HISTORIC BALLARAT HOTEL

Closely linked with the early days and growth of Ballarat, Craig's Hotel again made history when it was offered for sale recently by public auction. The occasion was the most important sale of freehold property in the history of the city, and interest in the event extended beyond Ballarat to Melbourne and distant parts of the State. Beginning at £50,000, the bidding rose to £64,500, when the property was passed in for private treaty. It was announced that night that the hotel had been sold to Mr and Mrs Fitzsimmons and daughters, of Willaura. The purchase price was not disclosed. Mr and Mrs Fitzsimmons are former residents of Beaufort. Mrs Fitzsimmons' father, Mr J. O'Donnell, was at one time licensee of the Railway

FIERY CREEK LODGE

GOLDEN JUBILEE OF THREE MEMBERS.

A memorable meeting of the Fiery Creek Lodge took place at the Masonic Hall, Beaufort, on Saturday night, to commemorate the golden jubilee of three members - Wor. Bros. E. J. Muntz, P.S.G.D. (secretary for 39 years), W. J. Stevenson, P.G. Std., and David Stevenson, P.M. W. Bro. J. J. Sutton, W.M., presided, and there was an attendance of more than 80 visiting Past Grand Lodge officers, W.M's.. P.M's., and members of the local Lodge. A pleasing feature was the presence of two sons of W. Bro. Muntz and two sons of W. Bro. D. Stevenson.

W. Bro. W. J.- Stevenson was unable to attend.

W. Bro. J. Eddy, Past Grand Inspector of Workings, presented a 50 years' jewel, a gold watch, and a wallet to W. Bro. Muntz, and a 50 years' jewel and a silver salver to W. Bro. D. Stevenson. A 50 years' jewel and silver salver are to be forwarded to W. Bro. W. J. Stevenson. W. Bro. Eddy made reference to the great service the recipients had rendered to the Fiery Creek Lodge and Masonry in general.

W. Bros. Muntz and D. Stevenson responded.

A Masonic banquet in honour of the occasion ' followed at the C.W.A. Hall. The tables were prettily decorated with flowers. and the caterer was Bro. R. J. Connell. W. Bro. J. J. Sutton, W.M., presided.

After the loyal toast had been honoured, W. Bro. J. E., Wallish (Assistant-Secretary), proposed The Most Worshipful Grand Master, Grand Lodge Officers, present and past."

W. Bro. Eddy, in responding, said he was very pleased to be present to commemorate the 50 years' service of these three brethren and to make the presenta-

The 3 brethren initiated 50 years ago, had given an ideal to live up to and emulate. They appreciated the manner in which they had conducted themselves and tried to carry out the teachings of Freemasonry. When in trouble no one was better able to advise and help them than these men of long standing and experience Beaufort as the guests of Mrs J. in the Lodge. He trusted they would be spared for many years to carry on the good work they were dong. Those who had come in contact with them appreciated them. On behalf of members of the Beaufort Lodge and Grand Lodge, he specially thanked them for their work in Beaufort.

W. Bro. E. J. Muntz, in response, remarked how pleased he was to be associated with W. Bros. D. and W. J.
