Mr Russell said it was a very creditable effort after helping the Young Farmers and Youth Travel Fund, and paying for the farm competitions, which were what they were for. It was the largest gate and attendance they had had for years. The membership was 10 or 15 down.

Mr T. Jess agreed that it was quite a good effort under the circumstances.

Mr Russell moved the adoption of the financial statement. Seconded by Mr T. Jess, and corried. Mr Russell said he was not avoilable this year for election as president, and thanked them the support given him in the last three years. He did not the last three years. He did not think any president in Victoria had had more enthusiastic and better support. It would also be necessary to appoint delegates to the Chamber of Agriculture and Progress Association. Mr W. Thompson pointed out that the Thistle Club ran sports on Boxing Day for years, but could not make them pay because the people preferred to go to the bigger meeting at Ararat.

The subscription to the Progress Association was passed for payment, on motion of Messrs. Russell and Kirkpotrick.

Mr Boyle moved and Mr Renew seconded, that £5 be voted to the Coronation Day celebrations. Carried.

Mr J. Jebb said everyone in the room should donate £5.

Mr Fleay reminded members of the Coronation Service at the Church of England. The secretary said that the bonfire had been shifted to the Park, and assistance was needed to build it. McErvale said he Mr W. McErvale said ne would like to see the Department of Agriculture asked to stage a display at the show. — Noted for attention by secretary; the Made in Australia Council to be also asked to stage a display. Mr McErvale said the C.W.A. would like to see a competition open to all branches, if the Society could give the space.

Mr Jebb said they wanted all things pertaining to the Olympic Games at the show. -- To be discussed at next meeting.

Next meeting was arranged for Saturday, 4th July to revise the prize schedule. The secretary and Mr Fleay were authorised to arrange for a picture to be shown by the Commonwealth Fertiliser Co.

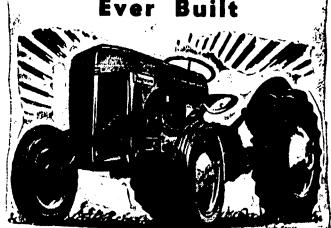

The Department of Agriculture is to be asked if the film on haymaking has been completed. Mr Fleav said the company wanted to know whether the power here was AC or DC — he thought it was BC. (Laughter).

the main contenders for this year's A Grade golf pennant Beaufort, a main challenger to last year's winner, Ballarat, may not offer the same opposition on this occasion. The first two rounds of the series will b played at Alfredton on June 7 The A grade teams are Ballarat Beaufort, Midlands, and Mt. Xavier, the last named having been promoted for its win in grade last year. Since it played off against Ballarat last season, Beaufort has lost one of its mainstays in Joe Briody, now or the land at Torquay. It is probable, too, that Beaufort will be without its promising youngster Barry Pearce, who is in military
