THE TRIALS OF MADGE ROBERLEY.

By FLORENCE HOPE, Author of "Blindfold Thoughts," "The Broken Ropes," etc.

Madge had a very queer expression on her face when she looked at him. "What do you mean by that?" she asked. "I don't know," he replied. "I'm just thinking."

"You're thinking of something," he said. "I'm thinking of the fact that you're a very queer person."

"I'm not a queer person," she said. "I'm just a woman who has been through a lot of things."

"I'm not a queer person," she said. "I'm just a woman who has been through a lot of things."

"I'm not a queer person," she said. "I'm just a woman who has been through a lot of things."

large attendance of buyers from Melbourne, Sydney, Brisbane, Adelaide, Perth, and all the surrounding districts. The sheep were shorn on the day of sale by 54 men.

MAKE YOUR DISTRICT KNOWN.
Concerning some parts of the district newcomers had heard. This is not necessarily our fault; we have no intention of power of knowing what is happening at all the places within our area of jurisdiction. It is the fault of completeness of the district.

THE WHOLE BODY LAUGHS.
When the liver and bowels do not work properly, the whole body laughs.
The liver and bowels are the "engine" of the body, and when they do not work properly, the whole body suffers. The liver and bowels

NOTHING SERIOUS.

A dishevelled woman, who had not recovered from the effects of a jolly evening...

"What is your name?" asked the latter, looking severely at the sad spectacle.

"Hangel," was the reply. "Where have you come from?"

"Come, my good woman, no levity," reprimanded the magistrate; "show old are you?"

"Seventeen," replied she of at least fifty summers. "How did you come to be here?"

"I was the custom of the family to say a long grace before meals. On the first day the new lodger sat next to me..."

"No," responded the new lodger, quietly. "Roll on the neck!"

The boarders were much alarmed one night by what sounded like a man running at a tremendous pace in one of the upper rooms.

"Why, my young friend," he said, smilingly, "are you trying to get a hint or two on gardening?"

"No," said the youth. "Are you surprised to see me working like this?"

"I was a wet day, and as the pretty girl entered the crowded car a man rose to his feet."
