3,200 CHORISTERS

Plans for Great Service

The recent announcement that the trustees of the Shrine of Remembrance would not include in the dedication ceremony on November 11 the short programme of sacred choruses which had been in preparation by church choirs was mentioned at a meeting of the committee of the Australian Choral Association last evening. It was stated that the effect upon church choirs was unfortunate, but, notwithstanding the decision of the trustees, a further appeal had been addressed to church choirs urging them to attend the ceremony to sing the hymns selected by the trustees. The response, reported the honorary secretary (Mr. M. J. Pettigrove), had not been encouraging, so far. The enthusiasm of choirs was increasing, however, in regard to the choral and instrumental programme to be given at the Melbourne Cricket-ground on Sunday afternoon, October 14. About 3,200 singers had promised to be there at 2 o'clock. The preliminary programme would consist of popular hymns to be sung by the massed choir, accompanied by the headquarters staff band of the Salvation Army. At 3 o'clock Mr. George English would take charge of the choir, who would render oratorio choruses to the accompaniment of five A grade brass bands under the general direction of Mr. H. J. Sullivan (secretary of the Victorian Bands League).

The executive committee of the Australian Choral Association expressed the hope that the programme prepared by the late Mr. Sidney Myer for massed choirs at Como Park on Sunday afternoon, November 4, would be proceeded with.

VICE-REGAL ENTRY

National Anthem . . . . . (Standing)

Scripture Sentences and Invocation . . . . . (Seated)
President Methodist Conference (Rev. J. E. Warren)

Hymn: "All People that on Earth do Dwell" . . . . . (Standing)
All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice;
Him serve with fear, His praise forth tell;
Come ye before Him and rejoice.
O enter then His gates with praise;
Approach with joy His courts unto;
Praise, laud, and bless His name always,
For it is seemly so to do.
For why? The Lord our God is good,
His mercy is for ever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

Scripture: Psalm No. 103 . . . . . (Seated)
Rev. J. Simpfendorfer (Lutheran Church)

Bidding Prayer . . . . . (Standing)
Chairman Congregational Union (Rev. J. D. Northey, B.A.)

To all gathered in this Service or joining with us elsewhere to ask for the Divine blessing on all our forthcoming Centenary Celebrations, grace be unto you and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Let us give public thanks to God for all His blessings bestowed upon the State of Victoria and the City of Melbourne during the first century of our history, and seek His pardon for our public and private sins and wrongdoing, and beg His guidance and protection in the years to come.

Let us pray for our Sovereign Lord King George, King of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the seas, Emperor of India; and for his son Prince Henry, Duke of Gloucester, about to visit our shores; for the Governor-General of the Commonwealth, and the Governor of the State of Victoria, and for all who bear office and rule under them.

Let us pray for all the members of the several Parliaments throughout the Empire, and particularly for our own Parliament of Victoria and for all those who bear rule in the City of Melbourne and the other cities and townships throughout our State, that alike nationally and locally those who are in authority may ever seek to do the will of God.

Let us beseech God our Heavenly Father to give us true repentance, to forgive us all our sins, negligences and ignorances, and to endue us with the grace of His Holy Spirit to amend our lives according to His Holy Word.

Let us give Him hearty thanks for His abundant goodness vouchsafed to our State and our City during the past century, for the produce of the field and the products of industry, for the increase of knowledge and the discoveries of science, for deliverance from war, famine and disease, and for the comforts and security of daily life.

Let us humbly ask that He will develop among us the spirit of love and good will, that remembering that we are the sons of God we may be inspired to live as brethren, serving one another in faithfulness, loyalty and peace.

More especially let us pray for the good estate of the Church throughout the world, that it may be so guided and governed by the Holy Spirit that all who profess and call themselves Christians may be led into the way of truth and hold the faith in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace and in righteousness of life.

Finally, let us beseech Almighty God to give us that due sense of all His mercies that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we show forth His praise not only with our lips but in our lives by giving up ourselves to His service.

These prayers and praises let us humbly offer up before the Throne of Grace in the words which Christ Himself has taught us:—

The Lord's Prayer.

"Gloria" (Mozart) . . . . . (Seated)
Massed Choirs (Conducted by George English, Esq.)

Offering . . . . . (Seated)

Selections: Massed Bands . . . . . (Seated)
1. Grand March from Tannhauser (Wagner), conducted by H. R. Shugg, Esq.
2. Land of Hope and Glory (Elgar), conducted by F. C. Johnston, Esq.

Hymn: "Praise to Our God Whose Bounteous Hand" . . . . . (Standing)

Praise to our God, Whose bounteous hand
Prepared of old our glorious land,
A garden fenced with silver sea,
A people prosperous, strong, and free.

Praise to our God! Through all our past
His mighty arm hath held us fast,
Till wars and perils, toils and tears,
Have brought the rich and peaceful years.

Praise to our God! The vine He set
Within our coasts is fruitful yet;
On many a shore her seedlings grow,
'Neath many a sun her clusters glow.

Praise to our God! His power alone
Can keep unmoved our ancient throne,
Sustained by counsels wise and just,
And guarded by a people's trust.

Address . . . . . (Seated)
Rev. W. D. Jackson, B.A., Baptist Union

Scripture: The Beatitudes . . . . . (Seated)
President Churches of Christ (Pastor Robbins)

Prayer . . . . . (Standing)
Moderator Presbyterian Church (Right Rev. J. Mackenzie, M.A.)

"And the Glory of the Lord" (Handel) . . . . . (Seated)
Massed Choirs (Conducted by George English, Esq.)

Hymn: "Jesus Shall Reign Where'er the Sun" . . . . . (Standing)

Jesus shall reign where'er the sun
Doth his successive journeys run;
His kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
Till suns shall rise and set no more.

For Him shall endless prayer be made,
And praises throng to crown His head;
His name like sweet perfume shall rise
With every morning sacrifice.

People and realms of every tongue
Dwell on His love with sweetest song;
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their young hosannas to His name.

Blessings abound where'er He reigns;
The prisoner leaps to lose his chains;
The weary find eternal rest;
And all the sons of want are blest.

Address . . . . . (Seated)
The Most Rev. F. W. Head, D.D., Archbishop of Melbourne

Silent Prayer . . . . . (Standing)

"Hallelujah Chorus" (Handel) . . . . . (Standing)
Massed Choirs (Conducted by George English, Esq.)

Doxology . . . . . (Standing)

Benediction . . . . . (Standing)
President Methodist Conference (Rev. J. E. Warren)

Announcements of Hymns by Commissioner Maxwell, of Salvation Army; of Speakers, by President Methodist Conference.
