Avoca, which had held a place among the leaders for most of the season, was eliminated by Waubra. Such a climax to a season has rarely been experienced in the competition, and the vital game between Waubra and Avoca attracted one of the season's biggest crowds. The defeat of Avoca, together with the overwhelming success of Beaufort against Raglan, gave Beaufort fourth place. Avoca, which had held a place among the leaders for most of the season, was eliminated by Waubra. Such a climax to a season has rarely been experienced in the competition, and the vital game between Waubra and Avoca attracted one of the season's biggest crowds. The defeat of Avoca, together with the overwhelming success of Beaufort against Raglan, gave Beaufort fourth place. The final four, which will start

OBITUARY

MR O. J. LOONEY

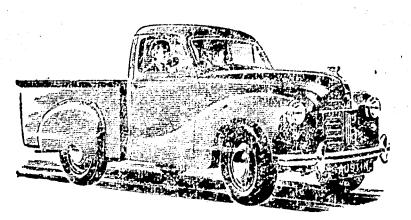

Mr Oliver John Looney passed away suddenly at Amphitheatre on Sept. 18, and leaves a widow, two sons and two daughters. He was a respected resident of that township for many years, where he was the local schoolmaster. Previously he was head teacher at Waterloo for a number of years. He - served in World War I, as a sergeant in 🎉 the 39th Battn. 1st A.I.F., and during World War II. was a sergeant in the 20th Btn., V.D.C.

FIRE AT FOUNDRY A passing motorist noticed the back of Mr A. M. Crick's foundry in Havelock St., Beaufort on fire at about 11.30 p.m. on Tuesday, and gave the alarm. The Urban Fire Brigade (under Captain W. Day) turned out promptly and soon extinguished the flames, which damaged the back wall.

With a card of 71 in the morning, Hunt led by two strokes from Gear, but the latter returned a 77 in the afternoon to Hunt's 74. Hunt (reports the "Courier") thus gained a recond leg-in for the McRae Cup, the trophy for the event which must be won three times before being retained permanently.
