URBAN FIRE BRIGADE

BOTTLE DRIVE REALISES £43.

A bottle drive held by the Beaufort Urban Fire Brigade realised £43. This was made known at the monthly meeting, held at the Fire Station on Monday night. Captain J. Duke conducted the lengthy proceedings, and 17 members were present.

Captain Duke welcomed Mr E. Schreeman, Regional Officer for No. 16 District of the Country Fire Authority. They knew from correspondence, he said, that Regional Officers would in future co-operate with Urban Brigades as well as Rural Brigades.

Correspondence was read from the Victorian Urban Fire Brigades' Association, forwarding agenda paper for the meeting on 8th November. Received.

Several small accounts were passed for payment. The captain reported on the result of the bottle drive, which brought in £43/19/6, with donations added.

The agenda paper of the association meeting was read and considered, and the representative attending the meeting given an indication as to how to vote.

Arrangements were made in connection with the teams attending the Dimboola demonstration on 25th Nov., and it was decided to secure accommodation for 12 men.

The captain said the brigade had a Cr. balance of £151/18/10. The F.B. Ladies' Club had decided to give them £25 and the profit on the show luncheon.

Mr J. Holdsworth handed in £10/2/- the result of an effort by Melbourne supporters for the brigade. Letter of thanks to be sent to Mrs Driver, on motion of Lieut. Day and Fireman J. Irving; the captain speaking in support.

Regional Officer Shreeman addressed the brigade. He brought forward a suggestion from William Ararat that district brigades meet at Ararat for a final competitive run on the Saturday prior to the Dimboola demonstration. He had, he said, been a member of an Urban Brigade for 20 years. The Authority had given Regional Officers the task of assisting Urban Brigades where necessary. If it were possible to send a member to the Officers' School at Ballarat, it would be all to the good. In regard to the normal working of the brigade, Regional Officers would not interfere. Regional Officers could assist the secretary and captain in many ways, and give advice. Competitions were the life blood of brigades and made them good brigades in the essential work of fire fighting. Beaufort was one of the live brigades.

The runners and helpers for the Tasmanian demonstration in five months' time were listed and totalled nine.

It was decided that the teams go to the Ararat try-out on the Saturday before the Dimboola demonstration.

Training is to be commenced on Monday night next.

A working bee was arranged for Saturday afternoon to clean up the bottle depot.

Mr Alan Edwards was nominated as a reserve member.

Fireman F. Allen and J. Holdsworth were appointed for half duty for the month, and Lieut. W. Day and Fireman E. O'Brien for motor pump duty.

A rabbit drive was arranged for Sunday week.

WOOL SALES

ELDER, SMITH & CO. LTD.

Elder, Smith & Co. report (26th Sept.):—The second series of Melbourne wool auctions were continued to-day, when we submitted a catalogue of 2900 bales. Our offering was drawn almost exclusively from the Riverina of New South Wales, and comprised 70 per cent. merino wools. A strong enquiry was enjoyed throughout the sale with the Continental section of the trade, Japan and Great Britain being the principal buyers. Prices for the best descriptions of Merino clips were again irregular, and did not receive the wide spread demand that was experienced for the more average descriptions. Comeback and fine crossbred wools remain fully firm while strong crossbred quality wools, locks and lambs were 5 per cent dearer. The following are a few of the principal prices:—Vinelea (Stawell), sup com 182d, bis 123 1/2; Greenhill / EAD (Kilmore), aaa in 180d; Loden Vale/ABC (Pyramid Hill), sup e, 176d; Vinelea, 182d.

R.S.L. AUXILIARY. — The R.S.L. Women's Auxiliary held a flag bridge social on Monday afternoon. The winners were Mesdames Coles, Gillingham and Gil Lotts; the runners-up being Mesdames A. Skene, Hancock and C. Whitfield. A competition was won by Mrs W. Torney.

POLICE COURT

ALLEGED LARCENY.

Before Messrs. T. W. Schlicht and C. H. McKay, J.S.P., at the Beaufort Police Court on Monday, Valentine George Gray was charged with the larceny of a carpet, valued at £8/18/4, the property of the Victorian Railways Commissioners, at Beaufort, on or about 18th March.

Defendant pleaded guilty and elected to be summarily dealt with.

Detective R. A. Kellet gave evidence that at 11.15 a.m. on 14th August with Special Enquiry Officer Kronk, he saw defendant and told him he had come to see him about a carpet handed to him on 17th March by a porter at Beaufort and addressed to W. G. Gray, Beaufort, and defendant said he did not know anything about the carpet. They accompanied defendant to the railway station and showed him the waybill (produced) for the article, which he examined and said bore his signature, but he did not get any carpet. The mistake was not discovered till it was found the right Mrs Gray had not collected it. Defendant said he had asked Mr Kronk and a policeman to look over his house. Accused asked if they would allow him to pay for the carpet, but witness said that was not satisfactory to them at this stage. Defendant then admitted that he had got the carpet, but said he could not get it back because he had burnt it. Later defendant made a statement at the police station and signed it, admitting that he had received a parcel containing the carpet from a porter at the railway station, and stating he was willing to pay the Victorian Railways the cost of the carpet. He had received some furniture from Maples, which was booked to the goods shed at Beaufort.

Detective Kellet, continuing, stated that he went to defendant's home, and Gray showed him the hole where he burnt the carpet. Witness started to dig the hole out, and it was 2 ft deep. Witness told defendant he was not telling the truth as the carpet had not been burnt in the hole. Witness further searched defendant's home, and in the ceiling found one piece of carpet (produced). He asked defendant why he put it there, and Gray said he was sorry he lied to him. Witness asked defendant where the rest of the carpet was, and he said it was there, too. He went into the ceiling and brought the other half down. Defendant admitted that he had cut the carpet in half. Asked why he did not tell Kronk, defendant said he supposed he got frightened. Defendant was informed the matter would be reported. The carpet (produced) was the property of the Railway Commissioners and valued at £8/18/4. Defendant had made restitution to that amount to the Victorian Railways.

Defendant did not make any statement in court, or ask any questions.

Senior Const. McIntosh said the police had nothing against defendant.

Mr Schlicht said it seemed a very hard case. He did not know what to say to this man. Defendant had pleaded guilty and not expressed any regret, but they hoped he regretted it. The Bench had decided to impose a sentence of three months' imprisonment, but would give defendant a chance by putting him under a bond on his own recognisance of £10, to be of good behaviour for 12 months. If he broke the bond he would have to serve the sentence. Defendant was a married man with five children and they hoped he would think more of his wife and children and not commit another such offence.

In answer to the Bench Senior Const. McIntosh said the carpet was still the property of the Railway Commissioners.

BRANDED BOTTLES. — The Manufacturers' Bottle Co. of Vic. Pty. Ltd., wishes attention directed to an advertisement that appears in our advertising columns, giving notice to bottle dealers and others, that all bottles with Trade Mark and Brand M.B. over C.V. in a spade moulded thereon are its sole property and when the contents are once used the bottles must forthwith on demand, be returned to the company or its duly authorised agents. The allowance received by agents, collectors, etc., is simply for the collection and safe custody of the bottles.

Apiarists Work Like Nomads

(By GEORGE LOFT, Chairman Honey Week Committee.)

The following article appeared in a recent issue of "The Argus". Beekeepers, like Australian aborigines, are nomads, wandering from forest to forest in search of a precious nectar, which the fascinating bees "process" into honey.

However, as a beekeeper, or apiarist, I am convinced that we are not just ordinary nomads. We are specialists. One needs not only to be a master of the knowledge of bees and their habits, but a botanist to understand the flowering of trees. The bee gathers its nectar mostly from trees, and it is these trees that we must study.

Some of them blossom in summer, others in spring, and a few in winter. Thus, to exploit them fully each apiarist must establish himself as a migratory worker.

1400 STRONG. In Victoria we have about 1400 beekeepers owning up to 1000 hives each. An average minimum of 240 hives is essential to make a living from the industry. provides himself with a powerful motor truck and essential equipment. Then, with thousands of bees aboard, he moves from "honey flow" to "honey flow" most of the year round.

He always travels at night when the bees have returned from the fields after a hard day's work. The bee suffers no ill effects from travelling, and is back on the job a few minutes after being released on a new site.

MODERN PLANT. Beekeepers to-day have modern on-the-spot equipment for extracting the honey. Usually this equipment is built on to caravans.

It consists of a honey extractor, an engine to drive a power plant, a boiler to heat the steam knife which removes the wax cappings, and special heating apparatus for refining and separating the honey and beeswax.

A pump is used to lift the honey to a settling tank, where it is carefully filtered, strained, and settled before canning it for market.

Honey is therefore produced outback in the cleanest and most scientific manner, ready for your breakfast table. It is a health-giving food. Why not eat more of it?

GOVERNMENT HELP FOR COUNTRY MUNICIPALITIES.

Country municipalities have been singled out in the State budget for financial aid to meet the high cost of roads and development works caused partly by the Government's policy of decentralising industry.

The Premier (Mr McDonald) told the Legislative Assembly this week legislation would be submitted to create a fund from which payments would be made.

The fund would be financed by increasing motor drivers' licence fees from 5/ to 10/; £147,000 now held in the municipal subsidies fund, and appropriations from consolidated revenue.

The Minister for Public Works would be authorised to approve without Cabinet sanction subsidies for works by municipalities and other public bodies up to a total of £100,000 a year.

Municipalities would be relieved of the £52,000 annual contribution to the Country Fire Authority. This would be paid out of the fund. — Stawell "News."
