A Fair Warning

BY ALL.

Recently the first sign of kidney trouble is a slight ache or pain in the back. Neglect of this warning makes the way easy for more serious trouble to follow, and serious kidney disease. It is well to pay attention to the first sign. Weak kidneys generally grow weaker, and delay is often dangerous. Doctors of the Backache Kidney Pills. This tested remedy has been used in kidney trouble for years, and is recommended all over the civilized world. Read the following—

Mrs. F. Yates, High Street, Beaufort, says: "A member of my family had trouble with his kidneys, and was more or less disordered, and this had the effect of making his back weak and painful. He was also subject to dizzy attacks, and often used to feel so tired and weary that he had no energy for anything. After being advised to take a course of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills, he felt so, and I am pleased to tell you they cured him, and he has had no return of the complaint since. Doan's Backache Kidney Pills by him now, and takes them occasionally, and I am sure they do him a lot of good. The kidneys need a tonic sometimes, and a better one than Doan's Backache Kidney Pills cannot be bought."

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all chemists and storekeepers at 2/6 per bottle, or will be posted in receipt of price by Foster, McClellan & Co., 15 Hamilton Street, Sydney. But, be sure you get DOAN'S.

RELIEVES RHEUMATISM.

Why not use Chamberlain's Pain Balm when you have rheumatism? We feel that the result will be prompt and satisfactory. One night's use relieves the pain, and many have been permanently relieved by its use. Sold by G. C. Bennett, M.P.S., Beaufort.

About three months ago the Bulletin North police discovered Henry Bate, William Bate, and their sons, Mrs. Packham sleeping under extraordinary circumstances in a secluded spot near the Cemetery. At the time of their appearance at the City Court on a charge of vagrancy, revolting accusations were made by the police against the woman and one of the brothers. In order to get rid of such undesirable members of society, the bench decided to deport the cases for three months, provided the train left Ballarat. The cases were again called upon Monday, and as none of them had since been seen, Sergt. McLeod suggested that the case be struck out. The bench did so.

Mr. J. J. Kirby, who has been in charge of the Snake Valley State school for the past four or five years, has been appointed to a similar position at the Brown Hill State school. It is the intention of the residents to entertain Mr. Kirby at a social evening.

During the six years that Mr. Donald Stewart has resided in Ballarat, he has taken an active interest in cricket, and has latterly been a vice-president of the District Cricket Association. At the meeting of the association on Monday night he stated that he was about to take up his residence in the country again, and that he appreciated the compliment, as a stranger, of being appointed a vice-president of the association. It had been a pleasure to be associated with the game in this manner, and although he was leaving he would still retain his interest. He hoped to be alive and well for the next country week in Melbourne.

The Oarham Football Club, Snake Valley, has been reformed. The election of officers resulted—President, Mr. J. R. McEwale; vice-presidents, Messrs W. Riley, J. Carter, and W. G. Murray; secretary and treasurer, Mr. E. Yeoman. The club has a credit balance of £13.

The death occurred of Mr. W. A. Baker, aged 85 years, a pioneer of the Snake Valley district. After serving in the British navy, taking part in the siege of Rangoon and the Tegu wars, he arrived in Victoria in 1855, and was afterwards a well-known mine manager. At the Goolong wool sales conducted by Dalry & Co. on Thursday, 23rd inst., the highest price, viz., 30d, was secured for the super com. of the HPM over Travalla clip, a payable type of wool, combining good dressing quality, and bulk; broken to 24 $\frac{1}{2}$ d, bellies 20 $\frac{1}{2}$ d, sup. lambs 29 $\frac{1}{2}$ d, stains 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ d, locks 8d. For quality and breeding few clips were superior to the PO over JO in box over Moorallah, from Strathman, the first combing of which realized 28 $\frac{1}{2}$ d, whilst the stained pieces made 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. The Balu Gherin clip, from Beaufort, which was a lumpy, payable type of wool, fetched very good prices, and sold up to 27d. For super combing, and 9d for stained pieces. Other outstanding sales were as follows—FO over Eranbreen East (Beaufort), sup. com. 27 $\frac{1}{2}$ d, lat. pes. 23 $\frac{1}{2}$ d, blk. 21 $\frac{1}{2}$ d, blk. 27d. D. McD over Middle Creek (Middle Creek), lat. pes. 26d, pes. 19 $\frac{1}{2}$ d, blk. 17d.

A meeting of parents and guardians was held in the Snake Valley school room on Thursday, 23rd March, to elect a school committee. Kven interest was taken in the contest, 13 nominations being received. The following were elected—Messrs W. P. Wooley, R. Carley, W. E. Yeoman, W. G. Murray, J. White, Messrs A. Brunby, and H. Howlett. Subsequently a meeting of the committee was held and officers were appointed. To-morrow or to-night, maybe, you will lose something that you prize highly. Nearly everybody loses something at one time or other, but in Beaufort few things are lost that can not be recovered through a small ad. in the "Riponshire Advocate." It is easy to mail an ad. to the "Advocate," or just call at the office and tell us trouble.

Good Spirits

It is very difficult to keep bright and cheerful when troubled with indigestion or constipation. Even when these disorders have not reached the point of causing great suffering or discomfort, they undoubtedly affect and gradually sap the vital forces. The best thing to do in such cases is to take a reliable digestive tonic and aperient. A few doses of Beecham's Pills will put the digestive organs right, stimulate the liver and remove constipation. In this way the system will be cleansed and toned up and will fully benefit by the food taken which is only possible when the digestion is in proper order. If you are not in good spirits, take

J.R. Wotherspoon & Co. Our oft repeated statement that we sell goods of equal quality at lower prices than other stores is as true of Dress Materials as of any other line of goods. But it isn't only the little bit lower prices that tempt you—it is the thoroughness and beauty of our fabrics—the handsome patterns and the variety we give you to choose from. We have just opened these New Dress Goods. They are certainly the smartest we have seen, and we invite you to call and see them; it will give you an inkling as to the new fashions. We never press you to buy.

PART 9.

"You won't regret it, dear," said the latter, and Dorrison went away more puzzled than ever as to Sadie's... He was getting more of the truth...

With a feeling of unvoiced excitement, he hurried to his room before the photograph, and scrutinized it eagerly. Then shook his head. "No, the mouth makes it impossible. The nose is very much of the same shape...

A train of thought that was to have many results. Sadie's acquaintance in Dorrison's proposal that the tour should be postponed had been a mere pretence, intended to lead him to believe that he would have more time for his schemes.

"I wish you hadn't urged me to stay here longer, Margaret," she said after Dorrison had left them. "I would rather have gone on the day we fixed. I am longing to get away."

"It is always open to us to change our minds again," laughed Sadie. "If one woman may do that, surely two may, who have no one but themselves to consult and please."

"Then why did you say that to Mr. Dorrison?" "He is so pleasant, you know, and so difficult to refuse. You don't really like him, Margaret?"

"Everybody does, Eva. But I'll tell you a little secret of mine—and not a very pleasant one. I am acting quite selfishly in proposing this trip of ours. A great friend of mine is in Paris, and I have heard such news that I may have to go there quite in a hurry."

"Oh, Margaret, but you won't leave me," cried Eva in dismay. "No, no, don't be so silly. But I may have to carry you off with me, hurriedly, posing as fast as we can travel. So I'll tell you my idea. We'll be ready to start at any minute; but if the need does not arise we can stay as long as you like. But we need not tell everybody all our business—and certainly not Mr. Dorrison, despite all his pleasant ways."

"If it is not bad news, I think I should like a rush journey like that." "There's another reason, too, for our being ready. If anything more unpleasant happened here, we could just be off."

son," and asking that some arsenic, a small quantity of... Mr. Dorrison, I did not care that better, and I certainly do not want any arsenic."

"I shall not go into any details of the book," said Sadie. "I don't know you. A thousand pounds, please, with three months' rent, not in bills."

"I don't want to take any more of it," said Sadie. "I'll keep my own money, and I'll pay you when you want it. Let it be tomorrow, sir."

and death. Dorrison had not hesitated to plot... She was indeed eager for the time to come when he could calculate upon safely reaching his hiding place.

"The dinner was served at eight," he laughed about an hour or so after he had been about for the table to be cleared, and at ten o'clock she was pretty sure to find the key open.

"The door of the interval dragged woefully. Eva and she stood alone in their room; and she succeeded in getting Eva to look for about half an hour. Then she hurried to her room for a secret letter to Eva, and as she crossed the passage she saw James Gardiner."

"He was very awkward, and she thought it was that he had been drinking, and was bent on some mischief. "Please let me speak to you, Miss Hutchinson," he said, hurrying to wards her eagerly.

"Keep at a distance, please. What can you want to say to me?" "It's about that card, and the other things."

"I don't want to say any more to you now. Last time you told me you would have my card. I don't think you did, but I don't care. I don't think you did, but I don't care."
