Captain Duke proposed "The Country Fire Board" (coupled with the name of Captain Sinclair). He country Fire Board Sinclair). He country Fire Board Sinclair Sinclair been a board member for 17 years, and had thought he would go out at elections for the past 14 years, but was still in. Other brigades did not know the calibre of Captain.

In a neat speech, Fireman Jack Martin proposed "The Beaufort Water Supply Commissioners" (coupled with the names of Crs.

During his membership of the dremen in general. He had known Weight of Barman. Captain Sinclair first 25 years ago as track official at the demonstrations. If he were beaten in this election, he would leave the service with the best wishes of everyone in it. Had it not been for some of the older members like Captain Sinclair, the board would not be where it was now. They had a puty chief in Messrs McPherson and Daw. They congratulated Cap-tain Sinclair on his work for the poard, and hoped to find him still that gentleman having to leave by the express for Ararat. Captain Sinclair, in responding to the toast, said he felt it his duty to come along. Fire brigades had been part of his life—he joined over 60 years ago, and had been Sinclair and McKay, and Mr E. Cr. Sinclair—He would like to president of the board on two occasions. Things were very difficult in the service—it was hard to keep since the supply was one of the best in Vicing the service—it was hard to keep toria, and congratulated the Couning.

Beaufort was. The captain said he was a little "windy" about retaining his seat on the board. He had depended on the Western and Wimmera districts for his votes, and this year there was a candidate from Hamilton, Captain Rankin. There was another new candidate in Mr Barnes, of Chelsea. He had carried the flag of victory before, and hoped to be here as board and hoped to be here as captain they had endeavoured to give them what they asked for the invitation to be present.

It is told, not what they wanted them to do, but what they would have to do.

After further discussion, Mr Barber was appointed to attend the Red Cross meeting and explain what was required in regard to the formation of a reception committee.

Mr Barber said that later he would see what he could offer from the Red Cross Emergency Council.

carried the flag of victory before, and hoped to be here as board member next year. He thanked the captain for the nice things said about him, and he was very pleased to be here.

The captain read the following annual report:—I have much pleasure in submitting to you a report of the activities of your brigade during the year 1941. As you are aware, there was no demonstration this year owing to the war, and that same has been postponed to be present.

The captain thanked the council offer from the Red Cross Emergency Council.

The captain thanked the council offer from the Red Cross Emergency Council.

The meeting was then adjourned till a date to be fixed, when Mr Barber will report.
