PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Sunday was Temple Day at Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Beaufort, when special services were conducted by Rev. H. A. Harris.

The guest speaker at the afternoon service was Rev. S. A. Goddard, M.A., B.D. One good thing about humour was that a man could laugh at himself, and that was characteristic of the Scot. It made them forget some of the unpleasant features of the past if they could laugh, and gave them hope for the future. If they were Christian people they needed to see the humour of things, for they had faith in God for the future. Let them laugh with people, but never at them. They could laugh at many a thing in life.

Morning and evering services were conducted by the Rev. H. A. Harris.

SUN" YOUTH TRAVEL TOUR

Editor "Riponshire Advocate" Dear Sir-

The appeal for funds to send a youth to England with the next "Sun" Tour has not brought sufficent response from the general public to date.

The position is this — a total of £350 — £100 as first deplosit has been sent to the 'Sun' a second £100 is now due of which the Beaufort Progress Association has £30 in hand and the final payment of £150 must then be made.

Thus we need £220 or we can ot send a boy away,

An encouraging response is asked for from those who are interested without delay.

> I am, Yours faithfully,

(Rev.) ALEX. MILLS. President Beaufort and District Progress Association.

To-day's event
