

TROOPING THE COLOUR

The sixth annual trooping the colour will be held at Wattle Park on Sunday, May 6, at 3 p.m., by the 24th Battalion Kooyong, Regiment, A.M.F., and former members of the 24th Battalion, A.I.F., Lieut.-Colonel S. G. Savige, commanding, in honour of the men of the regiment who died on active service. The salute will be taken by Major-General T. A. Blamey, divisional commander. On conclusion of the military ceremonial a brief civic ceremony will be conducted under the auspices of the mayors and councillors of the cities of Camberwell and Box Hill, in conjunction with the 24th Battalion Citizens' Association. A collection will be taken up for the Camberwell Ladies' Benevolent Society.
