From the Committee

Name tags

Reminder to members to wear their name tags and service badges to meetings. If you don't have one or need a replacement, see Dianne Fletcher.

APSCON CONFERENCE 12th- 15th SEPT 2019 BALLARAT

APSCON planning is complete and the full programme for the 4 days can be found and registration of their website. If members Google APSCON CONFERENCE 2019 BALLARAT REGISTRATION this will give you the full details and cost for the 4 days. Organisers are asking for volunteers over the weekend for registrations and organising people on the ground. A discount price will be available to registered volunteers that can help over the weekend. If interested in volunteering contact Peter Kewley pwk@optusnet.com.au

Ballarat Photography Group Turns 58!

Our club will celebrate its 58th birthday at the August meeting this will be preceded by dinner at the Flying Horse at 6 pm on August 13th.

Club Safari/Camp 2019 at Cooriemungle

Deposits are now required. The cost will be $42 per head per night. Whilst we have sufficient numbers to make the camp economically viable, there is still plenty of room for more members to attend if they wish. Please see Dianne Fletcher regarding payment of your deposit.

OUT OF THE HAT:

Just a reminder for members to continue to work on their submissions for the "Out of the Hat" competition. Out of the Hat Competition judging will commence in September. If you have 6 to 10 small prints of your selected subject ready bring them along. This competition runs until December.

Tessa Marshall

Looking to escape the dreariness of winter? Like to be entertained? Perhaps this just might be what you are looking for. Local Ballarat singer Tessa Marshall is putting on a series of concerts at the Creswick Courthouse Theatre focusing on a tribute to female singers over the last 90 years. It promises to be a memorable event. See the adjacent flyer for full details.
