Shire Hall to hear the N.R. resuit, which was announced by the returning officer (Cr. H. J. Buchanan

The successful candidate, Cr. G. Riddoch, said he first wished res' Association doing a great deal of organising work for the new candidates in the N. and E. Ridings.

Mr A. H. Stowell had charge of the principal booth at Beaufort, where a 50 per cent. poll of those on the roll was recorded.

The retiring N.R. member, Cr. M. E. L. Watkin, was defeated by a solid majority by Mr G. Riddoch. In the East Riding, Cr. R. C. Guthrie (retiring) only defeated his opponent, Mr D. Lynch, by 27 votes. Mr James S. Kirkpatrick, in the West Riding, won the seat formerly helding, won the seat formerly helding, won the seat formerly helding, won the seat formerly helding by his late father by 175 votes;

The successful candidate, Cr. G. Riddoch, said he first wished to thank the ratepayers who had supported him in the election. He felt the result. Would not have been as it was but for the interest and enthusiasm of his committee. They had given valuable time and enabled him to make a personal call on as many as possible. He realised the responsibility of the task entrusted to him, and he hoped he would be able to him, and he hoped he would be able to perform and give the necessary time to the duties of the position, and attend to the calls on him as their representative.

He realised the result would not have been as it was but for the council work than they would be able to envice the principal state. He had always, unfortunately had to vote for an increase in rate. P ing, won the seat formerly held tive. With his colleagues in the by his late father by 175 votes; Council he hoped to be able to do something to solve in a satisfactory manner the problems voting:—

HANNE HANNE HANNE that cropped up from time to time. He complimented Mr Watkin on the way in which the election was conducted; there being nothing personal. He appreciated that the state of the conducted that the state of the conducted that the state of the conducted that the c ing nothing personal. He appreciated that very much. He met Mr Watkin for the first time last Saturday, and the latter said, "It is you and I for it. If you get in I will be able to spend more time at home, and if I get in you will have plenty to do at home." Mr Watkin would have more time to spare for his own affairs than he in future. As he would have the very sincere cooperation of Cr. Riddoch in the would have been elected as their representations.

> Ex-Cr. Watkin said he first week he (the President) had had desired to congratulate his op- two days of Council work, and

He had get a let of help. from various got a lot of help from various people and apreciated that very much indeed. It gave him some satisfaction that he was going out of the Council and leaving it in a very satisfactory financial position. There was quite a bit of talk in the North Riding ab-DECLARATION OF RESULT position. There was quite a bit of talk in the North Riding about 50 ratepayers gathered at the Beaufort pooth at the affairs. At the end of the financial drift in Shire affairs. At the end of the financial drift in Shire affairs. cial year they would have a credit balance for the first time for many years. This policy was carried out by the Shire over the past few years, and they would be envied by not a few Shire had been elected as their repre-sentative, he assured them that under any misapprehension as the would do his utmost to serve to the amount of work involved the ratepayers satisfactorily between meetings dealing with matters of administration. This desired to congratulate his opponent, who had put up a good show and deserved to get in.

Ex-Cr. Watkin, in seconding the vote of thanks, referred to the good work Cr. Buchanan the deeper as Shire President and had done as Shire President, and would have to do in the future.

There were one or two things he things involved a lot of time. He knew Ex-Cr. Watkin's position, and would say that his opponent's victory would allow him ent's victory would allow him ent's victory would allow him (Cr. Watkin) to be captain of his own soul in future. These self-imposed, honorary positions were no sinecure, and he was going to ask for and expect Cr. Riddoch's sincere co-operation in the North Riding. They lived in a town and district which were growing and calling for increased savvices. They could not creased services. They could not expect these services without paying for them at present day costs. As indicated by Ex-Cr. Watkin, they were going to have at the end of the term something they had not had years — a financial credit balance. Last year they had a fin-ancial debt of £16,000, and some ratepayers asked how they were going to clear themselves. They had cleared themselves, and he hoped the present exorbitant valuation and rate would be followed by some commencements. lowed by some commensuration. He thanked them for the vote of

Cr. Buchanan then announced the result of the West Riding

Cr. James S. Kirkpatrick said he was very pleased with the vote to-day and to be elected as a West Riding representative.

He thanked everyone who had voted for him, and also those who had helped him on his committee and in other ways. He congratulated Mr Preece on the way he had conducted the campaign. He would endeavour to do his duty in the interest of the shire at all times.

Mr Preece congratulated Cr. Kirkpatrick on his win. He had not had the pleasure of meeting him till that afternoon. During him till that afternoon. During the election he learned a lot about him, and was sure he would fully justify the confidence of the ratepayers of the West Riding. He thanked his own supporters for what they had done for him, and wished Cr. Kirkpatrick a successful term of office. office.

WELL - DESERVED HONOUR

Mr A. J. Saph, of Beaufort, has received the following letter from Mr J. L. Plummer, man-ager of the Ballarat and District Base Hospital:—It is with sincere pleasure that I advise of your appointment as an Honorary Life Governor of this Hospital in recognitioun of your generous donations to and interest in the Hospital over a period of many years. The certificate has been posted to you under separate cover, and this opportunity is accepted to convey to you due thanks and appreciation for your continued interest and generate and to express the hope your continued interest and gen-erosity, and to express the hope that your health is now very much improved and that you may be long spared to enjoy a happy life. I offer sincere good wishes and congratulations on your appointment as an honorary life governor. (The above was in appreciation of personal donations, and not for gifts on behalf of any Club).

MR. ANGUS LANEY

After a lengthy illness, Mr Angus Laney, aged 77, passed away at his home, High St., Beaufort, on Wednesday, Sept. 2.

Mr Laney was a resident of Waterloo for many years, and was a very old employee of Trawalla and Langi Kal Kal Stations.

He was highly respected and a favourite with all who knew him, because of his bright personality. He had a keen sense of numour and a fund of amusing anecdotes. For the past few years he had lived in Beaufort.

His wife predoceased him in

Commonwealth Hospital and Medical Benefits for Members of Registered Organisations

Members of organisations registered with the Commonwealth for hospital or medical benefit purposes are entitled to Commonwealth Benefits if they incur hospital or medical expenses.

HOSPITAL BENEFITS: Commonwealth Benefit of 8/- a day is available to members and non-members of registered organisations. Commonwealth Additional Benefit of 4/- a day is available only to members (and their dependants) of registered organisations.

MEDICAL BENEFITS: Commonwealth Benefits covering practically every type of medical service are available only to members (and their dependants) of registered organisations. The benefits range from 6/when attended by the family doctor to £11/5/- for expensive operations.

THESE PAYMENTS ARE OVER AND ABOVE THE REGULAR BENEFITS PAID BY THE ORGANISATIONS.

The Organisations provide-• At least 6/- a day hospital benefit. Members are therefore entitled to at least 18/- a day for hospital expenses.

• At least an amount equal to the Commonwealth Benefit for a comprehensive range of medical services set out in a Minimum Schedule. Members are therefore entitled to at least 12/when attended by the family doctor and up to £22/10/- for some medical treatments and operations.

To receive the Full Commonwealth Benefits you must be a Contributor for both Hospital and Medical Benefits.

Defendant was fined £12, with also proving the sentences. On 16th April at 2.45 he received a message that accused had taken a Holden car. They were missed from the Training Centre, and at the prison was a garage containing a motor car, the proper-ty of the Penal Department. Neither of the accused had permission to use the car. The window of the garage had been pushed in, and the lock of the double door sawn through and the car taken from the garage. The car was for the superintendent's use.

Defendants said they had no guestions to ask. S/Const. Wa Ward, Richmond, gave evidence that at the Mel-bourne Court there were charges of shop - breaking and stealing against Cox, and he was sentenced to a reformatory prison.

Constable James, Melbourne, stated that he was present in court when Finch was charged with house breaking, and sentenced to be imprisoned at the Governor's pleasure. Detective Orme, Orme, Russell St., stated that he saw defendant Cox at Russell St., at 2.45 on 6th Sept., and he admitted taking the car from Langi Kal Kal and said Finch and that they was with him, drove the car away and dumped it opposite a railway station. The car was recovered.

Detective Holland stated that he interviewed Finch at Russell St., and he said Bob and he took the car and pushed the pushed the garage window in, and cut open the door with a hacksaw and drove the car away.

Detective Holland then read a list of prior convictions against Cox for illegally using cars, and against Finch for housebreaking and stealing.

The S.M. said the accused had given the police a lot of trouble and for this kind of conduct they should be kept in prison. It was no pleasure to put boys like them back in gaol. PRIMARY PRODUCERS' UNION

AT LAKE MEETING GÖLDSMITH

Beaufort Branch of the Primary Producers' Union continues to have well-attended meetings. There was a large attendance at the meeting held at Lake Goldsmith School on Sept 2, at which Mr John McErvale occupied the chair. A minute's silence was obser-ed as a mark of respect to the late Mr J. Kirkpatrick, one of the early members of the Union.

The Chairman congratulated
Mr J. S. Kirkpatrick on being elected to Ripon Shire Council, and also mentioned the close contest between Mr D. Lynch and his opponent. Both are members of the Union. The Chairman gave a report on his recent visit to the Central Highland Regional Committee and the Natural Resources League, held in Maryborough, at which he was a delegate. He also gave a full report of the conference held recently in Melbourne. Many items concerning primary producers were then dealt with, including the oat and barley pools, and the wheat stabilasation plan.
