

Royal spring: flowers were in abundance as children greeted the Queen at Federation Square (top), and from there, her majesty boards a tram (above), specially fitted out for