Cr. M. Watkin congratulated the president, secretary and committee on the excellent way they had carried out the tournament, and said they had got through in record time.

TOUCH OF HUMOUR. There was a touch of humour at the R.S.L. annual meeting on Saturday night. When the matter of forming a women's Auxiliary was being discussed, a member suggested that the meeting be held at night, and the men could go to the pictures. Another member remarked that if it were held in the afternoon, the men could go to the pub, and have a few pots.

MOTOR ACCIDENT. A motor accident occurred on the Western Highway on Sunday between Buangor and Beaufort. Mr Gilbert Hill, of the Ideal Dairy, Ararat, and his brother, Mr Leonard Hill, of Sunshine, were travelling to Ballarat in a utility truck for a milk supply, when the truck collided with a culvert, spun completely round, fell on its side, and was almost wholly wrecked. Both men managed to scramble out and were later treated at the G. Exell and Miss P. Beggs. Ararat Hospital for head injur-
