

IT'S 50 UP FOR THE DIARY!

NUMBER 50

JUNE, 1975

FREE

This is the 50th issue of the Warrandyte Diary.

Your local newspaper was born in December 1970 as a community service and a fund-raising venture for the Warrandyte Community Youth Club.

It was — and still is — the aim of the Diary to inform and to be involved.

Involved in ambition of us all — a better Warrandyte.

We've had our defeats; we've had our victories, too.

We've trodden on a few corns; we'll continue to do so when it's justified.

We're happy that our "birthday" coincides with the centenary celebrations of the Doncaster-Templestowe Council.

In our 50th issue, we talk with a real old-timer, a man who was dedicated to the local community who did much to shape its future.

His story is on Pages 4 and 5.

GOVT. 'YES' TO $36,500 ART CENTRE

A $36,500 art and craft centre is to be built at Warrandyte Primary School.

The Minister for Public Works, Mr. R. Dunstan, has approved expenditure for the centre.

The successful tenderer is an East Preston building firm.

The local State member of parliament, Mr. N. Lacy, M.L.A., told the Diary that the provision of an art and craft centre would be a welcome addition to the educational facilities at the school.

Mr Lacy said: "It fulfils the Hamer government's election promise of 1973 to provide an art and craft centre and library, free of parental contribution, for every primary school with an enrolment of at least 225 students".

"I hope it will be a centre which will be used by the community generally outside of school hours.

"I know the school committee will be planning to achieve this".

In April, Mr. Lacy announced a tender had been accepted for internal renovations and improved lighting at the School.

Cost of the work is $3118.

Early in May, Mr. Lacy said further improvements costing $5773 would be made to the school.

Big project at school

While parents applaud these latest additions to the old school, pleas are still mounting for a second primary school in the area.

It is blatantly clear that the present school is overcrowded. Another portable classroom may be erected next year.

For the past few years parents have pleaded for a second primary school.

Representations were made to Mr. Lacy. Then local ward councillor Robert White took up the issue.

A spokesman for the parents' committee said that while improvements to the school were welcome, the money would be better spent on a new primary school.

"Let's face it — Warrandyte Primary School is bursting at the seams", he said.

"New sub-divisions and the growth of the area make it imperative that parents, councillors and members of parliament press our case".

• Mr. Lacy

Welfare Benefits

The R.S.L. and Warrandyte Social Club are holding a Theatre Night on Wednesday, July 2nd at Her Majesty's Theatre, Melbourne. The show is "Gypsy" and has been well received. Proceeds are to aid the Welfare Fund. A limited number of tickets at $5.50 each are available from Wal Cornhill, 844-3489 or Neil Pearson, 844-3546.

IN RED & WHITE

The dastardly deeds of the devastating dauber . . .

The phantom signwriter who defaced the front of the local pub obviously had his wires crossed.

Old Smokey has it on good authority that the Grand is NOT on the market.

Doggone it! Is no dustbin sacred any more?

The bin bandits among our canine population seems to have reached plague proportions — and the owners of these rubbish ratbags seem to care not a hoot.

Bad enough that the victims of the marauding mutts have to scrape up what's left from their overturned bins and wait for the next collection.

Even worse is that their innermost secret — what they've dined on for the past week — is exposed to the world at large.

A thousand curses upon these contemptible curs. There must be a fortune, though, awaiting the bloke who invents and patents the dog-proof dustbin!

Warrandyte Apexians have a very special little mate all the way over in Bogota, Colombia.

He's their foster child.

The name's Luis, he's eight, and comes from a family of nine.

The club has been sponsoring him for the past six months and the Apexians' wives and kids are regular correspondents.

Nice gesture!

Good to see the goal square under municipal patronage at the local footy.

Councillor Robert White, who's a busy man, made time to take up the white flags and officiate as goal umpire.

Did a great job, too.

Knows a bit about the game, of course — he's a former coach of the mighty Bloods.

Smokey heard this one as he was cutting a swathe of destruction through the local golf course in his latest fruitless attempt to break 60 for nine!

Golf fanatic sliced his second shot on the first hole, it rebounded off a tree, hit him smack in the head and killed him.

"And what are you here for?" asked St. Peter when our friend fronted the Pearly Gates.

"Two," he replied.

ANOTHER BID TO TIDY GOLD CAIRN

Warrandyte's gold memorial cairn is about to receive another facelift.

Situated in Gold Memorial Drive, the cairn has been the target of vandals during the past few years.

It marks the spot where gold was first discovered in Warrandyte — and Victoria.

Doncaster - Templestowe Council and various community groups have played a big part in helping save the site as a tourist attraction.

Latest group to tackle the area is the Warrandyte Apex Club.

They plan to tidy up and improve facilities and erect barbecues.

An Apex club spokesman said they planned to make it one of their big projects for the year.

In another operation, the Apex Club, in conjunction with other groups, will help clean up the Warrandyte river bank area from June 23 to June 29.

Club president Mike Kerley 844-2253 said this week the Apex Club in Warrandyte was keen on enrolling new, young members interested in community service.

THANKS FOR CASEY CASH

A letter thanking residents of the Casey electorate has been received from the Darwin Cyclone Tracey relief trust fund by the Federal Member for Casey, Mr. Race Mathews.

Mr. Mathews said this week that the final total collected in local shopping centres after the cyclone disaster had been $4810.17.

$3950.17 had been set to the Herald-Sun Darwin Relief Fund and $860 directly to the Trust Fund in Darwin.

HOME TO THE ISLE

Sally Newton returned home to the Isle of Wight, England, recently after a five-month holiday with her daughter Ann Hilton, of North Warrandyte. Grandsons Douglas and Graham, together with Ann, were at Tullamarine airport to farewell grandma.

The adult painting group of the Warrandyte Arts Association has sent congratulations to Pauline Grayling on winning the Ringwood Council award for 1975 at the recent art show held at the Barn.

Geoff and Nola Day, of North Warrandyte, recently celebrated the birth of their third son, Rodger Charles. Geoff is the part-owner of well-known northern Victorian racehorse, Metre.

Hard-working Warrandyte Football Club president Mr. Laurie Sloan recently took a few days off from the football fray to holiday in Adelaide.

Fiona, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barr, of Floods Road, is off to Ireland to attend her cousin's wedding.

Former Warrandyte Primary School teacher and youth club leader Peter Moran recently visited Rome and Switzerland. During the next few months he will work in a children's camp in America.

HISTORICAL SHOW BECOMES A 'HAPPENING'

CLYDE & OCKER

"Fair dinkum, Ock, if they don't get this show on the road soon, I'll be history!"

It was to have been simply an historical exhibition. Now it has snowballed into a festival!

The exhibition planned for Warrandyte by the environment league as part of the Doncaster-Templestowe City's centenary celebrations has just kept growing.

As a result, the date has kept changing.

15, 16 and 17 — and on a much grander scale than originally envisaged.

Plans — and dates — have had to be changed for two reasons:

- Public interest in the historical exhibition ensures that it will be much bigger and varied than was first thought.

- The show is now to be run in conjunction with social functions to mark the centenary of the P.S. No. 12, the oldest building at Warrandyte Primary School.

These celebrations, which will be largely based at the school, will include functions with an historical flavour.

The decision to combine the two events means that relics from Warrandyte's past will be on display at a number of venues at the same time.

It will also add to the festival atmosphere of the occasion, which is to be known as "Old Warrandyte Weekend".

The exhibition organisers are seeking historical items such as artifacts from pioneer and mining days in the district, period gowns and suits, toys, letters, photographs and newspaper cuttings.

If you can contribute — if you'd like to help out in any way at all — Mrs. Beverley Hanson (844-3906) or Mrs. Robert White (844-3823) would like to hear from you.

The exhibition will also include items of general interest for historical or cultural reasons which do not relate particularly to Warrandyte or its history.

Said Mrs. Hanson: "We are not interested solely in items related to Warrandyte's history from the early part of the last century.

"We would like to include photos and newspaper stories from relatively recent fires and floods.

"We should remember that many Warrandyte residents have been here five years or less and reminders of the district's more recent dramatic history would be a worthwhile contribution".

Mrs. Hanson emphasised that all items offered would be treated with utmost care.

Wherever possible, old photographs and newspaper cuttings would be photocopied and the copies displayed, rather than the originals.

SCHOOL CROSSINGS

CALL FOR HELPERS

Part-time supervisors are being sought to man three busy school crossings in the Warrandyte area.

The schools are Warrandyte Primary, Warrandyte South, and Park Orchards Primary.

The State Government and Doncaster-Templestowe Council will subsidise payment for supervisors.

School leaders say the jobs are ideal for parents or retired people.

Supervisors will be paid at the rate of $2 an hour and will be required for one hour in the mornings and an hour in the afternoons. Uniforms will be provided.

Parents of children at Warrandyte and South Warrandyte have been particularly concerned about safety at crossings.

There are three school crossings on the main road through Warrandyte and locals are hoping for a high priority.

Any person at South Warrandyte interested in the position should contact the principal, Mr. Barry Tonzing, 844-3604.

LABOR TALK ON TIMOR TRIP

Mr. Jim Roulston, senior vice-chairman of the A.L.P. administrative committee will be the guest speaker at the Warrandyte A.L.P. meeting on Thursday, June 12.

Mr. Roulston will speak about his recent visit to East Timor.

The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. in the North Warrandyte Community Centre, Research Road. Branch secretary Janet Foote says non-members will be welcome to attend.

A GRAND OLD MAN

The veteran of them all - Cr. Hemsworth

Charlie Hemsworth is a mighty interesting man. And nearly as old as the Council he represented for 20 years.

Doncaster - Templestowe council is 100; Mr. Hemsworth, three times its president, is a mere 87!

He's lived at Portarlington for some time now. But Warrandyte is still very fresh in his mind and still very close to his heart.

It is no exaggeration to say that Charlie Hemsworth literally steered Warrandyte towards its municipal identity.

"Jack Hutchinson, Joe and Chris Blair and I covered the shire in my car — the only one among us — collecting the signatures necessary to make Warrandyte a separate Riding" he recalls.

That was way back in the 1920s.

He didn't realise it at the time, but Cr. Hemsworth was one of the original sit-in demonstrators.

Our local primary school, desperately in need of improvements, had been pleading to the Education Department for 12 years.

A man of action, Charlie went to town, and openly vowed to sit it out in the corridor until he was given a hearing!

He was heard — minutes later — and went home with a promise that a written guarantee would be in the same afternoon's mail.

It was done. So were the improvements.

There was, as Cr. Hemsworth recalls, quite a fuss in the village when Warrandyte's main claim to fame was at stake.

• The Diary talks with Charles Hemsworth, a link between Warrandyte's past and present.

Mr. Hemsworth was a Doncaster-Templestowe councillor for 20 years, including three terms as president.

"Clunes, up near Ballarat, were claiming to be Victoria's first gold-field", he says.

"Joe Blair got angry about it. He knew it just wasn't right. We knew, too".

There was a big public meeting and we formed a committee. That's how the Gold Memorial happened.

There was no need to ask Charlie Hemsworth about his part in the 1939 bushfire relief.

Another old-timer had already paid him this tribute:

"Charlie was there. He was always there when people needed a leader.

"He was asked to take over the relief centre at the hall the morning after the disaster — and you had to be there to really appreciate what the fire had done — and he managed to turn chaos into order".

Organised relief distribution from the hall went on for five months under Charlie's management.

It is one of his proudest memories that Melbourne Lord Mayor Coles paid him this compliment for his voluntary work:

"Charlie", said the Mayor, "make me a promise. If you're ever in trouble, give me first opportunity of helping you!"

Charlie Hemsworth was never in that sort of trouble. He had his moments, though.

Like the storm that blew up after he had voted in council against contributing ratepayers' money towards the Shrine of Remembrance.

His argument was that any municipal money should go to war widows and orphans and that the Shrine itself was State and Federal Government business.

Nobody — certainly not Charlie — knew what to expect when at the height of the controversy a deputation from the Doncaster R.S.L. branch called on the council.

Surprise, surprise. The branch, said the deputation's leader, wished to express its wholehearted support for Cr. Hemsworth's stand!

He can also tell you a lot of funny stories.

Like the time Jock Logan offered Edgar Lowe, the policeman, a lift into the village in his snail-paced horse and dray.

"No thanks", was the reply. I'm in a hurry — I'll walk!"

Charlie Hemsworth is truly one of the grand old men of Warrandyte.

And in its centenary year, he wishes his old Doncaster - Templestowe Council "nothing but the best".

YOUNG WIVES FORM CLUB

Women in the Warrandyte-Park Orchards area have formed a young wives club.

Next meetings will be held at Domeney's Reserve, Park Orchards, on June 9 and June 23 at 1.15 p.m.

For a fee of 50 cents, children are minded and afternoon tea provided. Margaret Darke 870-4727 can supply further information.

• Charles Hemsworth was born in 1888 and came to live in Warrandyte in 1923.

It is doubtful if any councillor served on as many Warrandyte Community projects.

Announcing Mr. Hemsworth's intention to stand for the Warrandyte Riding, the Croydon Mail of 1926 said: "He is the type of public man who is an asset to any community".

He was born at Ringwood, so he knew the area pretty well.

And the Warrandyte area got to know him well because he became involved in almost every committee one could name.

Apart from his council interests, Mr. Hemsworth was president, captain, treasurer and league delegate for the Warrandyte Football Club for years.

He played football with Warrandyte until he was 46. In 1926 he was the star player of the match against Diamond Creek.

He was appointed a JP in January 1926 and a Crown bailiff. He also served as president of the Warrandyte school committee, chairman of the River Reserve, chairman of the cemetery trustees, chairman baby health centre, chairman quarry disaster appeal, chairman trustees for homes quarry disaster widows, and chairman of sustenance relief committee.

Tennis was another interest. He was chairman of the Warrandyte club.

Mr. Hemsworth also served as chairman of the hall committee, chairman of the Recreation Reserve, chairman Progress League, chairman bushfire relief appeal 1939, chairman of Gold Memorial committee Anderson's Creek.

His long service to the council and community ended when he resigned in 1946 due to health reasons.

THANKS JUDY AND CLIFF . . .

Tributes to the Warrandyte Diary on its 50th issue would not be complete without recognising the efforts of Judy and Cliff Green.

In a tribute to Cliff and Judy, the secretary of the youth club, Mr. S. Andrew, said: "On the 50th edition of the Diary, I feel it appropriate to thank Cliff and Judy for having the foresight to begin a local paper which has maintained interest and grown in popularity". Mr. Andrew said that despite pressure of work as a top flight television scriptwriter, and freelance writer, Cliff was prepared to sacrifice much of his time travelling collecting news items and advertisements.

"Many a long day, or night, he spent in preparing the layout of the paper, including advertisements.

"Cliff was instrumental in encouraging the late Harry Hudson to write and illustrate with sketches his historical anecdotes of Warrandyte which created wide interest", said Mr. Andrew.

He said that despite his busy life Cliff still found time to become an active member of the youth club.

At one stage he was vice-president with a keen interest in the Keystone group.

"Judy worked as Diary manager, organising the accounts. Her efforts in the early days ensured that the Diary continued to become a success", said Mr. Andrew.

Message from the Mayor

The 50th issue of the Diary and Doncaster-Templestowe City's centenary were two notable anniversaries, the Mayor, Cr. Ian Marsden, said this week.

"One of the most important and often neglected facets of local government is communication", he said, "and the Diary and its admirable volunteer staff have played an important part in keeping local issues in front of the residents of Warrandyte.

"Perhaps even more vital is the role it has played in creating community awareness — in bringing home to local folk that Warrandyte IS special and we must all join in the fight to keep it so.

"The cynics say that we are losing that fight, Cr. Marsden said.

"I do not believe this to be so.

"As the Diary approaches its 51st issue and the City its 101st year, we should all strengthen our resolve to continue the fight.

"Warrandyte's future — and ours — depends on our determination to preserve and protect the things we value in our unique area".

SCHOOLS DEBATE: LACY REPLIES

SIR — My attention has been drawn to some inaccurate statements by the Federal Member for Casey, Mr. R. Mathews, M.P., in the May edition of the Diary.

The most serious inaccuracy is Mr. Mathews' statement that the Australian Education Minister, Mr. Kim Beazley, had advised him that none of the general recurrent grants paid to the Victorian Education Department included funds to be expended on disadvantaged schools.

He said that these funds did not "include so much as a cent of the funds the Karmel Committee recommended for disadvantaged schools and Casey schools which have not received their proper share of these 1974 general recurrent grants should be asking the Education Department for an explanation".

Mr. Senior, the Finance Officer of the Victorian Education Department has investigated this claim at my request and he reports as follows:

"The general recurrent funds which have come to the Victorian Education Department from the Australian Schools Commission have, with the Commonwealth Minister of Education's approval, gone directly into the State Consolidated Fund.

"This Fund consists mostly of monies supplied by the Victorian Government for recurrent expenditure on education in Victoria".

"Some of the monies from the Consolidated Fund are spent specifically on the staffing and financing of disadvantaged school projects. These grants are in fact administered by a Supplementary Grants Committee chaired by the Assistant Director-General, Dr. Maddocks.

"Since the present Commonwealth Government has declared that there are no disadvantaged schools in the Casey electorate (Croydon West applied but was refused) no schools in this district can expect to benefit from that proportion of these funds available for these purposes".

It can be seen, therefore, that the Australian Schools Commission's general recurrent grants have gone into a general pool which has been expended between the primary, secondary, technical and special divisions of the Education Department. This money is spent in all schools on teachers' salaries, and the direct grants to each school, as well as many other items of a recurrent nature.

In answer to a question I asked in the Legislative Assembly in December 1974, the Victorian Minister of Education, Mr. Thompson, revealed that recurrent funds allocated from the Consolidated Fund for the 26 schools in the Ringwood electorate amounted to $5,685,521.

Since the Australian Schools Commission general recurrent grant averaged out at $22 per primary student and $33 per secondary student over the whole of Victoria during 1974, schools in the Ringwood electorate could have expected at least $382,987 of these funds to have been expended among them. This would amount to an increase of 6.7% over the previous year.

I can assure you that the proportion of the Australian Schools Commission general recurrent funds left after the disadvantaged schools programme had been catered for has been made available in the form of teachers' salaries, direct grants, as well as in many other ways.

Since the object of the Karmel Committee recommendations was to bring all schools up to a similar level of physical facilities, and since most of the schools lacking these facilities are in the inner and western suburbs, the schools in the Casey electorate are not going to benefit from these additional funds to anywhere near the same extent as schools elsewhere.

Norman Lacy,
M.P. for Ringwood.

MOVE FOR PARK ORCHARDS LAND

The 100 acres of land abutting Domeney Reserve, Park Orchards, has been recommended to the Victorian Premier, Mr. Hamer, for special funding.

This is the result of a deputation recently to the Victorian Minister for Conservation, Mr. Borthwick, led by the Member for Ringwood, Norman Lacy, M.P., and the President of the Park Orchards Ratepayers' Association, Mr. D. Mayor.

Mr. Lacy put a proposal to the Minister that the Victorian Government make a commitment to the extent of one third of the total cost of the acquisition, contingent on the Commonwealth Government, and the Doncaster-Templestowe Council being willing to match the State's contribution. The funds would be provided over three years.

The proposal is that the land be included in the Warrandyte State Park and be placed under the control of the National Parks Service of the Victorian Conservation Ministry.

Commenting on the deputation Mr. Lacy said: "We pressed on the minister the urgency of ensuring that a commitment for funding was made before July 19, the date of the G.H.I. appeal to the Town Planning Appeals Tribunal against the M.M.B.W.'s delay in granting a development permit for subdivision of the land".

"We also informed the Minister of the M.M.B.W.'s offer to prepare an amending planning scheme to rezone the area public open space subject to the Council entering into the usual reimbursement agreement".

Mr. Lacy said: "It has been of particular concern to me to see that the Park Orchards Ratepayers' Association's fight to save the Domeney land is facilitated in every possible way".

• LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

In the May issue of the Diary in Smokey Joe's column it was mentioned that Dorothy Black formerly resided in Drysdale Road. This is not quite correct as my mother-in-law used to live my late wife and myself and family in Leber St.

I hear from Dorothy Black regularly and so does her daughter, Sylvia Halpern, of Dingley Dell Road, as well as several of her friends in the "Elderlies".

She is not 96 until Christmas this year.

My son Trevor and his wife, Jenny, now living at Broken Hill, plan to visit grandma Black at Christmas for her birthday celebrations. Tony Perry, my nephew-in-law who is staying with me, will also be there.

Maurice Stevenson,

Nursing 'Mums' Get-together

A meeting of the Warrandyte group of the Nursing Mothers Association of Australia will be held on Monday, June 16 at the home of Elaine Hill, 67 Bradley's Lane, Warrandyte.

FILMS WIN KIDS

The recent Saturday afternoon film show organised by the Warrandyte Lions Club was an outstanding success and it is planned to show films once a month.

More than 80 children and parents saw the three films at the Mechanics' Institute Hall.

It is intended to concentrate on cartoons, feature films and documentaries.

Recently the Warrandyte Lions presented six tape recorded talk machines to the braille library in Kew. Other clubs in the district have followed the Warrandyte lead and given machines.

The Lions will again be offering their popular Christmas cakes. They should be available from September onwards. The 3lb fruit cakes can also be used as birthday cakes.

Tom Blair represented the club at the recent national Lions convention in Brisbane. He is well-known for his vocational work with blind people.

The club is investigating how it can assist in the "Minus" children's appeal being sponsored by Kew Cottages and the Age newspaper.

Warrandyte Football Club is urgently in need of financial assistance.

Unless the club can raise more finances some teams may have to be disbanded next season.

This follows a constant check on the activities of the club.

Most senior football clubs in the metropolitan area have after-the-game celebrations. That's how they survive financially.

But Warrandyte, for some reason or other, cannot.

Senior club officials are worried that if the club cannot raise more money they will finish the season in the red.

Despite the constant vigil on the club president Mr. L. Sloan has taken out the necessary permits.

But a bring-your-own licence has not been successful.

One official said: "We liked to have a yarn after each game, but all that's gone now."

"We can't even entertain the opposition players, officials, or supporters".

The club's firsts are in all sorts of trouble and it looks at this early stage it will be a miracle if they make the final four.

Even the seconds, who had a chance of staying in the four, have now slipped out of the reckoning.

Against Coldstream it was said the firsts battled it right out to the end. But they were still well beaten.

The seconds, after being in front at half-time, let the game slip away from them.

Both the firsts and seconds have shown glaring examples of lack of teamwork and system.

Players are handballing on the backline when teammates are covered, too many players are unfit and not chasing and contesting. A players' meeting has been called to iron out these problems.

Probably the only bright note on the horizon is the performance of some of the junior sides.

It was unfortunate that the under-15 side lost four points for playing unregistered players. The league imposed a fine of $30.

Peter Leon, playing his first game for Warrandyte, was suspended for four weeks on an alleged striking charge against a Boronia player.

Leon was named as Warrandyte's best player of the day in this match.

Soccer Gets Under Way

Although mainly for youngsters, coach Tony Pleasance would like to hear from any adults interested in helping coach or play.

● WOMEN VERSUS THE MAYOR CHALLENGE IN TENNIS

Warrandyte Tennis Club don't miss a trick when it comes to promoting their club.

They have recently moved to their new courts at the Warrandyte Recreation Ground.

They have hardly had time to settle in, but have accepted their first challenge match with a certain degree of boldness.

The club has been invited to compete in a tournament in conjunction with the City of Doncaster-Templestowe centenary celebrations.

A club official said: "We do not feel we could field a suitable team at this stage".

So they have challenged the Mayor Cr. I. Marsden to a match. Two well-known tennis enthusiasts, Heather Briggs and Sheila Morton will represent Warrandyte. Sunday, June 15 is the date. Donvale tennis club is the venue.

A pavilion for the club still remains a big problem. At a recent meeting Cr. J. Scott said it was not council policy to finance club buildings.

He suggested the club approach the Doncaster-Templestowe Council enquiring if some alternative shelter could be provided until a permanent structure was erected.

One suggestion has been made that all members make pise bricks and take one or two down each time they played. Pise bricks are made of mud.

The new courts have attracted many new members. Membership application forms are available from Heather Briggs, 844-3303.

Membership fees can be paid to Sally Alder at Butterworth's Foodland store.

A new list of membership fees has been adopted and will come into force on July 1.

They are: family membership $20, adults, male or female $10, students, 17 years to 21 $6, juniors: 16 years and under, $4.
