DEBT. Two debt cases, which had been settled out of court, were struck out. TRUANCY CASES. TRUANCY CASES. Senior-constable J. T. Ellis, prosecut-ing officer for the Education Depart-ment, proceeded against Thos. Bending for neglecting to send his children, three leading players a day's rest in Alwyn and Angus Bending, to school the required number of days. Defendant did not appear, but a letter of explana-tion from his wife was handed to the the first farm the visitors showed in the season against the Waterloo team, and leading a horse behind. Withes stopped and questioned defendant, whose brother said they went out for a horse and were a bit late in leaving and thought they would be home sooner. Witness said it was a dagerous practice, and that he had cautioned others and could not go on cautioning. He would not ask for a heavy fine, but the prac-tice was getting common, and was not only dangerous to those who indulged in it, but to other people. is well to bear in mind that care bestowed upon maintaining the vigour of the digestive organs always brings an ample reward, for the reason that their condition so large'y influences the general health. A most successful a satisfact ry method of keeping the digestive system at a high level of efficiency is the occasional use of Beecham's Pills-a medicine which, as everyone knows, has won golden opinions all over the world for the relief and prevention of adments connected with th stomach, liver and bowels. Wide as the constantity of Beecham's Pills has been in the past, as a remedy for dyspeptic troubles their reputation to-day is greater than over. There is no better househol remedy for keeping the digestion right, the liver active, the bowels regular and the blood pure. For the good of your Health
