I wish to thank the School Committee and Mothers' Club for the splendid way in which they have co-operated with me during the year. The School Committee's efforts have been responsible for a great amount of improvement being made by the Public Works Department to grounds and buildings. The fifth and sixth grade class room has been modernised, the frontage of the H.E.S. has been asphalted; the Mount Rowan school has been erected here to serve as a cookery centre, mature pines have been removed, and the lower playground has been improved by the addition of filling and gravel. It is chiefly due to the gravel. It is chiefly due to the school sporting activities. There by the addition of filling and gravel. It is chiefly due to the action of the School Committee in granting a generous subsidy that the H.E.S. trip to the Grampians was able to eventuate at the cost of only 2/10 per head. The work of the Mothers' Club has been equally important. It has made available £25 for school libraries and a further £25 for school cquipment under the Department Subsidy Plan. A school equipment urder the Department Subsidy Plan. A built-in copper has been installed and all children were provided with hot milk and cocoa during the winter months. The H.E.S. football team was presented with a new set of guernseys, costing over £20, and honour certificates and pupils' examination report forms were also provided by this body. ressor G. S. Brown, is to be congratulated on his very inspiring address. For the success of this day we are grateful for the assistance so generously rendered by Mr Stan. Hayes, the Town Band, and our Women's Auxiliary.

The usual pilgrimage to the local Cemetery was held on this day, coupled with the placing of popples on the graves of deceased comrades.

The attendance at all meetings during the year, except for one or two members, left nothing to be desired, and expressed by example the high spirit of good fellowship prevailing throughout the Sub-Branch. Subjects of a diverse and varied nature have been handled with much success by your Committee during the past year, particularly in the past year, particularly in the field of Repatriation and Civilian Rehabilitation of ex-service personnel and wives and families of deceased servicemen.

Members will appreciate that much of the work dealt with in deceased servicemen.

Members will appreciate that much of the work dealt with in committee must, through the necessity of private information disclosed, remain confidential. It is therefore impossible for me to give a complete resume of the activities of your committee during the year.
