Tramps between Tram Termini

Melbourne & Metropolitan
Tramways' Board

....
....

[W]ORD
___

...s of the Old World,
...tory through many
...thin whose walls so
...making events have
...while it may justly
...rld's most beautiful
... the charm and in-
...ical and traditional
... years have passed
...gazed on the slope
...ilt, and wrote in his
...or a village."
...or the City of Mel-
...es of historical in-
...of time which has
...of the city bestows
...hich the older cities
... We are the citi-
...modern days, with
...dious buildings, and
...panding suburban
...rcrowding and un-
...which constitute a
...rld cities. Our nu-
...d playgrounds are
...is possible in some
... a short distance of
...find secluded river
... and wooded spaces,
... bloom and wild-
...l surroundings.
...ram has been the
...any citizens, as well
... States, the beauty
...ropolis and the re-
...ch has taken place
...recent years. Fre-
...marked to the staff
... many lovely walks
...and, with the view
...displayed by many
...metropolis hitherto
...vell as for the con-
...vho wish to become
...d with our city, the
...rochure, describing
... walks which are to
...am routes and their
...enjoyed at the cost
...ares.

....
....

North Road, Brighton, is [one of the most] charming thoroughfares in [...]
a spacious street, shaded w[ith trees]
planted by a dead-and-gone [...]
forming a cool, green ave[nue...]
even on a hot day, one may s[...]

To enjoy this walk, take [a tram] car from the City, alighting [at the] Brighton and Glenhuntly R[oads, a] fifteen minutes' easy walk [to New] Street, which runs at the [...] course conducted by the Brig[hton...]
North Road—paradoxically r[unning]
west—is reached. Turn ea[st into North] Road, where there are many [...]
and gardens to interest the w[alker,]
grass plots and wooden sea[ts, oppor-] tunities for rest. Hawthor[n is] reached in half an hour, an[d from the] tram terminus (known as the [Ceme-] tery terminus) run to St. Kil[da via New] Road and Wellington Street.

A tram car ride may be ad[ded]
by taking the Victoria Brid[ge to] Balaclava Junction (corner of [Brighton] and Balaclava Road). From [here] cars connect with the city.

FARES.