_____ OBITUARY. MR. CHAS. CRAWFORD.

from 4 p.m. to 12 midnight.

A well-known and highly respected identity in the person of Mr Charles Crawford, passed away at his late residence, Skipton, on Thursday, 9th inst., after a brief illness. Deceased was born at Geelong 71 years ago, and had resided in the Skipton district since he was a lad. He leaves a widow and grown-up family of three sons and two daughters. The funeral took place on Friday afternoon, 10th inst., to the Skipton Cemetery, and was very largely attended. The Rev. A. S. Houston (Presbyterian) conducted impressive services at the house and graveside. The casket was borne by three sons (John, Clarence, and Keith), two nephews (Norman and Allan McDonald), and a son-in-law (Dave Wil-
