is dangerous. It is therefore necessary that the public should be cautioned against the use of any form of Phosphodyne not perfectly soluble in water. VALUABLE DISCOVERY FOR THE HAIR.—If your hair is turning grey or white, or falling off, use "The Mexican Hair Renewer," for it will positively restore in every case Grey or White hair to its original colour, without leaving the disagreeable smell of most "Restorers." It makes the hair charmingly beautiful, as well as promoting the growth of the hair on bald spots, where the glands are not decayed. Ask your chemist for "The Mexican Hair Renewer," sold by Chemists and Perfumers everywhere at 3s. 6d. per bottle. Wholesale depot removed to 33, Farringdon Road, London. THROAT AFFECTIONS AND HOARSENESS.—All suffering from irritation of the throat and hoarseness will be agreeably surprised at the almost immediate relief afforded by the use of "Brown's Bronchial Troches." These famous "lozenges" are now sold by most respectable chemists in this country at 1s. 1d. per box. People troubled with a "choking cough," "sight cold," or bronchial affections, cannot try them too soon, as similar troubles, if allowed to progress, result in serious Pulmonary and Asthmatic affections. See that the words "Brown's Bronchial Troches" are on the Government Stamp around each box.—Prepared by John I. Brown & Sons, Boston, U.S. European depot removed to 33, Farringdon Road, London. FREE GIFTS.—The Proprietors of WOLFE'S SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS, to induce the destruction and prevent the improper use of their wrappers and labels, and thus further protect the Public against fraud and deception, have inclosed in the wrappers or under the label on the quart bottles, since 1st October, 1878, and continue to inclose in EVERY DAY'S RACKING THROUGHOUT THE YEAR, THREE 1/2 ORDERS, which are drawn up on the undersigned, and which will be cashed by them on presentation. TESTIMONIALS.—Which are genuine. WONDERFUL CURE OF SEVERE PAINS IN THE HEAD. Consultate of the United States of America at Auckland, N.Z., 1st August, 1878: Auckland, N.Z., 1st August, 1878: PROFESSOR SCOTT.—Dear Sir,—I take great pleasure in testifying to the efficiency of your wonderful balm, the "Magic Balm," which I have used for severe pains in my head from which I have been a great sufferer for some time past. I have made but one application of the "Magic Balm," and can truly say that I have felt no pain since, which I am very thankful for, and can recommend it with pleasure. The "Magic Balm" is the best medicine I ever used for pains, and in fact, will state that it is the only medicine I ever used that done me any good whatever. Very truly, your obedient servant, GEO. W. ROOSEVELL, U.S. Consul.

WONDERFUL CURE OF NEURALGIA. Royal George Hotel, Ballarat, 10th May, 1880. To Professor Scott, Craig's hotel.—Dear Sir,—I have been a great sufferer from neuralgia for some time past, and I used some of your wonderful medicine "THE MAGIC BALM" last night which gave me instant relief, and I am very happy to say, I have not felt any pain whatever since the application. I am a firm believer in "THE MAGIC BALM," and can, with confidence, recommend it to all who suffer with neuralgia, as I am sure they will receive great benefit from its use, as I have already done. You may use this letter in any way to your advantage you may think proper. I am, dear Sir, yours respectfully, E. THURLING.

WONDERFUL CURE OF TOOTHACHE. [Signed] SWORN AFFIDAVIT. Grahamstown, N.Z., July 26th, 1878. I hereby certify that I have been suffering terribly with my teeth for several years past and had tried all known remedies, within my reach, all of which failed to give me any relief whatever; two months ago, while working in a mine, my teeth ached so bad that I was compelled to knock off work. I was advised to call and see Professor Scott (who was then visiting Grahamstown introducing his "Magic Balm") I found that gentleman at his hotel, stated my case, and he immediately applied the wonderful medicine, which gave instant relief, and, from that time to the present, I have felt no pain whatever, and can eat my meals with the greatest ease. I can safely recommend Professor Scott's "Magic Balm" to all who suffer with their teeth.

Signed.—WALTER WHITE, Miner. Witnesses.—W. FRASER, Resident Magistrate. C. CURTIS, M. L. A., Pacific hotel.

WONDERFUL CURE OF RHEUMATISM. PROFESSOR SCOTT.—Dear Sir,—I have been using your "Magic Balm" for a severe case of chronic rheumatism, from which I have long suffered. I was almost a cripple, could hardly walk, and was in constant pain. The disease was located principally in my lower extremities, and I was unable to do any work whatever. On seeing your advertisements relative to your great medicine, the "Magic Balm," I purchased a package, containing a dozen bottles, and commenced the treatment as per directions. Great was my astonishment, before I had finished the second bottle to find that the pains were passing away, and now having used some nine bottles I feel quite another man, in fact I consider the "Magic Balm" has completely cured me. You have my permission to use this letter in any way to your advantage that you may think proper. I am, dear Sir, yours respectfully, MATTHEW HOGAN, Miner, Ballarat West.

WONDERFUL CURE OF NEUROUS HEADACHE. Professor Scott.—Sir,—After suffering acute pain last evening for several hours from my severe headache, accompanied with severe palpitation in the region of the temples, I was induced to try your "magic balm," as a curative agent. In justice to you, and in testimony of the virtue possessed by the "balm," in this instance, I may state that a free application of the same where the pain was most severe afforded relief in about 10 minutes. Previous to applying the "balm" I was unable to distinguish one letter of print from another but after relief I read with ease for three hours. As I was to a considerable extent sceptical regarding the efficacy of the remedy prior to trial, I feel pleasure in thus tendering my thanks to you, and remain, yours obediently, HIRAM CRISP, Evening Post Office. Main street, Ballarat, 10th June, 1880.

No Person or House should be without it. For Sale by all respectable Chemists and General Storekeepers.

Oxygen is Life.

ALTHOUGH the modern Materia Medica include many valuable remedies for human afflictions, it is a matter of certainty that in all cases where the animal vitality is failing, Phosphorus is decidedly superior to every other remedy at present known. It will work effects such as nothing else will produce, and it possesses the great advantage of not causing, when its use is relinquished, the slightest reaction or depression.

CAUTION.—PHOSPHORUS is sometimes sold in the form of PILLS and LOZENGES; it should be generally known that every form where SOLID PARTICLES of Phosphorus are in combination is dangerous. It is therefore necessary that the public should be cautioned against the use of any form of Phosphorus not perfectly soluble in water.

PROTECTED BY ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, DATED OCTOBER 11th, 1869.

THE NEW CURATIVE AGENT, and only Reliable Remedy for Nervous and Liver Complaints.

Its Phosphoric combination is pronounced by the most eminent members of the Medical Profession to be unsurpassed in its power of replenishing the vitality of the blood and nervous substance, and for developing all the powers and functions of the system to the highest degree.

It is agreeable to the palate, and innocent in its action, while retaining all its extraordinary properties; and as a specific against all the chronic therapeutic agents of the present day for the speedy and permanent cure of Nervous Prostration, Trembling of the hands and Palpitation of the Heart, Impaired Nutrition, Noises in the Head and Ears, Mental and Physical Debility, and Energy and Appetite, Consumption (in its first stages only), General Debility, Eruptions of the Skin, Indigestion, Nervous Fancies, Inaptitude for Study or Impoverished Blood, Business, Premature Decline, and all morbid conditions of the system arising from whatever cause. The action of the Phosphodyne is to increase the vitality of the system, and to restore the functions of assimilation to such a degree, that were for years an emaciated, anxious, and nervous individual, the system would be restored to a state of robust health. The Phosphodyne acts electrically upon the organization; for instance, it assists nature to generate that human electricity which renews and rebuilds the osseous, muscular, nervous, membranous and organic systems. It operates on the system without exciting any fever, or thought upon the individual as to the process. It moves the lungs, liver, heart, kidneys, stomach, and intestines, with a harmony, vigour, yet mildness unparalleled in most other medicines.

The Phosphodyne gives back to the human structure, in a suitable form, the phosphoric emanating element of which the system is so deficient. It quickly influences directly on the spinal marrow and nervous system, of a native, tonic, and invigorating character, maintaining that buoyant energy of the brain and nervous system which renders the mind clear, brilliant, and energetic, entirely overcoming that dull, inactive, and sluggish disposition which many persons complain of in their nervous system.

The beneficial effects of Phosphodyne are frequently shown from the first day of its administration, by a remarkable increase of nervous power, with a feeling of vigour and content to which the patient has long been unaccustomed. Digestion is improved; the appetite increases wonderfully; the bowels become regular; the eye brightens; the skin clear and healthy; and the lungs acquire strength, showing the importance of the action of the Phosphodyne on the organs of nutrition.

Finally, the Phosphodyne maintains a certain degree of activity in the previously debilitated nervous system; it enables all debilitated organs to return to their sound state and perform their natural functions. Perpetuates Nervous Debility, any of the above symptoms which this distressing disease assumes, may rest assured of an effectual and even speedy cure by the judicious use of this most invaluable remedy.

Piles, Fistulas, and Exhortations.

The cures which this Ointment effects in healing piles and fistulas of long standing, after they have resisted all other applications, have been so countless and notorious throughout the world, that any effort to give an adequate detail of statement of their number or character would be vain. It is sufficient to know that the Ointment has never proved inefficient.

In Disorders of the Kidneys, Stomach, and Gullet. The Ointment is assuringly remedial if it be well rubbed twice a day into the small of the back, over the region of the kidneys, into which it will gradually penetrate, and in almost every case give immediate relief. Whenever this Ointment has been used it has established its own worth, and has again been eagerly sought for as the easiest and safest remedy in all disorders of the kidneys.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following complaints: Pileas, Sore Throats, Bad Legs, Gout, Skin Diseases, Bad Breasts, Scalds, Scoury, Burns, Glandular Swell, Scurvy, Bunions, Ings, Sore Heads, Chapped Hands, Lumbago, Tumors, Corns (Soft), Rheumatism, Ulcers, Contracted and Stiff Joints, Sore Nipples, Stiff Joints, Scalds.

Full printed directions are affixed to each Box and Pot, and can be had in any language, even in Turkish, Arabic, Armenian, Persian, or Chinese.

"Lives of great men all remind us We can make our lives sublime; By their spirits, late departed, Brighten our simple time."

THE above is read with great interest by thousands of young men. It inspires them with hope for in the bright lexicon of youth there is no such word as fall. Alas! many, this is correct,—it is true with the youth who are not abusing their powers,—and to the man who has not been "passive" slave. But to that youth—to that man who has wasted his vigor, who has yielded himself up to the temporary, every allurement of vice, who has allowed himself to be drawn to his passions, to him the above lines are but a reproach. What hope can he have? What aspirations? What chance of leaving his footprints on the sands of time? 2 or 3 lines, alas! there is nothing but dark despair and self-reproach for a lost life.

For a man to leave his footprints on the sands of time he must be endowed with a strong brain and nervous system. He must possess a sound, vigorous mind in a healthy body—the power to conceive—the energy to execute! But look at our Australian youth! See the emaciated form, the vacant look, the hesitating manner, the nervous distress, the senseless, almost idiotic expression. Note his dominant and covetousness, and thus say, is that a man to leave his footprints on the sands of time.

Do parents, medical men, and educators of youth pay sufficient attention to this subject? Do they ever ascertain the cause of this decay; and having done so, do they (as a strict sense of duty demands) seek the skillful advice of the medical man, who has made this branch of his profession his particular specialty, and who has been devoted to the treatment of these cases? Reader, what is your answer? Let each one answer for himself. Parents see their progeny fading and wasting before their sight, see them become emaciated old young men, broken down in health, outshined for the better of life; yet one word might save them, and restore a vigorous health-giving letter from a medical man, habituated to the treatment and continuous supervision of such cases, would, in most instances, succeed in warding off the impending doom of a diseased and gloomy future, and by appropriate treatment restore the emaciated system to its natural vigor, and ensure a long and happy life.

DR. L. L. SMITH, of Melbourne, has made diseases of youth and those arising therefrom his peculiar study. His whole professional life has been specially devoted to the treatment of Nervous and Debility, the Diseases incidental to Married Life. His skill is available to no matter how many hundreds or thousands of miles distant. His system of correspondence by letter is now so well organized and known that comment would be superfluous—(by this means many thousands of patients have been cured, whom he has never seen and never known); and it is carried out with the most judicious supervision that though he has been practicing this branch of his profession for twenty-six years in these colonies, no single instance of a relapse has occurred, or ever yet happened. When Medicines are required these are forwarded in the same careful manner without any possibility of the contents of the parcels being tampered with. Dr. L. L. SMITH'S plan of treatment consists of a course of medicine, diet, and exercise, the nature and expense of a personal visit.
