DENNYS LASCELLES LTD.

Dennys, Lascelles Limited re-port (17th Jany.):—We held our first sale of the New Year on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. We submitted 10,400 bales week. We submitted 10,400 bales with merinos still predominating. The market opened rather shakily, but our experience on the second day did not bear this out. The all over result compares very favourably with our last sale. Comparison of averages:—December Sale, 80.30d per lb.. £199/8/5 per bale (no bulk-classed wool offered). January Sale, 79.56d per lb, £100/0/4 per bale (excluding bulk-classed wools); 76.97d per lb, £96/9/10 per bale (including bulk-classed per bale (including bulk-classed wools). Competition was keen, and covered a wide section of the trade. An almost, complete clearance of the catalogue was effected at auction at prices which must be generally considered satisfactory. Our top price for merino fleece was 180d for 12 bales, constituting the two top lines of the JM/M/Moranghurk clip from Lethbridge. The lambs wool of this clip made up to 325d. Comeback fleece made to 115d for 8 bales of sup aa cbk, brand-Geelong - Skipton Bus ed Roxby Park from Murghebo-luc. A large batch of bulk-class-

MAN "NO KNOWS"

15 a frightening experience to be without money — more frightening still if you are not used to being that way.

Perhaps that is difficult to realise in these prosperous times. But national prosperity does not guarantee that personal adversity is not lurking near for us. A death. a fire, a drought, an accident, a national emergencyany of these may change our lives overnight. No man knows what the future holds for him, his family, or his possessions.

Our future needs our help to-day, and the best help we can give it is to save steadily every pay-day. This will enable us to meet an emergency or seize an opportunity. Open a Commonwealth Savings Bank Account to-day.
