COLD FLAME REFRIGERATOR

This magnificent Refrigerator has already found a happy welcome in thousands of Australian homes. Operated by a tiny kerosene flame, it is entirely independent of outside power supplies, and brings all the benefits of modern refrigeration: even to the most isolated localities. (It should be specially noted that the maturity date shown on those Securities is 15th August, 1950-56, but the Treasurer has exercised his option to redeem these Securities on 15th August, 1950, and they are now due for redeemption or conversion on

(2) 4% Bonds and Inscribed Stock issued in August, 1931, and maturing in August, 1950.

WHAT TO DO

If you have lodged with your bank for safe custody more than £10 worth of any of the Securities listed above, you should have received a conversion application form. If you have not received such a form, check the maturity dates of your Securities in one of the following ways:

1. If your Bends are in your possession: Look at them at once and compare the rates and maturity dates printed at the top with those indicated above.

2. If you lodged your Bonds with your bank for safe-keeping: Most banks issue a receipt or acknowledgment for Bonds left with them for safe custody. If you hold any such receipts, compare the maturity dates with those listed above.

3. If you cannot discover maturity dates: Go to your bank to-day and ask whether any of the Securities listed above are held on your behalf.

HOW TO CONVERT

If you find that your Securities are about to mature ask your bank or stockbroker for an application form for conversion into the Tenth Security Loan. Fill in one form for each series of Bonds or Stock maturing (new 2% Securities are for £1,000 and multiples only) and hand it back. That's all.
