

DEFENCE WEEK.

Arrangements for City March

Arrangements have been completed for the full-dress parade of members of the Royal Australian Naval Reserve, the Army and Air Force, as the inaugural feature of the comprehensive Defence week programme. Prior to this evening parade on 12th February, the Minister of Defence (Senator Sir G. F. Pearce) will officially open the Defence week programme at 3 p.m. in the Exhibition Building. Defence week will then be continued with day and night sessions until 17th February.

For the parade of the members of the forces through the streets to the Exhibition oval, where the salute will be taken by the chief of the general staff (Major-General J. H. Bruce), it is expected that those wearing the King's uniform will number eight thousand. The route will be from the junction of Alexandra-avenue and St. Kilda-road, across Princes-bridge, then along Swanston, Bourke, Evelyn and Nicholson streets to the Exhibition oval. Five bands will play the troops past the saluting base, which will be located in the centre of the ground. The chief marshal will be Lieut.-General B. Morris, and the parade will commence at 8.20 p.m., headed by members of the Royal Australian Naval Reserve and the 2nd Cavalry Division. There will be several regimental bands in the parade, and their marching will be judged as part of the band competition of Defence week.
