Free travel during Anzac Day commemoration activities

Veterans and War Widows can travel for free on Victoria's public transport network from Sunday 23 April to Tuesday 25 April 2023, to help them attend Anzac Day commemoration activities.

Free travel is also extended to Australian Defence Force members, Scouts and Guides and school students on Anzac Day, Tuesday 25 April.

Veterans and War Widows simply need to travel with one of the below forms of identification:

- Wear their uniform
- Wear their service medals
- Wear an ex-service association or returned from active service or war widows badge
- Present their DVA Gold or White card
- Present their Category "V" Victorian Public Transport Concession Card

Veterans and war widows travelling with one of the above forms of identification on these days do not need to carry a valid ticket.

Australian Defence Force members, Scouts and Guides and school students must wear their uniform on Anzac Day to be eligible for free travel.

Travelling to the Anzac Day Dawn Service at the Shrine of Remembrance

The 2023 Shrine Dawn Service will be held from 6am to 6.30am on Tuesday 25 April 2023 at the Shrine of Remembrance.

Customers wishing to attend the 2023 Shrine Dawn Service can do so in the following ways:

- Catch public transport near to the Shrine of Remembrance
- Catch a free PTV shuttle bus from selected RSLs and locations around Melbourne
- Travelling to other Dawn Services throughout Melbourne and Victoria

There will be no additional services for regional train services to and from Melbourne.

- Park and Ride for the Anzac Day Dawn Service at Mt Macedon: Tuesday 25 April 2023
