If you have lodged with your bank for safe custody more than £10 worth of any of the Securities listed above, you should have received a conversion application form. If you have not received such a form, check the maturity dates of your Securities in one of the following ways: 1. If your Bonds are in your possession: Look at them at once and compare the rates and maturity dates printed at the top with those indicated above.

2. If you lodged your Bonds with your bank for safe-keeping: Most banks issue a receipt or acknowledgment for Bonds left with them for safe custody. If you hold any such receipts, compare the maturity dates with those listed above. 3. If you cannot discover maturity dates: Co to your bank and ask whether any of the Becurities listed above are held on your behalf.

your maturing securi ties (see column or right for details of issues about to mature) and prevent interruption to the income your investment earns for you. INVEST your savings in the Tenth Security Loan and secure all the advantages of regular interest payments, ready negotiability and complete security offered by this Loan. Fuli information about terms of cash investment in the are given in the column on the left of this announcement. Make your

CONVERSION OF MATURING COMMONWEALTH SECURITIES These are the issues which matter on 15th August, 1905—
(1) 35% Bonds and Inscribe Stock issued in March, 1940. (1) 3500 Med be specially noted that the maturity date shown on these Securities is 15th August, 1950-56, but the Treasurer has exercised his option to redeem these Securities on 15th August, 1956, and they are now due for redemption or conversion on that date.) (2) 4% Bonds and Inscribed Stock issued in Aligust, 1931, and maturing in Aligust, 1950.

If you have lodged with your bank for safe distody more than $10 worth of any of the Securities listed above, you should have received a conversion application form. If you have not received such a form check the maturity dates of your Securities in one of the following ways:

1. If your Bonds are in your possessian: Look at them once and compare the rates and maturity dates printed at to with those indicated above 2. If you lodged your Bonds with your bank for safe-keeping. Most banks issue a receipt or acknowledgment for Bonds left with them for safe distody. If you hold any such receipts, compare the maturity dates with those listed above. a. If you cannot discover maturity dates: Go to your Hank today and ask whether any the Securities listed held on your behalf.

HOW TO CONVERT If you and that your Securities are about to mature ask you bank or stockbroker for an application form for conversion into the Tenth Security Loan. Fill in one form for each series of Bonds or Stock maturing of of Bonds or Stock maturing and hand it back. That's all. You will then possess Tenth Security Loan Bonds or Inscribed Stock of the same value as your maturing Securities and interest on your Securities will continue. Interest on the new Securities payable each all months a second at 2% per annum for 11-11 year 12-11 years.

Accounts and sick-pay totalling £18/16/3

were passed for payment. APPRECIATION. -- Mr J. Duke, of Beaufort has received the following letter from Mrs Cawthorne and her son, Mr Neil Cawthorne, of Desailly St., Sale:-To Mr Duke and All Whom It May Concern.—I have received from Mrs C. Lowe, of Beaufort, a paper, containing an article concerning my grandchildren, two of whom (Bethel and Peter) live with me. My son (Neil Cawthorne) and I are just amazed at the news in this paper, with regard to the appeal that has been made to the people of Beaufort, and the splendid response to that appeal. Our children, who are bereft of their parents (my son and my dearly - loved daughter-in-law) are quite happy with us, and the help so wonderfully given is going to mean a lot to them in their future. I wish I could properly convey to everyone our gratitude for all they have done in this matter, and pray that all will accept our sincere thanks. It is indeed a grand gesture; those who have so unselfishly worked for it will be blessed.

BUILDING. — There is still a good deal of building activity in Beaufort. Mr and Mrs F Touhy are erecting a new home in Leichardt St., and a new house is being built for Mr and Mrs R. Ross on the Park Rd., next to Mr Sist's residence. Another new house is going up for Mr and Mrs T. Rutherford at the west end of Neill St. New homes have also been erected opposite Messrs. Hyett's Mill on the Main Lead road, near Mr Kearney's mill on the back Raglan road, and on the Park Road, next to Mr F. J. Blay's house Mr and Mrs C. Whitfield are having a house built in Warburton St. In the past three years 42 houses have been built in Beaufort or shifted here.

BEAUFORT OVERWHELMS MOONAMBEL.

NOTES ON THE PLAY.

As Moonambel recently occupled fourth position in the Lexton League competition, a good crowd gathered at the Beaufort Park on Saturday, 12th Aug., in anticipation of a keenly-contested match. Beaufort, however, overwhelmed the visitors in the first and fourth terms, to win by 75 points.

Beaufort got a run on in the first quarter and scored 6.3 to 0.0. The home side's goals were registered by G. Grant and K. Broadbent (2 each), K. Glenister, and S. Clark. As centreman George Grant paid dividends.

Honours were even in the second quarter, when each team scored 2.4. Beaufort's goals were secured by D. McCracken and G. Grant, and Moonambel's by P. Cudmore and V. S. Wright. One hot by a Moonambel player hit the post for a behind.

Moonambel had the better of the encounter in the third term, when they put on 2.4 to 2.2. K. Broadbent and K. Glenister scored maximum points for Beaufort, and D. Wright and K. Cudmore for Moonambel. Amusement was caused when one Moonambel player had his pants torn off. During this term T. Wright, of the visiting team, had the misfortune to dislocate his elbow owing to a heavy fall. With a big lead at the last change, Beaufort piled on the points n the closing quarter for from the Van of ERN HOWARD, K. Glenister and D. McCracken THURSDAY MORNING of each (2 each), G. Grant and N. Day Week, between 9 and 11, at a were responsible for the home Stand in the Main Street, Com- side's major points. A onesided term ended with the final scores:-Beaufort, 16.13; Moonambel, 4.10.
