SUNDAY SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY.

Pleasant weather favoured the anniversary services, held on Sunday in connection with the Beaufort Methodist Sunday School, and there was a good attendance on each occasion, particularly in the afternoon. The Church was simply, but tastefully decorated with bowls of Arum lilies and stocks.

The singing was led by a choir of about 60 voices, trained by Miss M.

Jackson, who was assisted by Mesdames Harrison and Vertigan. The hymns and anthems were very pleasingly sung. The choristers were. accompanied by Jackson's Orchestra, made up as follows:-Piano, Miss E. Waddingham; violins, Misses M. and S. Jackson, E. Morvell, and Masters M. Vowles and W. Morcombe. At the morning service, which was | conducted by the Rev. W. R. Harrison, the following special items were given:—Quartette, Judith Vertigan, B. Hughes, D. Hill. and Barbara Hayes; trio, John Hopkins, John Lyons, and John Harrison. The pulpit was occupied in the afternoon by Mr Treva Richards, of Elmhurst, and the programme was as follows:-Hymn, "Praise the Lord," choir; hymn, "Two Little Hands," primary boys; hymn, "Blessings Divine," choir; solo and chorus, "Little Friends of Jesus," Anne Cobden and children; hymn, "Hark! A Voice!" choir (Neil) Lyons and Allan Cobden taking a duet); hymn, choir; hymn, "Jesus, Friend of Little Children," choir and congregation; hymn, "Tell Me Your Song," primary girls; hymn, "Heroes," choir; hymn, "Marching On," choir. THE STRAIGHT, NARROW PATH. In addressing the children, Mr Treva Richards said he thought of anniversary day as a kind of graduation day. He well remembered graduating at anniversaries into his first suit and first pair of long trousers, and later graduating further and being able to take the services. He chose as his text -"Enter ye into the straight gate, for wide and broad is the gate that leadeth to destruction—straight is the gate and narrow is the way that leadeth up to life."
